NOTES FROM HOLDMAN.

Stray Politicians Running at Large in the Hills North of Pendleton.

Holdman, April 20.—A bunch of stray politicians passed through the town of U. B. Dam Sunday, and were corralled at the home of Mr. Holdman long enough for the people to examine the brands on them.

It was found that the strays were George Robbins of the Owl Tea House of Pendleton, and Dr. T. M. Henderson, democratic candidate for coroner. They came just in time to be pressed into the harness at a socialist meeting. After sweating in the harness for a few minutes in neat speeches, they went on west and are now on the open range somewhere, but no one knows just where they water at.

School has been transferred from the old to a new house in the Holdman district, four miles north of the old house.

There are three months of school yet.

A reservoir for public watering purposes is now being built on the hill near the village. A well eight feet in diameter is also being dug, and a bountiful supply of water has been found.

THERE ARE NO FAILURES.

Dr. Garfield, of Victoria, B. C., Tells of Three Hundred Cases Wherein He Recommended the Use of Trib. Dr. James G. Garfield, of Victoria, B. C., when asked, do you endorse TRIB as a cure for the liquor and tobacco habit, said: "I do. I have seen your remedy long before it was sold to you, and can tell you of three hundred people that I have advised to take it. I never knew of a failure to cure where the party taking it was sincere."
