

AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

Hoboes Are Proliferating.
Along the lines of the railroads in this state there are more tramps than have been seen at any time since the movement 10 years ago. A "Covey" movement of vagrants and idle or small army of workmen are moving back and forth across the state.

About the junction points on the transcontinental lines the crowds of tramps are especially large. In the small towns considerable trouble with the itinerants is experienced but the police departments of the larger cities have kept them comparatively free from the nuisance.

Groups of men carrying blankets scattered along the line of the railroads represent the workmen in the crowd of foot travelers. There have been seen single men with blankets on their backs, but as a rule this class travels in pairs or small groups. Such men are going in both directions, comparatively few of them eager for work, but all willing to do more or less labor to provide themselves with the necessities of life.

The great majority of the tramps are pure vagrants. The hobo is walking close to the rail lines, where transportation can be secured, and as a rule are making their headquarters at points where it is comparatively easy to secure food supplies.—Walla Walla Union.

To Make New State.

"The people of Idaho would be glad to annex Eastern Washington and take care of you and protect you," remarked Governor W. J. McConnell of Idaho, yesterday afternoon at the Grand, says the Spokesman-Review.

"You people can't get along with these clankers over on the coast," he continued. "You see, they eat fish. They're not your kind. We could very nicely take care of all of Washington east of the Columbia and we would see that you got good treatment, too."

Here Governor McConnell gave away to a hearty laugh and slapped a steamer who had been a little tardy in seeing the joke, on the back.

"We never have any trouble in Idaho," he continued. "Of course, I would not want to give advice as to what you should do politically at this time. When you become a member of our family we will tell you. With a part of Eastern Oregon and Eastern Washington annexed to Idaho, we would be a great power. Then, the capital would be moved to Moscow (this is Governor McConnell's home), where it would be handy.

"You see, we sympathize with you. We feel proud of Spokane. Idaho has made Spokane what it is. What would your town amount to if it were not for the mines and timber in Idaho?"

"Say, governor, why don't you make a town like this in Idaho?" blurted out a member of the audience.

To the Harvest Berry Crop.

Each having aboard nearly 200 passengers, the steamers Dalles City and Spencer left this morning for The Dalles and way landings. This is the largest number of people the boats have carried since the spring traffic season opened.

The majority of those taking passage were bound for Hood River to pick strawberries. Among them were men, women and children of all sizes and ages. As long as the strawberry season lasts it is said that the steamers will be crowded every day with pickers anxious to make a summer's stake. The transportation companies are expecting to carry big crowds to Hood River for the next three weeks at least. Like hoppers, it is said that many engage in the work for two or three weeks just in order to take a vacation. The employment is light, but at the same time they are enabled to make all the way from $1.50 to $2.50 a day—all depending upon the speed of the picker.—Oregon Daily Journal.

Louisiana French.

Congressman Broussard of Louisiana, is, as his name indicates, of French descent. He never spoke English until he went to Georgetown university. "It is curious," says Mr. Broussard, "how the French language has remained the dominant tongue in my part of the country. Brought here by Arcadians of Nova Scotia in the eighteenth century, it prevails today, and I believe always will. Curiously enough, you will find plenty of men in my district with such unmistakably English names as Jones and Hayes who can't read, speak or write a word of English. Still funnier is the talk of the black people. Their negro French would be unintelligible in Paris, and yet it is the softest, sweetest, most musical speech I ever heard from human lips. It knows no grammar, but it is the very essence of euphony and melody."

O. R. & N. Summer Book.

The handsome 1904 summer book, "Restful Recreation Resorts," issued by the passenger department of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company is just out. Tells all about the summering places of the Columbia River valley—a brief description of the trips up and down the Columbia river, to the mountains, beaches, inland resorts and fountains of healing, where they are and how to reach them. The book has a special designed front cover, printed in two colors, and the inside pages are splendidly illustrated by costly and beautiful halftones. A copy of this publication may be obtained by sending two cents in stamps to A. L. Craig, general passenger agent of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company, Portland.

A Cure for Piles.

"I had a bad case of piles," says G. F. Carter, of Atlanta, Ga., "and consulted a physician who advised me to try a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. I purchased a box and was entirely cured. It is splendid for piles, giving relief instantly, and I heartily recommend it to all sufferers." DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled for its healing qualities. Eczema and other skin diseases, also sores, cuts, burns and wounds of every kind are quickly cured by it. Sold by Tallman & Co.

Oscar Leonard, of Bradley Beach, Pa., lost his nose by accident. Surgeons built him a new nose which is quite presentable and very serviceable.
