Over Thirteen Hundred Acres of Land Changed Hands, Which is to Be Put Under Water Very Soon—Consideration, Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars—Affairs of the Two Companies Have Been Co-operative for Some Time.

Aggregate Cash From Personal Property Sold is Nearly Thirty Thousand Dollars—Below is Given a Full List of the Imported Animals Which Changed Hands in Today's Sales, With Names of Buyers, and Prices Paid.

A deed was filed yesterday afternoon by which the Minnehaha Irrigation Company transfers to the Maxwell Irrigation Company, 1,320 acres of land soon to be put under irrigation at Maxwell, the consideration being $75,000.

The conclusion of the sale of the Wade property opened this morning at the O. K. feed yards, at 10 o'clock. A large crowd was there to bid on the horses.

The transaction is simply a transfer of the properties held by the management of the two companies, which have been working together for some time under one head, for the more successful handling of the schemes of irrigation in that part of the county.

At the opening of the sale four notes, of the aggregate face value of $2,074.25, were offered, and were sold to local parties for $14.

The Minnehaha company has been in existence for a number of years, and some time ago the latter company was formed at Maxwell, under the management of G. S. Rankin and J. C. McNaught. Plans have been laid for an extensive irrigation scheme at Maxwell, and the company intends to put a large portion of the country under water at an early date. A great deal of property of the two companies has been held by the same parties, and was thus practically under the management of the same people. The transfer of yesterday was to put it under one head for the better management.

There were a number of imported English Hackney horses, ranging in ages from 10 to 14 years, and the amounts brought were a surprise to the bidders themselves. The stock had been listed by the appraisers at an average of $10 to the head, and when sold, they brought all the way from $12 to $81. All of the stock and property in the two days' sales brought better figures than it was supposed they could.

HEAD MEN IN TOWN.

Over 100 Guests Will Attend the Banquet at Hotel Bickers.

Several of the head men of the Woodmen of the World will be in the city this evening, to take part in the celebration to be held in the lodge hall, and to attend the banquet.

Arrangements have been made to seat over 100 guests at the banquet this evening, and a very successful termination to the campaign is expected.

The stallion Earling, which was brought to this country from England by Wade, at a cost of $800, was sold some time ago, and the herd that was for sale today consisted of mares and colts chiefly.

The sale of the imported mares which were brought to Oregon from England and from Maine some time ago, and whose ages ranged from 10 to 14 years, resulted as follows: Peggy, to Steve Charlton for $65; Oceana, to E. L. Smith for $50; Dolly F., to Mrs. W. J. Sewall for $40; Dora Griffin, to E. L. Smith for $67.50; Lena J., to Mrs. Sheridan for $72.50; Don Bismont, to Mr. Snell for $75; Lady Casey, to L. F. Anderson for $67; Linnie D., to J. B. Perry for $101; Belle Griffin, to L. F. Anderson for $38; Dorcas, to George Rugg for $90; Hattie R., to James Hartnet for $82.

In addition to these animals there were 25 colts sold at a total of $1,935, the prices ranging from $12 to $81. The result of the sales will bring the receipts from the personal estate close to $30,000, a much larger amount than was estimated prior to the sale.

$5 Given Away.

A cash prize of $5 will be given to the couple of best waltzers at the dance at Music hall this evening. Those present will pick the winner. Each person allowed one vote.

IN SOCIETY

Society having discarded the sack-cloth for more gorgeous raiment, the ashes of the penitential season will be wafted upon the breeze. The realistic downy chicks and fuzzy rabbits, which have been incongruously commingled with Easter lilies as decorative features of almost every entertainment of the week, will be relegated to their proper places, not to appear in society again until next Eastertide. The fore part of the week Rector Potwine came in for his share of entertainment at the hands of his parishioners, who did their utmost to have the closing days of his ministry in Pendleton so pleasant that time will not efface it from his memory.

Farewell Reception.

One of the largest affairs of the week was the farewell reception to Rev. W. E. Potwine, at the parish house on last Monday evening. The place was beautifully decorated for the occasion with palms and Easter lilies. The tables were very pretty with hooded waxen tapers and flowers. Here Mesdames Norbourne Berkeley and A. D. Stillman presided and poured coffee. Hundreds of friends of Rector Potwine called during the evening. As a token of esteem of the parishioners of his church, a purse of $150 was quietly handed to him during the evening. This amount was increased the next day by a check for $50 as an individual present from one of his members.

St. Agnes Guild Reception.

Tuesday afternoon, although the weather proved very inclement, found a large number of callers at the home of Mrs. E. P. Marshall, in response to an invitation to a tea to be given by the St. Agnes Guild. A small admission fee was asked. The money raised in this way, which was $40 over expenses, was presented to Rev. Potwine.

The house was very tastefully decorated for the occasion with spring flowers, Easter lilies and potted plants. Mrs. Marshall was assisted in receiving by Mesdames Frank Moule, T. G. Hailey, Fred E. Judd and Miss Ida Thompson. Miss Rita Bean presided at the fancywork table. In the dining room Mrs. Frank Hamilton poured tea, assisted by Mesdames Frank Frazier and A. D. Stillman.

Post-Lenten Luncheon.

A pretty post-Lenten luncheon was given by Mrs. Clinton Roosevelt on Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. C. S. Jackson. The color decorations were yellow and white. Yellow Jonquills were used in profusion, with soft hooded lights of the same shade. The table presented a pretty appearance. On each place card rested a little "yellow chick" as a souvenir of the occasion. The guests were Mrs. T. G. Hailey, Mrs. Leon Cohen, Mrs. Mary Lane, Mrs. J. R. Dickson, Mrs. F. W. Vincent, Mrs. P. C. Taylor and Mrs. C. S. Jackson.

A Thimble Party.

A pleasant afternoon was spent at the home of Mrs. F. W. Vincent Tuesday, when she invited a number of ladies to a thimble party. Mrs. Johnson being the guest of honor. A novel feature of the afternoon was the burning of three different size candles. Each guest was asked to put on paper the time they would judge it would take to consume each candle. In this, Mrs. H. E. Johnson won first prize and Mrs. Mary Lane second. The other ladies present were Mesdames A. M. Raley, Susan Welch, N. E. Despain, Mary Lane, Jesse Felling, T. M. Starkweather, G. A. Hartman, S. P. Sturgis, Mary La Dow, R. G. Thompson, Mary Disoway, Clarke and Bishop.

A Surprise Party.

Those present were: Sherman Kunkel, Harold J. Warner, John Dickson, James Sturgis, Ralph Bolleman, William Boliona, Edgar Smith, Andrew Bollons, Roy Ferguson, Nat Kimbal, Jack Vincent Bert Campbell; Misses Hazel Rader, Edna Story, Winnie Boylan, Lucille Rader, Audra Rust, Eunice Vogel, Eleanor Vincent, Una Smith, Paralee Hailey, Genevieve Clarke, Jessie Folsom, Ruth Gibson, Nona Johnson, Elizabeth Sawtell, Gertrude Jordan, Fay Sullivan.

Enjoyable Surprise Party.

Last evening Miss Pauline Jones was tendered a surprise party at the home of her parents, on Water street. About 25 of the young friends of the hostess had made arrangements with Mr. and Mrs. Jones, and most completely surprised their victim as she was about to start out for a visit with one of her friends. Games and refreshments were the order of the evening, and a most enjoyable evening was experienced. Among those present were:

Mrs. Bleakney Entertains.

Mrs. William Bleakney entertained the members of the academic and preparatory departments of Pendleton Academy last evening, at the Academy building. The evening was spent in playing games and in various other forms of entertainment, which were interspersed with recitations and music. Mrs. Bleakney recited a couple of very pleasing numbers at the solicitation of her guests. Later in the evening refreshments were served.

Often leads to poverty. No real woman ever sold her heart for the luxuries of life. But many a woman who has gladly faced poverty for the man she loved, may well doubt her wisdom when pain becomes the mate of poverty. If she were rich, she thinks, she could find a way of cure.

$500 REWARD FOR WOMEN WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

GONE TO ALBANY.

Mother of E. J. Sommerville Not Expected to Recover.

County Treasurer Sommerville left this morning for Albany, having been called by a telegram announcing that his mother, who resides in that city, was critically ill and could live but a short time.

Mr. Sommerville visited his mother some weeks ago, having been called there by her illness, but when he returned it was thought that she was out of danger, for a time at least. She is one of the oldest residents of Albany, and some time ago contracted a cold, which for one of her advanced age, was quite serious.
