"AMONG THE BREAKERS."

Junior High School Class Present a Play Friday Night.
The students of the Junior class of the high school are preparing a drama entitled, "Among the Breakers," which will be put on the stage at the Frazer theater on Friday next. The members of the class have been putting in some hard work on the play, which is intensely interesting, and they hope to entertain the people of the city in a creditable manner when the production is put before them.
The proceeds of the play will go towards the support of the Ilakawin, the school paper. The cast of characters is as follows:
David Murray, keeper of Fairpoint Light Albert Warner
Larry Divine, his assistant Edgar Smith
Hon. Bruce Hunter Milton Shaw
Clarence Hunter, his ward Fred Milne
Peter Paragraph, a newspaper reporter Clarence Bollerman
Scud, Hunter's colored servant Joe Cameron
Minnie Daze, Hunter's niece Grace Elder
Bess Starbright, "Cast up by the waves" Effie Smith

OPEN RIVER MEETING.

Delegates From All Over the Inland Empire at The Dalles.
The Dalles, May 18.—(Special).—The meeting of Inland Empire farmers called to take steps to hurry up the construction of the portage road and ship canal at this place organized yesterday evening by electing J. T. Peters, of this city, president, and J. S. Stewart, of Fossil, as secretary.
Delegates from all the Columbia river counties in Oregon were present and the convention is still in session, considering seriously the best plan to encourage the building of the portage road immediately and to encourage the later construction of the ship canal, when the state shall have secured right of way for the government.

SPECIAL TICKET SALE.

O. R. & N. Company Has Made June 7 a Special Day for Oregonians.
In order that Oregonians may reach St. Louis in time to celebrate the dedication of the Oregon building, the O. R. & N. has made June 7 a special excursion ticket sales day, for that occasion. This arrangement will be heartily appreciated by all who had contemplated going to the St. Louis exposition before the regular ticket sales which will not take place until June 16, 17, 18.
The regular excursion tickets to the St. Louis exposition will be on sale at all offices of the O. R. & N. company on June 7, one day. The travel to St. Louis is now beginning to increase, and by June 7 the season will be well advanced and the fair buildings and grounds will be seen at their best.

Firm Enlarged.

Sol Baum has resigned his position with the Whittinghill Mercantile Company and has gone into business with his father, R. E. Baum. The place has been enlarged since the postoffice has been changed, and by the middle of the summer the new firm will have a large stock of books and stationery on their shelves.

Arbitration has secured an advance of 50 cents per day for 7,000 union painters in New York City.

AN EAST END BRICK

AT CORNER WATER AND COTTONWOOD STREETS.

Building Will Be One Hundred Feet Square and Two Stories in Height—Possible That Froome Will Use It for an Immense and Modern Livery Barn—Ground Alone is Worth $10,000.

Yesterday afternoon Dr. C. J. Smith and James Crawford bought of Mrs. Edith Ray the property where the Froome barn now stands, opposite the Hotel Pendleton, for $10,000.

The property has a frontage of 100 feet, and is the same in depth. Next fall the new owners will put up a two-story brick business block to cover the entire lot.

Just what business will be put into the new building has not been determined. Mr. Froome would like to have the place for a large and model livery barn. He would have access to the place from either Main or Cottonwood street, and would make it one of the most modern barns in the Inland Empire.

Whether or not the new owners will consent to this has not been decided.

WOOL SALES.

Over 57,000 Pounds Bought Today for Boston Firm.

Charles Green, representing J. Koshland & Co., of Boston, this afternoon bought the J. M. Hemphill wool clip of 17,971 pounds, the wool sheared by E. C. Evans, amounting to 11,698, and the Charles Matthews wool, weighing 26,000. The price paid is not quoted, but is thought to be close to 13 cents, as all of the wool was of good quality.

The warehouse men are loading six cars of baled wool, which has been graded here and which is being shipped by Green to the house in Boston.

THREE DAYS IN JAIL.

Two Drunks and Disorderly Will "Lay Out" Their Fines.

G. A. Curry and H. I. Stephens were arrested last night for being drunk and disorderly on the streets, and put in the city jail. They were arraigned this morning and each pleading guilty to the charge were fined $5 apiece. Unable to pay the fines both went to the city jail for three days. Stephens is the young man who went on a riot in the Chinese quarter some weeks ago and was arrested and fined for the offense. He is from Umatilla, being the son of A. B. Stephens, the saloon man of that place.
