

AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

Farms Are Ruined. Suits have been instituted in the United States circuit court at Moscow by Charles Brown of Kellogg, cow by county, and four other Shoshone against the Golden Hunter plaintiffs and Smelter Company, the Federal Mining & Smelter Company, and Earl Mining & Greenough for the recovery of damages alleged to have been sustained by the plaintiffs through the raising upon their lands of refuse overflow from the mills operated by the defendants and from the pollution of the waters of the Snake river. These damages Court of Appeals in each case in excess of $10,000 in each case.

The "Hoodooed" Wallowa Stage. The stage on the line between this place and Elgin was wrecked Tuesday by the six horses becoming unmanageable and running over the high embankment below four passenger lines. There were four passengers on the coach but all got off in some way before it with the horses and driver went over. G. S. Craig was one of the passengers and W. H. Graves was near at the time of the accident. From their account one of the lead horses began kicking and caused the others to run. Billy McWilliams, the driver, called to one of the passengers to get on the seat with him to take hold of the lines and help hold the horses. They pulled so hard that one of the lines broke and thus turned the entire team to ward the embankment.—Wallowa Democrat.

New Engines Unsatisfactory. Tests of a modification of the triple type locomotive for heavy duty service has convinced Northern Pacific officials, it is said, that the type is not adapted to the requirements of freight service on the mountain divisions. It is regarded as probable that no more of these engines will be purchased except for use in the prairie districts, where

MARKET REVIEWED

HOGS ARE QUOTED AT 15 CENTS PER 100 HIGHER. Portland Mutton Market 1/2 Cent Higher than Omaha—Eastern Oregon Steers Remain the Same—A Large Amount of Idaho Stock Going to Portland.

Portland Union Stockyards, March 23.—The receipts of livestock in the local yards consist of 282 hogs, 266 cattle and 75 sheep. The cattle market is not so firm, but prices remain the same. Sheep are dull on account of the lower prices ruling in the East.

This market is now about 1/2c higher on sheep than Omaha and the result is that Eastern Oregon and Idaho shippers are sending their stock into this market. Hogs are quoted firm and about 1/2c higher. Ruling official prices are: Cattle—Best Eastern Oregon steers, $4.50; best valley steers, $3.75; medium steers, $3.50; cows, $3.50; bulls, $2.25; pigs, $2.75; Hogs—Best heavy, $6; block, $5.25; China fats, $5.00; stockers and feeders, $4.50; Sheep—Best grain-fed wethers and lambs, $4.50; mixed sheep, $3.25; stockers and feeders, $2.25.

the line is comparatively straight and there are none of the sharp curves necessary in the mountains. A large number of exceptionally heavy compounds with trail wheels supporting the weight of the firebox, are in service in the West, but they are making trouble, it is said, because the wheel base is not sufficiently flexible. Engineers complain that the trail wheels are constantly causing hot boxes and delays; that once hot it is impossible to cool them, as in the case of a hot driver box. Some of the big compounds have been transferred to other divisions, where they have given splendid service.—Spokesman-Review.

Cannery for Lewiston. The Lewiston Cannery Company has just completed unloading the cannery equipment which recently arrived here from Seattle and is now being installed in the building just finished.

The plant is guaranteed to work through at least 40,000 pounds of fruit and tomatoes per day, which will give to Lewiston and the fruit and vegetable raisers of this valley a new market for their products. The inauguration of this plant will be of inestimable value to the business as well as the commercial interests of the entire section and it is possible that Lewiston cannery goods will achieve the same reputation throughout the whole country as is now enjoyed by the fruits that have been shipped out in the past.

Mr. Walsh, manager of the company, states that the plant will be in need of some 200 tons of cucumbers for which they will contract to pay on an average of $29 per ton, and the company is now prepared to sign contracts for these cucumbers.—Lewiston Tribune.

Thrilling Debates in Grand Ronde. The Chronicle of last Saturday, in reporting the Grange Hall literary, stated that Mr. W. F. Grider was forced to pay a fine of 15 cents for going to sleep while acting as judge at one of the debates.

Mr. Grider wishes us to state that he is not guilty of the misdemeanor, but that Mr. George Robison, another judge went to sleep, having previously made the request that Grider walk him up when John McAllister had finished speaking. All of which proves that "music hath charms to soothe the savage ear."—La Grande Chronicle.
