

AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

Under of Heppner Flood. grim reminder of the awful flood of Heppner last June is being unearthed. The tells of the latest as follows:
Morgan, while cultivating ground on his lot in this city, was swept by the flood of water, unearthed a grim reminder of the flood's terrible work by up a Chinaman's queue. The which had evidently been from the head of some unfortunate who was in a good state of mind.
According to the Chinese religion the queue is not only highly ornamental but is very useful. They believe that when they pass in their from this earthly career, they are carried to the celestial paradise by a big joss, who sails down the queue for a handhold to them away.
It is to be presumed this queue was broken off by the cruel waters of the big joss, and this because, well, the poor, Mongol, lost the queue in a bad present according to Chinese ethics. A display of this gruesome find caused a disturbance among the local population of Heppner.
Look upon Tom Morgan as a possessed of the devil. They want to do his washing.

Whitman, Champion Debater.
He is champions of the Northwest and Her Brown has won his debate" was the joyous cry that rang throughout Whitman college last night at the close of the intercollegiate debate between Whitman college and the University of Idaho. The chapel was crowded and the audience was repaid by one of the closest and best debates ever held in the question discussed was, "Resolutions of the Suffrage in State Municipal Affairs Should Be limited to Women." Whitman defended the negative and won the of both Judges Black of Lewiston and Rev. Giboney of Spokane.

The Idaho boys were J. Galloway, R. W. Overman and L. Adkisson, and they were well primed and put up a fine debate, but Whitman was better loaded with facts.
Brown of Whitman was the favorite of the evening although Overman of Idaho made the more finished argument. Miss Marsh of Whitman distinguished herself by giving the best constructive argument of the evening and giving it with telling effect.—Walla Walla Statesman.

True Story of "Joe Monaghan." Fred J. Palmer of Jordan Valley has received a letter from Mrs. Walters of Buffalo, N. Y., relating to the life of "Joe" Monaghan, in which she says that "Joe's" real name was Johanna Monaghan. She was born in Buffalo. Her mother always dressed her in boy's clothes and let her earn her own living by running errands and selling newspapers on the streets.
Mrs. Walters, knowing that "Joe" was masquerading as a boy and with the consent of her mother, gave "Joe" a home and sent her to school.
She left home for the West in 1869, settling in California, and later went to Silver City, Idaho, where she appeared as a witty Irish lad.
Her mother died at Buffalo in 1870.
She had no brothers or sisters, but has a cousin in Buffalo who claims the estate, valued at $2,000.—Boise

Portland, April 11.—The grain mar-slight as to have no influence up-
