OREGON IN BLOOM

UMATILLA COUNTY WEEKS AHEAD OF OTHER SECTIONS.

Late Spring All Over the State—Farm Work in Full Progress Although Delayed—Ranges Excellent—Orchards in Full Bloom—Summer Fallowing Being Done—Fall Wheat Looks Well.

The first two days of the week were rainy and cold, but the latter part was warm and pleasant and ideal for farm work. A few frosty mornings occurred, but the frosts were too light to do any harm.

Plowing and seeding has been pushed as rapidly as possible. The soil on the high lands is in excellent condition for plowing, and that on the bottom lands is fast drying out. Early gardens have been started and some early potatoes have been planted.

The season, however, is very backward, the farmers generally are behind with their work, and many fear that they will not have time to prepare the land they intended for spring seeding before it is too late for wheat and other small grain. Fall wheat is doing nicely and but few complaints are made regarding its condition.

Hops are beginning to sprout, but the hopgrowers have not yet had time to thoroughly clean and cultivate their yards, although they are now very busy at this work. Goat shearing has begun and the clip, so far as learned, is an average one. Pastures and stock are improving, and in some sections stock has been turned out on the range.

Early cherries, peaches, plums and bush fruit have come into bloom during the week, and the outlook for fruit of all kinds is much better than usual thus early in the season.

Kingsley, Wasco County, George J. Friend—Weather fine, with very little frost; fall grain doing nicely; stock in good condition; grass growing; plowing just begun; fruit trees not hurt yet.

Wasco, Sherman county, W. C. Morehouse—Fall wheat doing finely; spring wheat being sown rapidly; weather fine for all kinds of growing crops.

Olex, Gilliam county, George W. Marvel—Weather dry, cool and frosty; crops growing slowly; spring seeding pretty well done; fruit not hurt.

Lexington, Morrow county, Edwin R. Beach—Summer fallow grain sown last fall is looking well; volunteer grain is somewhat weedy; spring sown grain is just now coming into sight; fruit buds are swelling; snow is in sight on the foothills and deep in the mountains; the ground is everywhere wet to a good depth; much spring grain is yet unsown.

Adams, Umatilla county, C. S. Ferguson—Weather fine; never saw a better prospect for fall sown wheat; spring sowing nearly completed; summer fallowing progressing nicely; pasture short, fruit trees nearly in full bloom; gardening begun; ground heavy and cold for the season.

MUST OBEY THE LAW

LAND DECISION OF IMPORTANCE TO UMATILLA.

General Land Office Decides That Sleeping Once in Six Months on a Homestead Does Not Constitute Residence—Land Must Be Lived Upon and Improved.

The Walla Walla Union gives the following land decision which will be of vital interest to many homesteaders in Umatilla county: "The local land office has again been upheld in a decision wherein a settler's entry when contested, was held for cancellation. The decision of the land commissioner was received yesterday, and it affirmed every contention of the local office in dealing with the case.

Lafayette Buff, who was postmaster at Hay, Whitman county, filed on a homestead January 30, 1901, the land lying about five miles from the station where Mr. Buff had a small business in connection with the post-office.

Henry C. Wood filed a contest May 14, 1902, alleging that Buff had not made a residence upon the land, had not improved it, and the cultivation and fencing had been neglected. The case was heard at the local office July 8, 1902, and the register and receiver held that the law had not been complied with, and the entry should be held for cancellation. From this decision Buff appealed.

Lacked Residence and Improvement. "The facts brought out at the trial of the case and on the appeal can be briefly stated: Buff was a married man with six children, and held a preemption claim nearby Hay station, where he kept the postoffice and telephone in connection with a little store.

"After filing on the land he built a shack 14x18 feet, but did not finish the doors and windows, neither did he lay a first-class floor. He plowed less than one acre of the land and seeded none of it. The nearest school was five miles distant and he claimed that he could not keep his family isolated from educational advantages by living on the land, while it was largely unproductive and likely to remain so.

"Mrs. Buff and the children visited the land and remained over night occasionally, returning to the little village in the morning. This was also shown to be the custom of Mr. Buff, when not otherwise engaged.

"The testimony was contradictory in its nature, and the witnesses seemed to make stories so widely different that it was difficult to harmonize them.

"The land commissioner holds that residence was not made in good faith and that the cultivation of the land was neglected, if not abandoned."

New Jersey Democrats. Trenton, N. J., April 14.—A few weeks ago it appeared that the Hearst element would have everything its own way in the convention, but the old-line democrats at last opened their eyes to the situation and their delegates came to the convention prepared to fight to a finish to defeat the purposes of the radicals. This morning both sides were claiming the upper hand and the ultimate outcome of the contest is in doubt.
