 Women who work, whether in the house, store, office or factory, very rarely have the ability to stand the strain. The case of Miss Frankie Orser, of Boston, Mass., is interesting to all women, and adds further proof that woman's great friend in need is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

 Surely you cannot wish to remain weak, sick and discouraged, and exhausted with each day"s workk Some derangement of the femininine orrans is reponsibl for this exhanustion, following any kind of work or effort kind of work or erfort. Lydin e. Pink chan's Vegetante Compound will help you just as it has thousands of other women. The case of Mrs. Lennox, which follows, proves this.
