BOYS IN BAGNIDS

NEW MORAL ISSUE SPRUNG
ON PEOPLE OF PORTLAND.

Messenger Boys Frequenting Dives and Low Places in General When Sent on Legitimate Business is Alarming the Moralists of That Town—It is a Villainous Evil That Demands for Correction.

Steps to prevent messenger boys from visiting questionable houses of the North End in Portland will be taken by the police officials in the near future. This matter was under the attention of the officials of the Child Labor Commission some time ago, but they seem to have dropped it entirely.

The new move was started when Leo Koberstine, a 16-year-old lad, appeared before Judge Hogue at police court, to answer to the charge of being in a bawdy house. When the lad was arrested he was in the Paris House in the room occupied by Nollie Thompson. The Thompson woman was brought into court to testify that the lad was in her room. When she stepped from the witness stand she was placed under arrest on the charge of enticing the little fellow into her room. She was found guilty of the charge and fined $50.

The parents of the boy live in the country, but his brother resides on the East Side. The child had just returned from home, to go to his brother's place, but had gone down town with some new acquaintances, which led him into the famous resort—a place he said where he had never been before.

"I will impose a heavy fine on this woman," said Judge Hogue, when he was disposing of the case, "for the practice of young boys going into the dives and questionable places must be stopped. A move must be started to prevent messenger boys from going into those places. The officials should attend to this matter at once. I will give all of my assistance to bringing about this much-needed reform."

"Some time ago the same question was taken up by the officials of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society, but they let it drop. Later it was taken up by the members of the Child Labor Commission, and they, too, let the matter pass without taking definite action. Orders should be issued that no one under the age of 21 should be allowed to enter such places."

At all hours of the day and all hours of the night, messenger boys go to these questionable places, to carry messages to the inmates. They are obliged to carry beer, other strong drinks, cigarettes, etc. It is learned from the officials that some of the messengers go to those houses and stay much longer than sometimes seems necessary.

There they hear the foul language, the curses of the drunkard, see the ways of the young criminal, and come in contact with wickedness, that they would escape if they were prevented from frequenting such resorts. There is a strong city ordinance which will give the police department power to prevent the boys from going there.

When the Sap Rises

Weak lungs should be careful. Coughs and colds are dangerous then. One Minute Cough Cure cures coughs and colds and gives strength to the lungs. Mrs. G. E. Fenner of Marion, Ind., says: "I suffered with a cough until I run down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by Tallman & Co.

BONAPARTE FOR RUSSIA.

Prince Louis Napoleon Takes Charge of Czar's Cavalry.

St. Petersburg, May 5.—Prince Louis Bonaparte has been appointed chief of the cavalry division of the Russian army and he is hurrying to the Far East to assume command.

Napoleon was born in the castle of Menden, five miles southeast of Paris, July 16, 1804. While not yet 40 years old, he is considered one of the most brilliant soldiers in all Europe.

Bonaparte is the second born of the late Prince Napoleon Jerome, son of Jerome, king of Westphalia, and of the present princess of Savoy, sister of the late King Humbert of Italy. Princess Mathilda, who died recently, left him her immense fortune. Bonaparte is not the Imperial pretender of the Bonapartist party in France. It is his brother, Prince Victor Napoleon, who bears that title. Prince Louis is a soldier of fortune. Ever since he has been old enough to bear arms, he has been where there was fighting. It didn't matter under what flag he served—if the flag was in war, he cheerfully bore it allegiance. From 1887 to 1890 he was an officer in the Italian cavalry, but served in a dozen little European skirmishes in the Balkans and elsewhere.

CONNECTICUT DEMOCRATS.

Parker Following Hopes to Control for Instructions.

Hartford, Conn., May 5.—Politicians and delegates from all over the state are flocking to town to attend the democratic state convention, which meets in the Auditorium tonight. Organization will be effected this evening and adjournment then taken until tomorrow. The principal business before the convention will be the selection of 14 delegates to the national convention at St. Louis.

Hearst has made a strong fight throughout the state, but the conservative element claims today that it will be able to control the convention and that Connecticut's delegation will go to St. Louis instructed for Judge Parker. The Hearst delegates come from Bridgeport, New Haven, Waterbury, Meriden and other mill towns, while the rural districts, the smaller towns and several of the larger cities, including Hartford, have sent delegates to the convention opposed to Hearst. It is believed that if the first test vote in the convention shows the Hearst following that they lack a majority, they will not strive for an instructed Hearst delegation, but will endeavor to prevent Judge Parker from getting an instructed delegation.

A Cure for Piles. "I had a bad case of piles," says G. F. Carter, of Atlanta, Ga., "and consulted a physician who advised me to try a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. I purchased a box and was entirely cured. It is splendid for piles, giving relief instantly, and I heartily recommend it to all sufferers." DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled for its healing qualities. Eczema and other skin diseases, also sores, cuts, burns and wounds of every kind are quickly cured by it. Sold by Tallman & Co.

Delaying the Portage Road.

When the difficulty arose between L. H. Taffe and the state over the right of way across his land for the Cello canal, the commission gave him until May 1 to decide whether or not he would accept their offer of $15,000. Taffe stood out for $40,000 and put the matter in the hands of an attorney, saying he would fight it out to a finish before he would give in. He explains that the canal will virtually destroy his plant which has taken him 20 years to build and which cost $200,000. The right of way leads through his cold storage plant, which he claims cost $14,000.

The legislature appropriated $100,000 to purchase the right of way, which, if Mr. Taffe is paid his price will not be sufficient to cover all the expense of securing the entire right of way; but should he accept the amount offered, the full appropriation will not be needed.

Although no papers in a proceedings to condemn right of way have as yet been filed, it is rumored that suit will be instituted at once. It is likely, however, that it is a case that will go to a higher court before being settled.—The Dallas Chronicle.

Ladies and Children

Who cannot stand the shocking strain of laxative syrup and cathartic pills are especially fond of Little Early Risers. All persons who find it necessary to take a liver medicine should try these easy pills, and compare the agreeably pleasant and strengthening effect with the nauseating and weakening conditions following the use of other remedies. Little Early Risers cure biliousness, constipation, sick headache, jaundice, malaria and liver troubles. Sold by Tallman & Co.

Cartooned the Cartoonist.

A cartoonist cartooned an occurrence at the Vogt Sunday night. It is not likely the great cartoonist had any idea that a pencil in the hand of one whom he may hear of at some future day, if she but follows the avenue in which her talents lead her, was at work sketching him as he stood before a Dallas audience sketching others. But such was the case, and Miss Violet Kent has in her possession at Gifford's studio, a remarkably good likeness of Homer Davenport.—Times-Mountaineer.

do not hesitate to recommend Kodol Dyspepsia Cure to their friends and customers. Indigestion causes more ill health than anything else. It deranges the stomach, and brings on all manner of diseases. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant but a tissue building tonic as well. Renewed health, perfect strength and increased vitality follows its use.

Mitchell's Trip Postponed.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 5.—President John Mitchell of the United Mineworkers was to have sailed for Europe today, but at the headquarters of the organization it was said his trip has been postponed until fall. Mr. Mitchell will represent the miners of America at the International Miners' Congress, which is to meet in Paris in August.

May Mean Rate War.

Portland, May 5.—Beginning June 1 the steamer Nome City will be operated between Seattle and Nome by the California & Oregon Coast Steamship Company. During the past three years the vessel has been operated on the northern run by a Puget Sound firm. Failing to recharter her for the present season the owners decided to invade the field which has been held almost exclusively by the Puget Sound transportation companies since the big gold excitement of 1900. When the steamer is placed in commission it may be the means of precipitating a rate war.

George Sample, a teamster, of Seaside, was instantly killed Tuesday by being crushed by his loaded wagon.
