Graduation Exercises.

This is a busy time for Milton, being commencement week for Columbia college and the Milton public schools. Saturday night Miss Dover, assisted by some of her pupils gave a play entitled, "Mr. Bob." A large and appreciative audience greeted the performers. The play was a fairly good one and each one acquitted themselves admirably. Sunday morning Dr. T. B. H. Anderson delivered the baccalaureate sermon in the new opera hall. He is a very logical speaker and held a very attentive audience for one hour and a half. Monday evening the music pupils of Miss Myrtle Plant gave a musical, which was highly appreciated by all. Last night a banquet was given by the undergraduates. Tomorrow night the graduating exercises will be held, there being 23 from the different departments to graduate this year. Rev. E. L. Fitch of Oakland, Ore., presiding elder of the Southwestern Columbia Conference of the M. E. church, South, will deliver the address to the graduates.

Thursday evening the lower grades of the Milton public school will give an entertainment consisting of music, recitations, dialogues and drills. On Saturday evening the graduating exercises will be held. The class this year consists of 20 young ladies and gentlemen.

Why They Were Late.

It is a well known fact that during the past few years several of the manufacturing firms have moved their plants outside of the city limits. One firm has moved this year, and as a majority of the clerks live in the city, a certain amount of grace has been allowed as to the promptness of their arrival each morning. But they were supposed to explain on the time register the cause of any unpunctuality. The first to arrive late generally leads off with the words, "Train late," "punctured a tire," etc., as the case may be, and to this the other clerks invariably add "Ditto." So accustomed have they become to the formal procedure that they hardly ever take the trouble to see what excuse heads the list. The other morning the first arrival, who was late, conscientiously penciled in the words: "Wife had twins this morning," and to the amazement of the manager, this extraordinary explanation was promptly "dittod" all the way down. Nor was his astonishment diminished when he saw the office boy's name included.—Exchange.

Don't Want Saloons. Charles Parris, who has an application before the county commissioners for a license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at the town of Touchet, will find some opposition to his enterprise among the residents of the place and vicinity.

Following the spirited example set by the people of College Place, the inhabitants of the neighboring hamlet have started a petition, and are reported to have many names from the town and the surrounding country. Rev. J. T. Barnes and others prominent in the religious circles of the community have taken charge of the circulation of this document, and it is being largely signed.—Walla Walla Union.
