Louisville, Ky., May 3.—The republican state convention for the selection of delgates-at-large to the national convention at Chicago, is session here today. More than 1,500 delegates filled McCauley's Theater when the convention was called to order by Chairman Barnett, of the state committee. The political rejuvenation of former Governor W. O. Bradley makes it probable that he will head the Kentucky delegation at Chicago. Resolutions indorsing President Roosevelt for renomination and praising the national administration will be passed.
