Japs Lose Heavily.

St. Petersburg, May 3.-Viceroy Alexieff reports officially that eight Japanese fireships were sunk last night when an attempt was made to block Port Arthur harbor. Land batteries and torpedo boats participated in the shelling of the ships. Two Japanese torpedo boats also went down, according to the report.

Discovered by Searchlights.

The fireships were ascovered by the searchlights, creeping in from the east and southeast. Torpedo boats and destroyers were ordered out, and Viceroy Alexieff himself went aboard the coast defense ship Otvashni.
