DEMOCRATIC RALLY

RAILROAD RATES AND SPECIAL TIMETABLE.

Colonel Raley and F. B. Holbrook Will Be the Orators at Echo Next Friday—Every Facility for Getting Into and Out of Echo Just Right—Music, a Free Dance and Other Attractions Besides First-Class Speaking.

H. C. Willis, the democratic war-horse of Echo, was in town today and completed arrangements for the democratic rally and ratification to be held in Echo on Friday.

It will be a big time. The management has been turned over to the Echo Commercial Club, who have secured Colonel James H. Raley and F. B. Holbrook as the principal speakers of the day. Besides these there will be other speakers, both local and imported. There will be music by McMin's band, and a big free dance in the evening.

A special round-trip rate of 80 cents from Pendleton has been made by the O. R. & N., good going down on No. 1 the morning of Friday, and returning either on No. 2 in the evening, or on No. 6 Saturday morning. In the event of No. 1 being late Friday a special will be sent out from here at 9 o'clock, so that the Pendleton crowd will be sure of reaching Echo in time to see and hear the fireworks.

Mr. Willis and the other members of the democratic club are very enthusiastic over the rally, and predict that the whole country from Heppner to Meacham will be on the ground ready to burn red fire and howl for the success of the party.

ABANDON CELEBRATION.

Caused By Inability to Get Cars for Increased Travel.

The Woodmen have decided to give up their plans for a picnic to have been held on the Fourth, owing to the fact that the railroad company will not guarantee them any accommodations for the day. Rates could have been secured, but cars will be a scarce article on that date, and no promise could be made for more than a regular article on the trains running out of this place. Portland is expecting to draw large crowds from this section to the monster celebration to be held in that city, and has cornered all the available rolling stock along the line.

SUCCESSFUL MEETING.

Good Turnout on McKay Creek to Hear Local Option Speeches.

Last night Revs. G. W. Rigby, Jonathan Edwards and M. V. Howard, of this city, and Rev. Hofkins, the pastor of the United Brethren church of McKay, conducted a meeting at the McKay school house in the interest of local option. A large crowd attended, and great interest was shown. All of the ministers mentioned made short addresses, and it is felt that the local option cause in that neighborhood is safe.

Burggraf in Town.

Charles Burggraf of Albany, is at the Hotel Pendleton for a few days. Mr. Burggraf is one of the leading architects of the Willamette valley, and is well known in that part of the state as an arranger and manager of amateur theatricals. He planned and built the Albany opera house, and now owns a large share of the building.

KILLED BY A TRAIN

LOUIS NIEL RUN DOWN ON O. R. & N. TRACKS.

Pelvis Broken, Foot Injured and Other Injuries Sustained — Was a Widower and Left Four Children—Well Known in This Vicinity—It is Believed Liquor Was Responsible for the Accident.

Louis Niel, who was run over by the train a short distance west of the city on Monday night, died at the hospital last night from the effects of his injuries.

Niel was walking by the side of the track late Sunday night, when he was struck by the train and his pelvis broken, his foot injured and his head badly injured and cut.

He was brought to the hospital yesterday and the company physician called, but nothing could be done for him and he died last night from loss of blood and the shock of his injuries. The body was brought to the undertaking parlors of M. A. Rader this morning, and will be buried Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Robert Warner, of the Methodist church, conducting the services.

Niel, who was about 48 years of age, is well known here, having resided here and in the vicinity for several years. He had been drinking of late, and it is thought that he was struck by the train while intoxicated. He is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Henry Seales of this city. His wife died about two years ago, leaving four children, two boys and two girls, the oldest being about 18 years of age.

The son, Louis, aged 18, is now at home suffering from an injury received at the same time his father was struck. Besides Louis, George, aged 16; Zula, aged 13, and Dovie, aged 11, are now at the home of Mrs. Bolles, on West Water street.

WHEAT WILL REVIVE.

Horace Walker Says Frost-bitten Grain Will Yet Make a Good Crop.

Horace Walker, county commissioner, of Helix, says a great deal of wheat in that vicinity has been badly damaged by the frost, but that if rain comes in a reasonable time this wheat will all come out and make a good crop. He remembers in 1885, the same kind of a severe frost visited that section and after much of the grain was bitten until the farmers thought it was ruined, it made a full yield.

Mr. Walker is impressed with one feature of the western portion of Umatilla county, which is worth mention. He remembers the western and northwestern portions of the county, when those districts were not considered as being safe for a wheat crop any year, on account of the drought. Gradually, as settlement was extended over that section of the county, moisture has increased until now those very dry districts are good for a large yield of wheat every year. The moisture and rainfall is increasing with cultivation and settlement until land once considered almost worthless is now producing heavy crops.

CANVASSING PLANS.

School Board Busily Engaged With Preliminaries.

The school board met in the office of Dr. C. J. Smith last night for the purpose of canvassing the vote on the bond election.

After the vote had been canvassed and declared the board looked over plans for buildings submitted to them by Charles Burggraf, an architect from Albany, and J. D. Harner, of Portland, who is representing a Chicago firm. They were very satisfactory, and have been taken under advisement.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock the board met again, when the plans of the local architects were gone over, and which also proved to be both cheap and convenient.

This evening the board will meet again and all of the plans will be discussed together, when perhaps someone will be selected.

As soon as the plans are selected the board will take up the location of the buildings and after that will advertise for bids and let the contracts. It is expected to have the work commenced inside of a month, and all the buildings ready for the beginning of school in the fall.

SICK CHILD NEGLECTED.

Marshal Investigated, and Eagles Will Intervene.

The marshal was called to West Webb street last night to investigate the case of Mrs. Mary J. Murrell, who was accused of neglecting her little daughter, who is ill at the home with typhoid fever.

The father and husband is a sheep-shearer and has been out of town for some time. The daughter has been ill for several days, and has been under a doctor's care for part of the time; but for the past two or three days no signs of life had been seen about the place, and the marshal was called upon.

He forced an entrance into the house and found that the woman had been on a drunk for a couple of days, during which time the girl was allowed to shift for herself. Mrs. Murrell promised to straighten up and take care of the daughter, so the marshal took no action. The Eagles have taken the matter in hand, Mr. Murrell being a member of that order.

MEETING POSTPONED.

Commercial Association Will Hold Adjourned Meeting Tonight.

The meeting of the Commercial Association was adjourned from last night until tonight, when a large attendance is expected. The band concert attracted a large number of the members last night and as several important matters were to be considered it was thought best to postpone action until a larger attendance was present.

A meeting of the committee on the Farmers' Institute is called immediately after adjournment of the meeting of the association tonight. The committees are as follows and a full attendance is respectfully requested: On seats, tent and other accommodations—Lee Teutsch, George Perringer and Thomas Thompson.

On music—R. Alexander, C. E. Roosevelt and Dr. C. J. Smith. On entertainment of the speakers—Leon Cohen, T. G. Halley and J. A. Borie.

LINEBERGER DISCHARGED.

No Proof That His Conduct Toward the McQuary Child Was Improper.

Charles Lineberger, who was arrested a couple of days ago for having made improper proposals to Thelma McQuary, the 8-year-old foster child of Mrs. William Leonhardt of West Jackson street, had his preliminary examination this morning and was discharged.

The evidence went to show that the women were more scared than hurt and had exaggerated the danger in which the little girl had been. William Boynton, C. H. Hoistington, B. F. McElroy and Walter Pierce all testified to the past record and good behavior of the defendant who had worked for them during the past four years. He had always been friendly with children, but his conduct had never been improper.

It was shown by the testimony also that the meeting in the present case had been on Jackson street where he had stood on the sidewalk for a time talking to the McQuary child.

Taking all the evidence into consideration the court could find no incriminating intent in what had been done, so discharged the defendant.

HELIX WHEAT DAMAGED.

Lewis Mueller, Al Grover and William Scott Each Suffer Some Loss Through Frost.

Lewis Mueller, one of the heaviest wheat growers in the Helix district, was in the city last evening and says he has suffered considerable damage by the recent frosts. He farms two sections and says the frost was not confined to the low lands on his farms but that some of his high land wheat was also injured.

Al Grover, a neighbor, and William Scott, both large farmers in that vicinity have also suffered considerable damage, but think the frostbitten wheat will come out and make nearly a full crop with rain. The wheat injured by the frost in that district stood about knee high and was the most beautiful stand in that entire country.
