NEWS OF ATHENA

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DROWNING AT CAYUSE.

New Brick Business House Will Be Erected—Athena Man Hurt in the Mines—New Pipe Organ Has Been Put in—Froome's New Brick Nearly Finished—Death From Dropsy—Gone to Alberta—Increased Acreage of Corn.

Athena, April 21.—A few days ago Milo White attempted to cross the Umatilla river at Cayuse and was almost drowned. His back was turned over and washed down against the brush below the ford. Limery Bros. hired men came to his rescue and helped him, his horses and vehicle out.

A. L. Wood, who is employed in the Standard mines at Burke, Ida., was caught in the hoist last Sunday and received some very bad bruises on the face and body, the flesh of one are was badly torn.

Mrs. John King, who spent Sunday in Walla Walla visiting Grandma King, reports her as gradually getting worse and her recovery to seem very doubtful.

The new pipe organ for the M. E. church has arrived, and was put in the new building yesterday. It cost $450.

M. S. Averil left Tuesday for Alberta, where he will look after his property.

Mrs. Claude Estes is on the sick list this week.

There is still three feet of snow at the Fletcher saw mill, and at the summit, 10 feet.

Another New Business House.

H. O. Worthington and G. W. Gross, who own the property known as the "Blue Front," will build a brick to take the place of the old wooden building. The building is to have a 25-foot frontage on Main street and extend 70 feet back. It will be one story and used for a store room by Worthington & Thompson. It is to be furnished in modern style and be one of the best store rooms in town.

Will Be Finished in May.

The new brick of Froome's will be completed so the Parker & Reltz barber shop can be moved in it by the 15th of May.

Death From Dropsy.

Mrs. Tommy Barger has received news that her nephew, Lester Beale, who has been in a critical condition with dropsy, died at his home in Milton this morning. It was not unexpected, as he has lain at the point of death for several weeks.

Increased Acreage of Corn.

The Athena people who will plant corn are getting their ground in fine shape, and the planting will commence in about 20 days. There will be a great deal more put in this year than last, as it is profitable in this section of the country.

M'KAY CREEK ITEMS.

High Water on the river Bottoms Drives Families From Their Homes.

North McKay, April 21.—Squirrels are plentiful.

Gardens are backward on account of high water.

Crops are glorious. A rancher's smile is as broad as a barn door. J. S. Wheeler lost two horses about a week ago, tied together by the neck with a long rope. In some manner they escaped from the barn. After scouring the country in every direction he had about given up, when he accidentally found them in a livery barn in town, with a goodly feed bill attached.

Fred Hill has hid himself hence on a sheep shearing job.

Miss Ethel Wheeler has gone to somewhere near Pilot Rock to attend in her cousin's family while sick.

The Kidder brothers are engaged in painting and decorating the new Bowman block in Pendleton. Their farming operations are in charge of the Kidder brothers, Junior.

Louis Neal and Joseph Francis were driven out of their respective homes by the high water near the mouth of Birch creek. No serious damage was done excepting the destruction of a little early gardening.

The friends and former neighbors of Mr. Bronson, who was so seriously injured on Sunday last by a rock in the hands of a hoodlum, sympathize with him and wish a speedy recovery.

Mr. Fitzgerald has sold his 10-acre farm of bottom land half a mile from town west, to a Mr. Ott, from Iowa, for $2,000. Mr. F. was afraid of the river.

TWO LETTERS ABOUT TRIB

Man Who Was Willing to Try and Was Convinced.

A. S. Burroughs, Baker City, Ore., Dec. 15, 1902, wrote: "I have been a very hard drinker for twenty years, few people drank more than I. If your TRIB is a cure I want it." On May 15, 1903, Mr. Burroughs wrote: "It is a pleasure for me to recommend TRIB as a cure for the liquor habit. It has now been six months since I completed a cure with TRIB. I have never had better health. I eat well and sleep well. I believe it is the best cure for the liquor addiction yet placed upon the market." Tallman & Co., local agents.

Hay Scarce in Wallowa.

Owing to the high price of hay the livery and feed barns along the line between Joseph and Elgin have been obliged to raise the price of hay from 50 to 75 cents per span, for hay over night.—Wallowa Democrat.
