MORE WOOL SOLD.

Believed That Holders Will Get the Better Prices This Year.
Ross McDonald sold his wool last night for 13 1/2 cents, which is somewhat less than the figure secured by him last year. His clip this year amounted to about 30,000 pounds, and was of better quality than last year.
It is the general opinion now of most of the growers, that those who have held for the sales day will get as good prices for their wool, if not better, than those who have sold from under the agreement to hold for the sales days. It is now thought that when all of the buyers get together the price will be a little better than when the purchases are made privately.

Poles Threaten Russia With An Attempt at Freedom.

London, May 19.—Because of a threatened uprising in Poland in the summer, Queen Alexandria will not attend the anniversary concert May 26 the day Chopin died. CALIFORNIA FOR ROOSEVELT.

Defends Both National and State Administrations.
Sacramento, May 19.—The first business of the afternoon session was the adoption of the platform. It is very brief, leaving matters of national policy to the national convention, and of the state to the August convention, but it declares allegiance to party principles, favors protection, a sound system of finance, building a merchant marine, ample navy, improvement of rivers, preservation of forests and reclamation of arid lands.
It also praises the administration of Governor Pardee, pays high tribute to Roosevelt and instructs the delegation to the national convention to vote and work for him.

A Roosevelt Convention.

Sacramento, May 19.—The republican state convention was called to order this afternoon with about 700 delegates present. The utmost enthusiasm and harmony prevailed, though the election of delegates at large is expected to develop a sharp contest. Roosevelt's administration will be endorsed, and the delegation be instructed to cast its vote for him at Chicago.

The Los Angeles delegates, who got back of ex-Senator Bulla in his fight for a place as delegate at large, will be disappointed. The combination of northern counties is so strong that Bulla stands no chance.

Delegates to Chicago.

The delegates at large to the republican national convention will be Governor Pardee, George A. Knight of San Francisco, John L. Spreckles and Judge J. W. McKenney of Los Angeles.

The convention was called to order according to schedule by Chairman Cutter of the state committee.

The Organization.

Judge A. G. Burnett was elected chairman, and Frank Ryan of Sacramento, was elected secretary. Burnett made a brief address, then named the committees. John F. Davis is chairman on resolutions, Frank Short of Fresno, chairman on credentials.
