12 TO 15 PER CENT

AMOUNT IN SIGHT FOR THE WADE CREDITORS.

Personal Property Yielded $19,113.18
Net—Not All the Claims Have Yet
Been Allowed—First Dividend Will
Be of Six Per Cent—W. T. Rigby
Has a Claim for $1,500 Which He Holds Should Be Preferred and Paid in Full.

T. C. Taylor, trustee of the Wade estate, has filed his report of the income from the personal property, and part of the expenses.

There was $531 in cash on hand when the first sale was made, which had been secured from the sale of one or two small items.

The personal property sold amounted to $14,668.75, and the cattle yielded $3,912.53 after the expenses of dipping and feeding had been deducted. This made a total income from the personal property of $19,113.18.

The expenses of the trustee so far reported have amounted to $736.68, leaving $18,376.50 to be turned over to the referee.

Out of this sum there is still to be taken several items of expense, among them being the claims of the appraisers (which have not yet been filed,) the petitioner's claim for attorney's fees, filing expenses, and incidental expenses which will amount to about $125, the fee of the trustee's attorney (which has not been filed,) and the trustee's commission (which will be between $190 and $336,) and the referee's commission of 1 per cent on the amount disbursed to the creditors.

Referee Fitz Gerald announces that he will in a short time award a dividend of 6 per cent on the personal property. This is based on the estimate of $260,000 for the entire claims put in and allowed.

From the present outlook and estimating the real property at $20,000, it is probable that the total dividend will perhaps amount to between 12 and 15 per cent.

W. T. Rigby holds a preferred claim of $1,500 against the personal property, which he claims should be paid in full; but his contention is disputed by many of the creditors, and by the trustee, and the case will be given a hearing by the referee before he awards the dividend.

CHANGES ON O. R. & N.

Freight and Passenger Departments of O. R. & N. and S. P. to Be Merged.

General Traffic Director J. E. Stubbs, of the Harriman system, was in Portland yesterday on an important mission connected with the future of the O. R. & N. and Southern Pacific railroads.

It is said unofficially that the passenger departments of the O. R. & N. and the Southern Pacific will be merged under the direction of W. E. Coman, the present passenger and freight agent of the Southern Pacific. The same reorganization also contemplates the consolidation of the freight departments of the two systems under R. B. Miller, general freight agent of the O. R. & N.

It is said that A. L. Craig, at present the efficient passenger agent of the O. R. & N., will go to San Francisco to take a position in the passenger department under C. S. Fee. No immediate change is contemplated in the mechanical department of the O. R. & N. It is possible that the Southern Pacific system may be placed under his control.

"FRIENDS" TONIGHT.

Put More Land in Corn.

Corn planting will begin around Athens in about 20 days and much of the ground is already in shape. Previous successes have inspired confidence to such a degree that the acreage promises to be still further increased this year. The corn movement is spreading in every direction from Athens, where the pioneer ventures were made, and chances are being taken on lighter soil.—Athens Press.
