

FROM LAST TO FIRST

People used to take plain cod liver oil for coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles after other remedies had failed. Scott's Emulsion is the modern idea of cod liver oil—the first instead of the last resort when such ailments appear.

The taste of the oil is not apparent and the oil itself is partly digested—makes it easy for the stomach. Scott's Emulsion is a quick, reliable help at all ages.

GAMBLING ISSUE

WHO WILL BE THE NEXT

DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

If T. G. Hailey Will Not Take the Office, Then John McCourt Should Have It—Phelps Said to Have Openly Bid for Gambling Vote—Mccourt Thrown Down by the Party Leaders Because of His Anti-Gambling Stand.

Pendleton, April 2.—(To the Editor.)—The gambling question is one of the leading issues to come before the people of Umatilla county this election, and those who are interested in morals and good government, should be thinking about the matter in advance of the nominations.

It is generally understood that T. G. Hailey will run for the office of district attorney again, and if he does, it seems to be the duty of the moral classes for whom he has done so much, and for whom he will do still more in the future, to assist in his election. If these people mean what they say, and are in earnest about suppressing gambling, they cannot and will not stand on political differences, to further the cause of morality in this community.

But if Mr. Hailey will not run for the office again, then look out. On the recent visit of G. W. Phelps to this city, it is understood from good authority, that he made an open bid for the gamblers' votes, and that he believes he must have the votes of this class to be elected. On the grounds that John McCourt, would stand on an anti-gambling platform, for this city and district, it is now openly charged that the political leaders in the local republican organization, have decided that Mr. McCourt is a weaker man, politically than Phelps, and that Phelps, having voted against the anti-gambling bill, has a cinch on the votes of the gambling and saloon element, and can be elected on an open gambling ticket.

This is the situation that now faces Pendleton. After all the efforts to suppress the gambling evil, and make this a moral town, a school town and a home town, to which Pendleton citizens would be proud to invite all people looking for school and religious influences, it is to be made even worse than it was two months ago, when all the riff-raff of the Northwest gathered here, plying their nefarious trades.

Rather than stand by John McCourt, a moral and conscientious young man, whose principles are too sacred to be bartered away for a nomination, it is arranged to throw him down, because of his morality, and nominate a man who will bid for the gambling vote.

The citizens of this city and district who are interested in keeping up the fight against vice should be thinking about these matters for they must be settled at the convention soon. Do you want to go backward? Do you church people, who are paying your money year after year for the promulgation of the principals of morality, want to be hoodwinked into a political plot to down your best friends?

If T. G. Hailey will not accept the nomination for district attorney again, John McCourt is the logical man for that office, because of his bold stand against the gambling evil. He should be all the more acceptable to the moral classes, because of the fact that Pendleton politicians have cast him aside for a man whose very nomination is to be attempted because of his friendliness for the gambling vote.

If the moral element in the district is not careful in selecting a successor to Mr. Hailey, they will unwittingly select the gamblers' own attorney for the place. The open town would then follow with its attendant curses of vice and immorality, and the work of years would be undone. O. BUTTINSKI, Pendleton, Ore.

DROUGHT IN ALASKA.

Passengers Arriving From North Say Cold is Intense.

Seattle, April 1.—The Alaska Steamship Company's steamer Dirigo arrived in port last night from Skagway. She brought but a few passengers and a cargo of 75 tons of empty beer barrels.

Among those arriving on the Dirigo were C. W. Long and R. J. Burkhardt, both of Fort Wrangle. Captain Johnson reports a very pleasant voyage down, although the weather in Alaska is still cold and a little trouble was experienced in getting water for the vessel, which at the present time can only be had at Juneau, the water mains in the other towns along the route being entirely frozen up.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpicide is In Giving it a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vigors may look nice and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpicide stands the "test of use." It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease.

THE FAIR

NOT UNANIMOUS. New York Democrats Opposed to Judge A. B. Parker.

Albany, N. Y., April 2.—Seeking to hit at ex-Senator David B. Hill and to injure the boom of Judge Parker for the presidential nomination, the Albany county democracy, together with the radical Bryan element of the democracy in New York city, have arranged for a banquet at the Stanwix hall in this city tonight. The affair is announced as a dollar Jefferson dinner.

The principal speakers of the evening are to be ex-Senator Charles A. Towne, Judge Samuel Seabury of New York city, and Henry George, Jr., all of whom are known as warm supporters of Bryan and antagonistic to ex-Senator Hill and his Parker boom. The underlying purpose of the gathering is said to be a plan to keep Hill from going to the national convention as a delegate.

Beef Cattle Scarce. There appears to be a scarcity of beef cattle in this county at the present time, and local butchers are said to be experiencing some difficulty in obtaining enough to supply the local demand. The reason for this situation is obvious since the large shipping firms of Seattle, North Yakima and Portland have bought up all the beef cattle and steers they could find. No shipments of cattle have been made from Pendleton the past month, for the reason that there has been no stock for sale.

Some of the butchers have been buying small bunches of cattle in the country, but the supply is now about exhausted and it will be necessary to look elsewhere for beef.—Baker City Herald.

It is expected that the 2,000 employes in the Santa Fe railroad shops at Topela, will strike for the maintenance of the closed shop principle. On the quiet the company has for a long time been substituting union workmen with non-union workmen, and not hiring the former when it could get the latter.
