WILL FIGHT SIGNS

FARMERS' ANTI-SCARE HORSE ASSOCIATION.

Birch Creek People Will Try Diplomacy. Follow it With Peremptory Request and Terminate the Affair With Forcible Ouster if Necessary—Their Slogan is "The Signs Must Go."

At a meeting held on the Birch Creek yesterday by about 25 of the representative farmers of the district, Dave Ingram was elected president of the Anti-Sign Society, which will commence a war upon the signs that line the road.

The county road from Pendleton to Birch creek and beyond is lined and ornamented (?) by all kinds of signs, from little boys requesting that you buy shoes at one place, to little dogs extolling the efficiency of some mange cure or antidote for fleas; men of heroic size in tin hastening with ever-stationary stride to purchase clothes at one place, or groceries at another; or elephants of colossal dimensions trumpeting the value of some liniment warranted to cure chilblains, remove warts, freckles and bunions and to improve the complexion.

These signs are soothing to the pride of the advertiser, but very irritating to horses and many a broken shaft, dislocated tongue, bent axle and hysterical woman, not to speak of profane men, are the result of the mercenary ornamentation of the county thoroughfares.

CAR ROBBED.

Shotgun and Shoes Stolen That Were Bound Northward.

A freight car was found broken open in the O. R. & N. yards this morning, and investigation revealed that it had been robbed of a large amount of its contents.
The car was consigned to parties in Walla Walla and Dayton, and was loaded with general merchandise. Among the rest of the cargo was a number of shotguns in leather cases and a consignment of shoes. Several of the guns had been taken and a number of pairs of shoes.
It is the opinion of the officers who have been investigating the case that the car was broken open at some point east of here, and the fact not noticed until it reached Pendleton. There is absolutely no clue as to who did the work.
