EIGHT CHAMPIONS

SELECTIONS ALL MADE
EXCEPT FOR ONE EVENT.

Not Determined Yet Who Will Fling the Discus at Walla Walla—Pendleton Team Has Some Splendid Runners, Jumpers and Throwers—List of Schools That Will Be Represented—Increasing Interest in Athletics.

Professor Roy Conklin, the manager of the Pendleton high school track team, has been holding little try-outs for several evenings to determine who will be the eight men to compose the team to go to Walla Walla next Friday to meet with the other scholastic teams for a field day, and has at last selected all of the team with the exception of one event.

The entry for the discus is still in doubt, and lies between George Strand and Lester Means, who will have a little field day of their own soon to ascertain which is entitled to the distinction.

The team is limited to eight men, and the selections have been made with a view of getting the best men for the single events rather than the men who will make the best general average, as it is hoped by that to get first place winners in each event entered. The management has strong hopes of success on Friday next.

Running Events.

Will Wyrick, the captain of the team, is doing good work in the 100 and 220-yard dashes, and will go to Walla Walla to attempt to take the first place in both events.

James Reeves and Frank Pierce will run the 440-yard dash for the Pendleton team, Roy Leezer the 880, and the relay team will be made up of Frank Pierce, James Reeves, Roy Leezer and Clarence Bollerman. All are fast, and the faith of the students is pinned to them for winners.

Jumping Champions.

Lester Cronin is scheduled for the high jump and the pole vault, and is regarded as a strong man sure of points. C. Bollerman will do the broad jump, and either George Strand or Lester Means the discus.

Hurdle Work.

Se Williams is getting into shape for the 120 and 220 hurdles, and will be sure of leading the bunch if he can shake off the plowboy gait he has been acquiring for some time on his farm. He has been in the country looking after the seedling of his spring crops and has not been training as the other boys have, but he is recognized as one of the fastest men in this part of the country when in trim, and is polishing up his spikes each evening with the rest of the bunch. In a week he will be in fairly good trim and ready for the meet.

Schools Represented.

Teams from the Walla Walla high school, Whitman Academy, Dayton high school, Baker City high school, Waitsburg Academy, Huntsville Academy and the Pendleton high school will be entered and it is expected this year that other schools will be there with either full teams or special men for particular events.

The Pendleton team will have some fast men, and it is expected that they will lead the flock when the points are footed up at the end of the last event.

NEARLY READY.

Vigorous Preparation for the La Grande Oratorical Contest.

The orators at the high school are hard at work on their orations for the interscholastic oratorical contest at La Grande the evening of May 28, and will have them in the hands of the faculty soon.

The orations submitted by the contestants will be sent to the English department at Willamette University when they are completed, and will be graded at that institution on their diction, composition and argument. They will be returned to the committee in charge of the contest, and the ones selected by the judges at the local contest will be retained, with their markings, for the evening of the final contest.

To Hot Lake for His Health.

Judge J. J. Murphy, of Salem, left last night for Hot Lake, where he will remain for some time in the hopes of restoring his health, which has been impaired by too close application to his duties as clerk of the supreme court. Some time ago Mr. Murphy suffered a stroke of paralysis from which he has never fully recovered.

Japs for Echo Beet Fields.

A crew of Japanese workers arrived here last Monday and are now busily engaged in thinning beets at Charles Lisle's place up the river. By the time these are thinned there will be ready for the same process on S. I. Lisle's and O. D. Teel's farms, and then will come the beet fields. From now on there will be considerable work in the beet fields until the crop reaches maturity. The importation of Japs was made necessary because the boys who could or would engage in such labor are yet in school. Some of them may have a try at it as soon as school is out.—Echo News.
