MOODY FORCES WIN.

Union, Baker and Wallowa Counties for the Ex-Congressman.

La Grande, April 4.—Union, Baker and Wallowa counties have elected solid Moody delegations to the county conventions. Grant will be divided and Harney, it is now thought, will be for Moody.

The primaries were very quiet, although the interest was the most pronounced in several years. The church and Scriber factions, have been very active in Union and Wallowa counties, and the nomination of a Moody ticket throughout is now conceded in these counties.

EASTER TEA.

In Honor of Rev. Potwine, at Home of Mrs. Marshall.

Tomorrow afternoon from 2 o'clock until 6, the ladies of St. Agnew's Guild will hold their annual Easter tea, the proceeds of which will be devoted to parochial work. The hostess will be Mrs. E. P. Marshall, who has kindly opened her home to the guild. Rev. W. E. Potwine has consented to remain over one day longer, and will be the guest of honor.

J. H. Koontz Returned.

J. H. Koontz, the pioneer merchant and miller of Echo, has just returned from a three months' visit in California, and is much improved in health.

Reception to New Pastor.

A reception will be tendered to Rev. G. L. Hall, the new pastor of the Baptist church, on next Thursday evening at the church. Friends are invited to attend the reception.

WHEN YOU WANT A GOOD ROOF

One that won't leak. One that will be fire-proof. One that has proven to be satisfactory under the most exacting conditions. One that will last. When you are after that kind of a roof, you'll settle down on ELATERITE ROOFING. It costs no more than cheap, worthless paper or any other unsatisfactory class of roofing material, but it's worth more. Let us quote prices.
