Miss Helen Elliott, of Athena, is the guest of Pendleton friends for a few days.

George S. Reed, a business man of Portland, is in the city for a short business visit.

Horace Walker, of Helix, went to Walla Walla this morning for a short business visit.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Nelson, of Athena, are in the city visiting friends for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Palmeter, of North Yakima, were the guests of friends in the city for a few days.

Richard Gowan, an attorney of Seattle, is in the city for a short time visiting with friends here.

W. R. Allen, proprietor of the cigar store and bowling alley at Pilot Rock, is in the city on business.

James Nelson, of Butter creek, left for his home last evening after a brief visit to the county seat.

William Blakeley visited his farm at Eastland yesterday, and reports spring work now in progress everywhere.

Clint Hodges, a prominent and pioneer resident of Freewater, is the guest of friends in the city for a short visit.

B. F. Marlin and wife, of the Cottage hotel at Meacham, are in the city ordering supplies for their extensive business.

Phillip Murphy, one of the old-time residents and prominent fruit-growers of Freewater, is in the city for a short business visit.

Charles W. Saxman, a prominent mining man of Pittsburg, was a Pendleton visitor today while on his way to Spokane on mining business.

Frank Robinson, formerly of this city, now located at Weiser, Idaho, is in the city on a brief business visit. He reports business good and work for all classes of laborers plentiful at Weiser.

Al Storie, superintendent of the bridge and building department of the O. R. & N., left this morning for Heppner, where he goes in the interest of his bus department on the Heppner branch.

Lillian Burroughs, formerly of This City, Married at La Grande.

Miss Lillian Burroughs, who was born and reared in Pendleton until about 15 years of age, was married last evening at her home in La Grande, to Fred Hahn, an employe of the O. R. & N. shops, at that place.

Her father, Harry Burroughs, was one of the pioneer printers on the East Oregonian, having worked in the office while the paper was owned by the late J. H. Turner. Mr. Burroughs issued the paper on a Washington hand press and set most of the type himself, and for a time was the entire typographical force in the office.

About six years ago he removed to La Grande, where he was employed as fireman on the O. R. & N., and has resided there since, being now employed as a locomotive engineer on the mountain division.

Miss Burroughs grew to womanhood in this city, and has a host of friends here, who will be pleased to know of her wedding.

The young couple will reside permanently in La Grande, where Mr. Hahn is a trusted employe of the railroad company. Lola, another daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burroughs was married to James Snodgrass in La Grande, about two months ago.

Remodeling Begun.

Contractors Commence Work on the Judd Building.

The contractors have commenced the remodeling of the new bank rooms in the Judd building, and will soon have them in shape for occupancy by the bank. The old windows in the front have been taken out and larger and heavier plate glass will be put in place. The interior of the room will be entirely changed.

ECHO HAS DOUBLED.

Village of Last Year is Now an Organized Town of Thrifty Appearance.

"The population of Echo has doubled during the past year," said Mayor L. A. Esteb, of that town, to the East Oregonian today.

"All we need now is a little paint on houses and fences and a little sage brush grubbed out of the streets to give the town a presentable appearance. Newcomers are arriving every week, and some city property is changing hands. Everybody hopes for the early completion of the irrigation plans, on the reservation, withdrawn by the government."

"I have lived in 10 states and territories and have never enjoyed such a perfect climate as we have here. During the past winter there has been nothing at Echo to remind us of the change of season, except the stories of Eastern storms which we have read in the papers."

"With the introduction of the sugar beet here, I look for a season of unprecedented activity and prosperity in this section of Umatilla county."

NINETY-FIVE PER CENT.

This is the Proportion of Lambs on Cunningham's Ranch.

Charles Cunningham has finished shearing his sheep on the Butter Creek ranch near Pilot Rock, and has found that the wool went very heavy.

Lambing has begun and his flocks at that place average 95 per cent, while the average on some of the ranches in the near vicinity has been much lower, showing the gain made by better bred and better housed and fed sheep.

On some of the ranches the ewes have been poorly fed and housed during the winter, and now that the lambs are coming they are dry and their lambs are dying as a consequence. Very few twins are being born among the flocks this year, but the single lambs are all large and strong.

Se Williams Farming.

Se Williams, a member of the high school graduating class, has been at his home, 10 miles north of the city, for several days, starting the plows on 500 acres of summer fallow plowing. The winter wheat is looking fine and growing nicely. After the work is well under way on the farm he will return and take up his studies in school.

"Huskin' Bee" Posters.

Today hand-painted posters advertising the "Huskin' Bee," were displayed in prominent windows and attracted unusual attention. They are novel and decidedly original illustrations of the characters in the play. Full rehearsals today of all parts.

Gone to Portland.

Matt Taylor is visiting friends and transacting business in Portland for a few days and while he is gone his place in the Sideboard is being filled by R. Smith, of Walla Walla.

WHEN YOU WANT A GOOD ROOF

One that won't leak. One that will be fire-proof. One that has proven to be satisfactory under the most exacting conditions. One that will last. When you are after that kind of a roof, you'll settle down on ELATERITE ROOFING. It costs no more than cheap, worthless paper or any other unsatisfactory class of roofing material, but it's worth more. Let us quote prices.
