UMATILLA THE BEST

CHARLES OGILVY HAS SEEN
MANY OTHER LANDS.

For the Past 40 Years Has Been a Happy Resident of This County and Thinks it the Best County Under the Sun — Reminiscent Sketches of Early Umatilla Pioneers.

Charles Ogilvy, of Pilot Rock, is one of the old-timers of Umatilla county. In conversation with a representative of the East Oregonian, recently, he said:

"I have traveled considerable, and been in many lands, but do you know that when all said and done, and the pros and cons of each place weighed, I believe California Gulch is as pleasant a place to live as any that I have seen on God's footstool. I have about a thousand acres of nice rolling farm land here as lies out of doors.

"What lands have I seen? Well, I started from Scotland when I was a lad and went to the Shetland Isles. After a few years in the Shetland Islands I got to pining for old Scotland and a Scotch lass that I fell fond of so I went back to my old home.

"Well, my lass and I fixed it up and when the dominie had tied us hard and fast in the auld kirk, we took ship and went to New Zealand. We lived there a few years, our next stopping place being the Fiji Islands.

"As this place did not appeal to us we went to the Sandwich islands which were not much more to our liking. Here we got letters from 'Dundee Will.' His name was William Reid. He was a great stockman, and he, with William Ladd, were the first importers of pure-bred stock into Multnomah county. He wrote us glowing letters of the chances in the Oregon country.

"One of the old Hudson Bay factors, named Birney, who had a donation land claim on the Columbia river, at Cathlamet, had died leaving his wife, who was a squaw, in charge of the place. Reid got me the job of manager of her ranch. I made considerable money there during 1867, but 'farthest fields are always green,' and I had heard there was to be some fine lands on the Indian reservation in Umatilla county thrown open for settlement, so I came to Umatilla Landing.

"At Umatilla I met a pleasant young man named Lee Moorhouse, who was clerking there in a store. He had been married but a short time, and his wife and my wife were soon quite chummy. He owned a house in Pendleton, which I a little later rented. My wife living in Pendleton, while I went out to work for William Ross, a big sheepman here at the Rock.

"Those were gree days to make money in the sheep business. Ross used to get $50 for a pure-blood Merino buck, and it but a lamb. The ranges were not crowded, there was plenty of grass and it was no trick to make money in the sheep business then. I could have been a rich man if I could have left Scotch whisky alone, but finally I had the good sense to cut out the acquaintance of John Harbysoren and I have done well ever since.

"I have a nice little bunch of cattle, and a good farm, while my wife and I have 14 children, all of them alive and well, but one boy died a few months since. I have been here nearly 40 years, and while Eastern Oregon, taken by the broad and large, is a good country, I think Umatilla county is the king pin of them all."

Fined for Unlawful Fishing.

This morning Andrew Peasner and Charles Fisher were each fined $25 and costs by Judge Hoffman for violating the game law. Saturday afternoon Game Warden Morse was informed that Peasner and Fisher were fishing in Yellowhawk creek and he immediately went out to investigate. After following up and down the stream for some time he found the two men and Cora Wilson, a notorious character about town, eating dinner in a tent near the race track on the bank of Garrison creek. The men denied that they had violated the law and said that the fish had been left with them by a farmer residing near by.

Of late there has been a large amount of trout sold about the city by men and boys and Game Warden Morse says that he is not going to stop with this case, but he will prosecute every person that he finds that is violating the law—Walla Walla Statesman.

ALBA NEWS NOTES

PAST MONTH HAS BEEN HARD ON LIVESTOCK.

Snow is From Twelve inches to Two Feet Deep—Nearly All the Livestock Has Been Taken From the Dixie Ranch—Most of the Horses Are Hackneys—Death of a Young Boy—Returned From Minnesota.

Alba, March 28.—The weather has been stormy all this month, and the hardest on stock of any during the winter. The ground is now covered with snow all the way from 12 to 24 inches deep. Stock so far are in good condition.

J. C. Clemmer left this morning with about 30 head of the Dixie ranch horses belonging to the Wade estate. They are mostly Hackney stock and will be placed on the horse market in Pendleton, for sale to the highest bidder. This, with the exception of a few colts, leaves the Dixie ranch bare of stock.

Orvel McGaffie, 5 years old, son of William McGaffie, died here March 24, and was buried in Ukiah cemetery.

All the hay on the Himble estate sold last week at $12 per ton.

C. E. Hoover of Pendleton, is here looking after his interests.

D. Minsky, who has made three trips in the past 15 years to Minnesota, is back here again.

Lots Sold.

R. R. Dixon and wife of Los Angeles, have sold to Charles Fishman of this city, for $1,250, all of lot 12 in block 183, in the reservation addition.

YOUNG WIFEHOOD

Boston, Mass., 152 Shawmut Ave., Oct. 25, 1902. After I had been married about four months I felt my health generally decline. I seemed to lose the light step and dragged wearily along instead. My appetite failed me and I lost health and strength. I was nervous and had shooting pains through my limbs and stomach while bearing down pains and constant headaches added to my misery. The menstrual flow became more and more profuse and I was unfit to attend to my daily duties. My husband called in three different physicians and I took enough medicine to fill or cure a dozen women, but it all had no effect on me whatever, until I took Wine of Cardui. In a few days I felt a change for the better, my general health improved and at the next time of my periods my flow was more natural and I was in less pain. Gradually I recovered my health and strength and am now in perfect health. I take an occasional dose of Wine of Cardui which keeps me well. I am happy to give you this endorsement.

Beth Ricker
President, Back Bay Woman's Club.

Why don't you try for the same health Mrs. Ricker has? It is easy to secure if you take Wine of Cardui according to directions. Wine of Cardui strengthens weak and worn-out women of any age and assists the mother and housewife to bear her exacting duties. Wine of Cardui makes women fit for all the duties of womanhood.

It will relieve the pains of irregularity, cures falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, ovarian troubles, and has been known to remove what physicians considered dangerous tumors. Women who use Wine of Cardui do not suffer at the monthly periods. They do not suffer hysterical attacks, because Wine of Cardui gives them strong nerves freed from the irritation of female suffering.

A $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui purchased from your druggist will keep you free from pain.
