7,650 SHEEP SOLD

PORTION SHIPPED EAST, REMAINDER TO THE SOUND.

Some Will Be Fed on South Dakota Ranges, Others in Washington, for the Fall Markets—Sheep and Horse Shipment Detained by a Wreck at Hunt's Junction—No Animals Were Injured.

The horses shipped from here on Monday by W. H. Babb, were held up by a freight wreck just this side of Hunt's Junction, on the W. & C. R., Monday night. The engine ran into a burned-out bridge and went into the ditch, but there was no injury to the cargo or any person.

The train was made up of two cars of horses, shipped by Babb for Medicine Hat, Canada, and 10 cars of sheep shipped out by James Wright, of North Yakima for the South Dakota range. Mr. Howard picked them up from the bands of Perard, Matthews & Johnson, and they are all young mutton sheep.

Saturday night L. R. Van Houghton, of Seattle, shipped 10 cars of sheep out for Washington points. They will all be run on the Washington ranges until fall, when they will be sold to the markets.

There are the two first sheep sales of the season of any size. There were 3,900 head in the Wright shipment, and 3,750 in the other.
