DESTRUCTIVE FROST.

Great Damage to Garden Stuffs and Some to Alfalfa.

Gardeners coming into town today from the valley points in this vicinity state that the frost of last night has raised great havoc with the newly planted stuff. All of the tomato and cabbage plants have been killed and will have to be reset, so these parties say. Beans and other young sprouting stuff have been nipped, so that the growers are fearful that the crops will be pretty badly wiped out. The potato vines were flat on the ground through a large part of the country this morning when the sun came up, and while they will in all probability revive, the crop will be damaged to some extent, or at least retarded.

Even the alfalfa in many places where it has been planted lately and is just coming up, was laid out for a time this morning, but the cold will not hurt this as it will some other products.

FREEWATER PICNIC.

A Joyous Occasion Which was Greatly Enjoyed.

J. T. Hinkle returned this afternoon from Freewater, where he went yesterday to attend the picnic given by the people of that city, and to which the Eagles of Pendleton and Walla Walla were especially invited.

Mr. Hinkle was much disappointed that more Eagles did not attend the festivities, as the people of Freewater did themselves proud in the line of entertainment. Mr. Hinkle and Mr. Bogert represented Pendleton and did all they could to mitigate the disappointment of the Freewater people at the absence of the rest of the flock from here.

The people listened to speeches by E. G. Rourk, of Walla Walla, J. T. Hinkle, John Bogard and John F. Smalls, of Walla Walla. The addresses were along fraternal lines.

DOUBLE FUNERAL

DAUGHTER AND MOTHER LIE DEAD IN SAME HOUSE.

One Passed Away From Consumption, the Other From Pneumonia—Had Resided in This County Seventeen Years—Funeral of Both Will Be Held Tomorrow at 2 p. m. in Methodist Church.

Miss Mary Thorne died at the family home, No. 103 Lincoln street, yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, after a lingering illness with consumption. Miss Thorne was 27 years of age at the time of her death, and was the youngest of a family of nine children. Most of whom are now living. She was the daughter of Jonathan J. Thorne, one of the well known farmers of Cold Springs, who moved into the city of late with his family.

This morning at 3 o'clock Mrs. Margaret Thorne, the mother of the girl who died yesterday, passed away after having suffered for some time with pneumonia. Mrs. Thorne was 77 years old, and had been a resident of this county for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Thorne came to Umatilla county 17 years ago from Dakota, and have lived at Cold Springs until lately.

The deceased leaves seven children living, all of whom will be able to attend the funeral with the exception of Francis J. Thorne, who is now in Nebraska. The rest of the family are Oliver J. Thorne, now in Idaho; Thomas H. Thorne of this city; Jonathan T. Thorne of Cold Springs; Mrs. Leah Eldridge of Pilot Rock, and the Misses Arabella and E. J. Thorne, who have been living with their parents.

The funeral of both Miss and Mrs. Thorne will be held at the Thompson street M. E. church tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Robert Warner conducting the services. The bodies will be shipped to Walla Walla on the morning train, where they will be buried in the family cemetery.

AT ASSEMBLY HALL.

Graduates All Acquitted Themselves With Much Credit.

The assembly hall at the high school was well filled last night with people who had gathered to listen to the orations of the graduating members of the high school. All of the students taking part acquitted themselves well, showing faithful effort in preparation and thought.

Miss Rena Ferguson and Cecil Wade sang during the program and each was compelled to respond to an encore.

The orations presented were "A Talk on Poisons," by Fred Vincent; "Superiority of the Stamp of Merit," Nell Jay; "Athletics," Roy Alexander; "The Influence of Manners," Ivy Kimbrell; "Respect for Law," Se Williams; "The Great American," Ed Jay.

During the delivery of his speech Fred Vincent fainted and was unable to finish. He fell from the platform while in the midst of his talk, striking on his face. He was uninjured, and after being helped out into the fresh air was able to walk home.

TRUSTEES' MEETING.

Board of Managers of the Pendleton Academy Will Meet Tomorrow.

The board of trustees of Pendleton Academy will meet in this city at 10 a. m. tomorrow for the purpose of going over the accounts of the academy and for the further and more important purpose of outlining a plan of action for the ensuing year.

Rev. W. H. Bleakney, who has been president of the academy for the past year, has made excellent progress and has placed the institution on a firmer footing with the people in general and Presbyterians of Eastern Oregon, and there is every prospect for continued advancement.

Rev. Bleakney will accept the presidency for the ensuing year, and will devote his entire services to the work of the academy, instead of dividing his time with the Elgin church, which has been supplied with a pastor.

A spirited campaign for students will be made all over Eastern Oregon and Washington, and the scholarship will be greatly increased by the opening of the next school year.

MRS. ENGLE'S FUNERAL.

Conducted From the Baptist Church Yesterday Afternoon by Rev. G. L. Hall.

The funeral of Mrs. John A. Engle was held at the Baptist church yesterday afternoon, Rev. G. L. Hall, of that church, officiating at the services.

Mrs. Engle's maiden name was Anna Pruden, and she was born at Brookville, Ind., on April 8, 1853. She removed with her parents to Eldon, Iowa, in 1864, and remained there until 1876, when, with her husband, John A. Engle, she removed to Douglas, Kan., living there until emigrating to Pendleton in 1890, where she has made her home since.

Two sons and one daughter comprised her family, one son and the daughter having died. Claude, the remaining son, has just graduated from a San Francisco medical college.

Mrs. Engle united with the Baptist church in this city in 1890, and was a consistent member until her death, on May 21.

TWO NOTARIES PUBLIC.

J. F. Nowlin and S. A. Newberry Are Commissioned.

Yesterday afternoon a notarial commission was recorded in the office of the county clerk for J. F. Nowlin, and when the deputy turned to the index he found that the "N" page was blank. The notarial commissions issued in this county have been recorded in the same book for 13 years, and it so happens that until the certificate was issued to Nowlin there has never been a man in the county whose name commenced with N who has been the holder of such a commission. The start was made yesterday, however, with Nowlin, and in a few minutes the name of S. A. Newberry was added to the list, making two N's in one day after 13 years without any representation from that part of the alphabet.

A SPECIAL PULLMAN.

Wool Buyers Will Not Be Dependent Upon Heppner Hotels.

The wool buyers left this morning for Heppner on a chartered Pullman attached to No. 1.

The excursion was under the management and chaperonage of George Abbott and Charles Green, the two deans of the wool buying fraternity of the Pacific Northwest. Owing to lack of hotel accommodations in Heppner, the buyers will have their car run onto a side track and will make it their headquarters while in Heppner.

Last year when the wool buyers invaded Heppner, the hotels extended to them the worst of it, and the army moved out into any place they could find. When the second day came they chartered a car, paying $75 for its use for one day. This year the same amount of money has bought the palace on wheels for three days, and the company will be able to laugh defiance at all kinds of creeping things and leather steaks from the shelter of their fortress.

Among the bunch who bought into the scheme are Charles Green, George Abbott, Alex Livingstone, Charles Brigham, Ed Burke, Ludwig Eisenman, Fred Kuhn, G. H. Frankenstein, Otto Kuhn, T. H. Schmidt, Frank Lee, Ludwig Erlander, Charles Sweeney, Fred Stocker, J. C. Lindsey, E. B. Duffy, L. Morton, Dan Dewey, W. Elery, E. Y. Judd, Leon Straus and Tom Cotter.

Scots Will Hold Their Annual Reunion in Athena on Friday and Saturday.

The annual reunion of the Caledonian society will be held at Athena on Friday and Saturday, May 27 and 28, as has been previously announced in these columns several times during the past two months.

The annual address will be delivered by Hon. George J. Cameron, of Portland, and other occasional addresses will be delivered by Dr. W. G. Cole and James H. Raley, of this city, Rev. Armfield, and Will M. Peterson, of Athena, D. C. Kirk and other local speakers.

Mayor Taylor, of Athena, will deliver the address of welcome, and the program is made up of one of the choicest collections of Scotch songs, music and dances ever rendered in Eastern Oregon.

The committee in charge of the picnic has spared no pains to make it an enjoyable affair, and Pendleton will show her appreciation by sending a large delegation to Athena.

The program will close with a grand Scotch concert on Saturday evening.

Prof. Ackerman in Town.

Prof. J. H.
