OREGON PIONEER DEAD.

Marcy C. Lingenfelder, of State Line, Crossed Plains in 1843.

Mary C., wife of W. E. Lingenfel-der, died yesterday at her late residence on the state line, six miles southwest of Walla Walla. Mrs.
Lingenfelder, whose maiden name was Bryant, was born in Bloomfield, Davis county, Iowa, November 5, 1843. Crossing the plains with her family in 1852, she lived in Washington county, Oregon, for a number of years, marrying W. E. Lingenfel-der in 1858. In 1863 she moved to Marchland, and 18 years later to Il-waco, Or., where they remained until coming to the present residence on the state line about two years ago.

Besides her husband, a family of five survive her: George, who lives at home; Alice English, Portland; Electa and Mary Colvin, of March-land, and Sarah C., wife of Perry Colvin, of the state line. The funeral will take place at Ingle Chapel tomorrow.

At Church of Redeemer.
Services tomorrow, Palm Sunday, will be held at the following hours, and will be of special interest: Sunday school at 10 a. m., sermon and celebration of the holy communion at 11 a. m. In the evening, at 7:30 o'clock, the apostolic rite of confirmation will be administered to a class of some 12 persons. The bishop of the diocese, B. Wistar Morris, will be present and preach at the two services.

Old-fashioned Housewarming.
Last evening about 46 of the friends of Rev. and Mrs. Robert J.
Diven chartered the Hotel Bickers bus and journeyed out to the new house near the race track, which was lately built by Mr. Diven, where an old-fashioned housewarming party was held. A very enjoyable time was had by all the visitors.

The Peoples Warehouse WHERE IT PAYS TO TRADE

SELF DENIAL WEEK.

Salvation Army People Will Raise the Sum of $140 in Pendleton.

The Salvation Army officers are working diligently on their self denial week subscription, which amounts to $140 this year. This amount is fixed by the head officials of the organization and the local army force must raise the amount assigned them.

During this week the members deny themselves all the luxuries and many of the necessities of life and contribute the amount saved to the fund to be raised by them. There are 29 active members of the army in this city and the amount assigned them is very large compared to the membership.

There will be one or two special meetings at the barracks during the coming week and during this time there will be placed in the hall what is called an "altar table" upon which all those who attend the meetings can place, if they so desire, any amount which they wish to contribute to the fund.

The money raised in this way is sent to the headquarters, where it is used by the organization in missionary work.

It is also used in furnishing rent and fuel, food and clothing, medicine and burial for the homeless and the destitute. To this end then the local soldiers are laboring that they may help their fellow comrades in distant cities and states.

Arrive April 20.

Dr. T. H. B. Anderson, who will preach at the M. E. Church, South, will arrive April 20, and conduct services the evening of that date.

WHEN YOU WANT A GOOD ROOF

One that won't leak. One that will be fire-proof. One that has proven to be satisfactory under the most exacting conditions. One that will last. When you are after that kind of a roof, you'll settle down on ELATERITE ROOFING. It costs no more than cheap, worthless paper or any other unsatisfactory class of roofing material, but it's worth more. Let us quote prices.
