

AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

Is it a Dream?
 Manager Osborne, of the Pacific Telephone Co. was seen yesterday by an Observer reporter and questioned regarding the changes for better and more up-to-date telephone exchange and received a statement from him which was very gratifying and will please the patrons of the exchange.

Mr. Osborne stated that the company was now making arrangements for the exchange from the present antiquated system to what is being called the multiple express system and it is the expectation of the company to have the new system in operation early this summer. This system is the best system in the state and is being installed in the state and in other parts of the Pacific coast and more are being added almost daily.—La Grande.

From Engine to Farm.
 Another railroad engineer has left the engine and will retire to the quiet life of a farmer. This one is Engineer Gilman, who resigned from the railroad service several months ago. He will commence to cultivate his land near north of the river. He has purchased a team of horses which he will couple to a dirt flange which is expected to turn about 1000 lbs of soil upside down at a time. He also has a wagon with a frame for sharp curves and emergency brake for steep grades. This morning he oiled the machine and tested the gauge, journal bearings and pipe connections, and will be ready for a trial run to the north as soon as the weather will permit.—La Grande Chronicle.

Farmer Was "Touched."
 E. F. Flathers, the well known farmer, was robbed Sunday morning at the O. R. & N. depot by pickpockets. He was attempting to board a train bound for Prescott and when he stepped on the car platform a slender built young man stepped in front of him and informed him that the car was already filled and that he would have to take another. At his back another stranger kept urging Flathers to get out of the way. Finally he succeeded in getting by and entered the car. After the train had pulled out from the depot Flathers discovered that his pockets had been picked and his purse containing $5 in silver had been taken. He informed the conductor and a thorough search was made on the train, but the two men could not be located.—Walla Walla Statesman.

One Round of Pleasure.

A. Johnson, whose term of two years at the penitentiary will expire this morning, will be re-arrested and tried on a second charge. Up to a late hour last night Johnson had not been informed of the arrest awaiting him, but has probably been expecting something of the sort.

It is said that before committing the theft for which he is now serving sentence, he stole a team and sold them, and the prosecution claims to have a pretty strong case.

Sheriff C. A. Risbell of Skagit county, is in the city, and will take the man in charge when he is released this morning.—Walla Walla Union.

Bankers at Walla Walla.

The next convention of the Washington State Bankers' Association will be held in Walla Walla June 16, 17 and 18 next. This was decided upon at a meeting of the executive council of the association, held in Seattle Saturday.
