

AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

Sparring Their Horses.
The state veterinary was by the governor to kill a range of 600 mangy horses owned by the Columbia river Indians kept on a range near Coquille, it was feared that these horses would be met from the Indians would be killed. Ten horses were killed. However, the more Indians were made to understand the law and trouble was avoided. The Indians agreed to dip their horses and cure them, if possible, and the matter will rest until the spring round-up, when Dr. McFarland will be present to again look at the condition of their horses. The spring round-up all horses are to be afflicted with the mange and be killed.—The Dalles Chronicle.

Sparrow Pest in Walla Walla.
It is nearly 10 years since the English sparrows appeared in this city, and for some time the little fellows seemed to be without any nationality. Finally some one discovered that the little scavengers were of the sparrow variety. Nobody was particularly interested in the little fellows until the new found little scavenger was a matter of fact the sparrow has remained the fewer birds he can claim. The innocent looking little bird is a fighter, and when once entrenched in a bird society becomes a terror to the big and little feathered songsters. He brings mourning to the lives of innocent bluebirds and swallows, and trouble to the birds which may desire to near his haunts.—Walla Walla Union.

Bones of Antediluvians.
Bones and teeth of animals which have not yet been identified with any others on earth have been dug from the cliffs along the Columbia river, about 25 miles northwest of Pasco, Wash., by A. B. Funk, a geologist and secretary of the Ashland Land company. In the

COMPETENT JUDGES.
My Doctors Endorse Herpelide.
Men who make a business of beautifying other women come pretty near knowing what will bring about the best results. Here are letters from two, endorsing Herpelide:
"I can recommend Newbro's 'Herpelide' as it stopped my hair from falling out, and as a dressing it has no superior."
(Signed) Bertha A. Trullinger, "Complexion Specialist," 30 Morrison St., Portland, Ore.
"After using one bottle of 'Herpelide' my hair has stopped falling out, and my scalp is entirely free from dandruff."
(Signed) Grace Dodge, "Beauty Doctor," 106 Sixth St., Portland, Ore.
Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpelide Co., Detroit, Mich.

SO DIFFERENT.
Lots of Claims Like This, But so Different—Local Proof is What Pendleton People Want.
There are a great many of them. Every paper has its share. Statements hard to believe, harder to prove.
Statements from far-away places. What people say in Florida. Public expression from California. Oftentimes good indorsement there. But of little service here at home. Pendleton people want local proof. The sayings of neighbors, friends and citizens.
Home indorsement counts. It disarms the skeptic; is beyond dispute.
This is the backing that stands behind every box of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a case of it:
S. B. Baldwin, retired, of 709 Thompson street, Pendleton, Ore., says: "When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I desired to try them and got a box at the Brock & McComas Co. drug store. They did me a world of good. My kidneys had bothered me off and on for 35 years, always more severely after I had caught cold. There was not much backache, but kidneys which disturbed my rest several times each night. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Brock & McComas' drug store, and used seven boxes in all. They corrected the function of the kidneys and strengthened my back as well."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—DOAN'S—and take no other.

Exchange Bank building. The specimens which he has here show evidence of having been subjected to a great heat. They were found in a cliff 3,330 feet high, about 150 feet above the waters of the river and beneath a covering of 150 feet of earth. From the location of the bones it is inferred by Mr. Funk that thousands of years ago the land was sinking in this section and that as this was a high point of land, all the species of the animals must have collected there for safety.—Spokane-Review.

Idaho Will Boom.
Hon. L. P. Pence has just returned from a business trip to Salt Lake. He thinks that city is in a fair way to be one of the best on the Pacific coast. The Moffitt road is building that way and the new road that has been surveyed up through Nevada is now supposed to be the Wabash. As Gould is now on his way to Salt Lake and the west, no small probability attaches to the idea that it is his road that is building in. The importance of these new roads to Salt Lake will be seen at a glance.
Mr. Pence says that the eyes of many prominent Salt Lake capitalists are directed toward Idaho. They see in this state greater opportunities for investment than in any other. The number of inquiries which Mr. Pence received from people interested looked to him as an indication that the thoughts of hundreds are turned this way.—Boise Statesman.

Looking After Oregon's Farms.
State Land Commissioner O. West of Salem, spent the day in Baker City yesterday and called on the Evening Herald. Mr. West is one of Chamberlain's appointees and his home is in Astoria. He is now on his way to Grant county to look after a farm down there belonging to the state of Oregon.
It is not generally known that Oregon is in the farming business. But she owns at least 50 acres at present and leases them just like any other landlord. She formerly owned many farms, but the number is decreasing rapidly.—Baker City Herald.

MACCABEES AT GREAT FALLS.
Order is Very Prosperous and Growing in Montana.
Great Falls, Mont., April 1.—Several hundred delegates and visitors representing hives throughout Montana, are attending the annual state convention of the Ladies of the Maccabees in session here today.
The annual reports of the state commander, Mrs. Anna Dolsen of Butte, and of the various other officers show the order to be in a flourishing condition in this state, a marked increase in membership having been made during the last 12 months.
Besides transacting routine business the convention will conduct a big class initiation and select a delegate to represent the state at the next meeting of the supreme hive at Port Huron, Mich.

School Men Confer.
Minneapolis, Minn., April 1.—A general conference of the city school superintendents of Minnesota began at the state university today and will continue through tomorrow. The leading cities and towns of the state are represented. The superintendents have no place in the state educational association and consequently it was decided to hold a separate conference for the discussion of problems pertaining particularly to the work of supervision.

Changes on Southern Pacific.
Chicago, April 1.—E. C. McCormick, recently promoted from passenger traffic manager of the Southern Pacific to the position of assistant traffic director, entered upon his new duties today in the office of Traffic Director Stubbs.
