PERSONAL MENTION.

Rev. W. S. Holt left last evening for a brief visit to La Grande.

K. J. Taylor of the Frazer, returned this evening from a visit to Walla Walla.

Miss Liala Kelly, of North Yakima, was the guest of friends in the city yesterday.

H. Connell, roadmaster of the Umatilla division of the O. R. & N., is a visitor today.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parr visited with friends in the city yesterday from their farm on the reservation.

E. A. Klippel, superintendent of telegraph for the O. R. & N., is in the city today on a tour of inspection.

A. Ruppe, the prominent farmer living northwest of the city, is here today on business. Spring work is progressing nicely in his locality.

A. B. Galloway, the popular and enterprising representative of the Blake-McFaul Paper Company, of Portland, is in the city from his home at Walla Walla.

T. W. Golding, Pacific Coast superintendent of the Western Union, with headquarters at Seattle, is in the city inspecting the offices and looking over the field.

P. Grant, formerly division roadmaster of the La Grande division of the O. R. & N., who recently resigned his position to engage in business in that city, is in Pendleton today on business.

Will M. Peterson, the lawyer of Athena, was a visitor in the city yesterday, having come to attend the meeting of the democratic county central committee, of which he is a member.

Thomas Murry Spencer, agent for El Palencia cigars, with headquarters in Portland, is in the city. Mr. Spencer is the "drummer poet," and is the author of the verses on Leslie Matlock's ride at Heppner.

OLD-FASHIONED HUSKIN' BEE.

At the Opera House. Under the Direction of Miss Thompson.

The ladies of the women's clubs are contemplating the production of an old-fashioned huskin' bee, which will be given at the opera house in the near future.

The first rehearsal was held at the home of Mrs. C. J. Smith last evening under the direction of Miss Clara Louise Thompson, who has the management of the entertainment, and who will train the characters in their specialties.

Miss Thompson has given the play in La Grande, Baker City, and The Dalles, and at each place it was counted to be a great success.

The club ladies will devote the proceeds from the play to the Sacajawea monument fund. There will be about 70 people in the cast, and it is expected to be the success of the season when it is produced, being a medley of fun from first to last.

En Route Eastward.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Rely, of Halley, Idaho, were in the city for a short time yesterday while on their way east for an extended visit in the principal cities. Mr. Rely is a prominent politician and public man of Idaho.

Returned From Portland.

Dr. C. J. Smith has returned from Portland, where he went a few days ago to attend the sessions of the state board of health and the convention of the state and county health officers.

DOCTORED THE WATER.

Interesting Story of La Grande's City Water Supply.

The burning of the office and records of the city water superintendent at La Grande on Monday night, recalls an interesting story connected with the city water supply of the best town.

La Grande draws its water supply from the Grande Ronde river, one mile above town, and an agitation was started a year ago to enter into a contract with a private company to buy the city water from a new storage reservoir above town, and discard the river water.

About the time this agitation was at its height, the city water from the river came almost unbearable and undrinkable, because of some sickening stench suddenly appearing. The stuff smelled like a Chinese stink pot or something equally as bad and the residents poured in indignant complaints from all sides. An investigation of the source of the water was ordered and the water commission dragged the river and turned over every stone and log looking for the cause of the odor.

The O. R. & N. water supply, which was pumped out of the river 100 yards above the headgate of the city supply, was sweet and refreshing, and not a trace of the foul smell in it. People began to wonder how the river could take on such an unbearable odor in such a short distance, and the investigation assumed a heated stage.

About this time the city water became fresh and clean again, although nothing was found by the commission, and it was then thought that it was a part of the persuasion brought to bear to close the deal for water from the private company.

The industrial trades building of the boys' reform school at Ione, Cal., was destroyed by fire. Loss, $30,000.

SEVERAL DRUNKS.

Seven Unfortunates Are Detained in the City Jail.

Upon complaint of her husband, Mrs. D. Mumford, together with Mrs. N. W. McDevitt, were arrested this afternoon by Marshal Carney and locked in the city jail on a charge of drunkenness. The marshal found the women on the floor at the Mumford home on Webb and Alta streets in a drunken stupor, and brought them to the jail in a cab. They will be arraigned before the city court when they are sobered up a little, and will be given their trial.

Three Indians and a couple of white hoboes were also arrested on the same charge this morning, so that the city quarantine station is now nearly full with a variegated assortment.
