The Thursday Afternoon meets once in two weeks, Thursdays.
The Current Literature, alternate Fridays.
The Woman's Club meets the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month.

The regular meeting of the Thursday Afternoon Club was held at the home of Mrs. S. P. Sturgis, on Thursday afternoon, March 24, when the subject of "Lace" was discussed. It proved to be a most entertaining topic and some rare exhibits of different kinds of lace were shown to illustrate the various papers read on the subject.

Mrs. John Halley, Jr., presented the subject of "The History of Lace" in an entertaining paper; Mrs. E. P. Marshall discussed "Antique Lace" in an able review and exhibited some rare and beautiful samples of the lacemaking art, during the reading of her paper.
"Modern Lace" was discussed in an entertaining manner by Mrs. T. G. Halley, who also illustrated her paper with exhibits; Mrs. A. J. Owen also presented "A History of Lace" in a very entertaining paper, and Mrs. Fred Lockley discussed "Pillow Lace" in a practical and picturesque manner.

It was one of the most delightful meetings of the winter, and a large attendance of club members was present. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the program.

POSTOFFICE NEWS

IMPROVEMENTS TO BE CARRIED OUT AT ONCE.

Complete Rearrangement of All Interior Facilities, Which Will Include Better Heating Capabilities—Hope to Have Night Distribution Service, Which Will Necessitate an All-Night Man—Several Thousand Dollars Will Be Expended.

The postoffice people are making a preparatory move for the improvements in the office, and in a few days the workmen will be put to work on the alterations.

The changes outlined in the East Oregonian will be fully carried out, and when the place is turned over to Postmaster Livermore, he will hardly know it for the same office. The boxes will be rearranged, and the work room will be greatly enlarged so that there will be no danger of the business outgrowing the office during the five years of the new lease.

The owners of the building will put in a new heating system, or rather will rearrange the old one to conform with the changes to be made in the room. New and up-to-date furniture and desks will be installed and a new fire and burglar-proof safe will be bought and placed in the money order office. Altogether, there will be in the neighborhood of $1,000 expended on improvements alone.

At the same time the improvements are being effected in the office furniture, an effort will be made to improve the service as well. For some time there has been a call for a night mail distribution service, and if the plans now being laid carry, the people will have the added convenience in a short time.

As it now is, all mail dropped in the office after 9 o'clock in the evening does not leave the office until the following morning. This works a hardship on the merchants especially, as a great deal of business mail goes out to Portland and the west on No. 5, at midnight, and to the east on No. 6 at 4:45 a. m. It is impossible to catch these trains unless the letters are in the office before 9 o'clock, and if missed, the west-bound letters have to wait for No. 1, at 9 o'clock, and the east-bound until the next evening.

According to the plans now under consideration, a man will be kept in the office who will make up the mail for each of the night trains about half an hour before its departure. Just when the new arrangement will go into effect has not been determined, but it will be commenced as soon as possible if the plan proves feasible and the force can be so arranged as to provide for the change.

BOYS ENTERTAIN.

Delightful Party at Home of John and Westbrook Dickson.

A pretty party of the week was given last evening by the Pendleton Boys' Athletic Club, at the home of two of its members—John and Westbrook Dickson—when the club entertained their young lady friends.

The club colors, yellow and violet, were tastefully used as a decoration. Progressive anagrams were played, the lady's first prize being won by Miss Nora Younger, the consolation falling to Miss Kathleen Furnish. Ralph Bollerman scored the high honors for the boys, and Linden Vincent second.

The boys giving the party, and the members of the club, are: Creas Sturgis, Nathan Wells, Andrew Bollins, Roy Ferguson, Linden Vincent, Ralph Bollerman, Elroy Morris, Harold J. Warner, Jack Bushnell, Edgar Smith, Sherman Kunkel, John Dickson, William Bollins, Frank Spencer and Westbrook Dickson.

The young ladies entertained were Paralee Halley, Elizabeth Sawtell, Nora Younger, Eleanor Vincent, Ruth Gibson, Nona Johnson, Kathleen Furnish, Genevieve Clark, Edna Storie, Winnie Boylen, Mable Bickera, Hazel Rader, Jessie Folsom, Una Smith, Hazel Hamilton, Eunice Vogel and Gertrude Campbell.

SUIT TO RECOVER $20,000.

It is Also Asked to Make T. C. Taylor a Co-defendant.

Yesterday afternoon Joseph N. Teal appeared in the United States district court at Portland and asked that T. C. Taylor be made a party to a suit brought against the estate of C. B. Wade for the recovery of $20,000 on a note now held by A. R. Burford, cashier of the First National Bank of Walla Walla.

The petition was asked for as Taylor, the trustee of the estate, is now the representative of Wade in the disposal of his property. The suit is in the equity court, and is brought to recover on the claim held by Balfour, Guthrie & Co., against Wade. Wade borrowed the amount named of the company, and gave as security a block of the stock of the Pacific Realty Company, and some notes held by him against the J. E. Smith Livestock Company and other parties. The attempt now is to get control of these collateral securities on the ground that they were sold to the present owner prior to Wade being declared a bankrupt.

TWO INFORMATIONS FILED.

One Charges Larceny, the Other Assault and Battery.

An information was filed this afternoon against John Stott, who is accused of the larceny of a harness from his brother-in-law, C. E. Walker, and he will be asked to plead in a short time.

Arthur Wright was also accused by the district attorney of assault and battery upon the person of Charles Ingle, of Freewater. This is the case where Wright bit off part of the ear of an antagonist in a saloon fight. The prosecuting witness in the case is a saloonkeeper at Freewater.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

Plaintiff Alleges Great Cruelty, Defendant Pleads Insanity.

A divorce suit was filed this afternoon by Lillian Read against Melvin Read. Both of the parties are residents of Umatilla, where the defendant is an engineer on the O. R. & N. The plaintiff alleges that the defendant and she were married in St. Paul, Neb., August 26, 1891. There are three children. She alleges cruelty in her complaint and states that her husband at one time beat her with a broomstick and then threw her on the bed, where he choked her and flourished a butcherknife around her head. She broke away and he pursued her with a loaded revolver and challenged her to go out in the sagebrush and fight it out with him. At another time he came behind her and hit her over the head with a piece of hose, knocking her senseless, after which he kept her confined in her room until the bruises had gone from her face.

The defendant claims insanity as his excuse for what he did. The plaintiff asks for $2,000 for the support of herself and child, for an absolute divorce, $50 a month during the pendency of the suit, $250 for attorneys' fees and $150 for court fees, together with the costs and disbursements of the action. James A. Fee is her attorney.

HEAVY MORTGAGE.

Given by the W. & O. Power Company for Quarter of a Million.

A mortgage was filed in the office of the recorder this morning by the Washington & Oregon Power Company, in favor of the Baker Loan & Investment Company for $250,000. The head power station of the company is to be on the south fork of the Walla Walla, in this county, and the mortgage is given to cover the cost of constructing the plant.

The instrument covers 26 pages of typewritten manuscript, and the fee for recording it is $15 under the present law governing the recording of the legal instruments. Under the old law the cost of recording would have been $7.50.

J. O. BLOUCHER DEAD.

Could Not Survive the Shock and Loss of Blood.

Joseph O. Bloucher, the man who was run over by the freight train at Thorn Hollow Wednesday, and who had his arm taken off at the shoulder at St. Anthony hospital the following day, died there this morning. He had lost too much blood and was too weak to stand the shock of the operation.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the undertaking parlors of Baker & Folsom, conducted by Rev. N. H. Brooks.

ROBERT DICK IN TOWN.

First Time He Has Been to Town in Three Months.

Robert Dick, a well known resident of Pilot Rock, was in the city today for a short visit on business. This is the first trip that Mr. Dick has made for some time, as he had the misfortune to have his leg broken about three months ago by a log rolling over it. He is still on crutches, but will be able to discard them in a very few days.

Miss Peebles Will Sing.

Miss Lois Peebles will go to Pendleton Sunday to sing a sacred solo at the Church of the Redeemer during the morning service. Miss Peebles has on several occasions been invited to sing by the pastor, and has now found it convenient to be present at the Palm Sunday service. Her voice, in which the Weston people have found so much to admire, will be heard to special advantage with pipe organ accompaniment.—Weston Leader.

Dr. Hall, of La Grande.

Dr. and Mrs. M. K. Hall, of La Grande, are guests at the Hotel Pendleton for a short time. Dr. Hall was called here to assist in the operation performed this morning on Mrs. C. W. Vinecour, who was suffering from a tumor.

The place will be the Commercial stables (the Froome livery barn), on Main street, where all of the property will be gathered and sold to the highest bidder.

Notices of the sale were posted, as by law required, this morning, and Judge Fitz Gerald sent out notifications to the creditors of the estate today.

Diven, as mentioned in these columns before, will until further notice, hold services in Pilot Rock on the first Sunday in each month.
