Oregon: Daily Journal Digs Up a Cake Recipe Now Owned by Mrs. Munra Whic Has Descended From Martina Washington-Sketch of an Interesting Career.

A recipie for a calce made famous in relevate days by Marcha Washing ion has descended from mother daughter and is now in the possession of Mrs. K. S. Minra of this city, she having obtained it in 1869 from the daughter of the woman to whom it was conduct to Martha Washington herself, says the tregen Lucia Journal.

Mrs. Munra, nithough within a few months of her 73d idrihday, is un bright and energetic as many a wa-man of 20 years her junior. For more than a quarter of a century past she has been known to the traveling public as "Grandma" Munra and "the old fady with the silvery curis," hundreds who have never beard her name remembering her from her shows curis which have been a distinguishing feature during he Bonneville eating house and the Tanonis log cabin cining statist at Meacham, near the sumial of vis-
