ECHO'S FARMER PICNIC.

Prominent Speakers of the State Will Be Present to Address the People on April 30.

H. C. Willis, recorder of the city of Echo, and one of the foremost promoters of the Farmers' Club at that place, has just received a letter from Col. R. C. Judson, of the O. R. & N., informing him that Dr. James Withycombe, of the state agricultural college; Dr. E. N. Hutchinson, of the government bureau of animal industry, and other prominent speakers will address the citizens of Echo and vicinity on the occasion of the farmers' picnic on Saturday, April 30.

The people of Echo are enthusiastic over the prospects for government irrigation, and by constant advertising through the mediums of Farmers' Club meetings, picnics and sugar beet experiments, hopes to have a town of 1,000 people within a year from today. IN WONDERLAND.

Northern Pacific Issued Its Annual Descriptive Circular of the Great Northwest.

The W. & C. R. is now distributing the annual descriptive magazine, "Wonderland," issued by the passenger department of the Northern Pacific.

This magnificent magazine publication, although issued by a busy railroad company, is one of the most picturesque and interesting books issued in the West. It contains over 100 pages highly illustrated with typical western scenes from the wonderland through which the Northern Pacific lines run, and has truly inspiring pictures of the great Yellowstone Park and other famous resorts reached by the Northern Pacific and its branches.

The editor of the book is Olin D. Wheeler, the veteran literary manager of the Northern Pacific and its stories are of the highest standard, and its descriptions true to nature and facts.

A Thoughtful Man.

M. M. Austin of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of, and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills, and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c at Tallman & Co.'s drug store.

It is known that Andrew Carnegie's income is far ahead of his expenditures in spite of his library founding and other benevolences.

Wants More Trib.

L. F. Foster, San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 2nd, 1903, writes: "Please find enclosed draft for $150.00. Send me one dozen treatments of 'Trib.' The druggists here say they have orders in they can't get filled. Why is this? I took Trib myself last June and never felt better in my life than I do now. I have gone down in weight to 195 pounds and never think of liquor or tobacco any more. I know of 25 cures you could get reference from, if you care to write for them. Be sure to send me twelve Tribs at once; I want to send them to Honolulu."
