to furnish to the student in as far as it is able, the tools with which he will be able to carve out his future, to give him power and the ability to do something. If it does that, it is a success and will be the cornerstone of the nation and of its advancement and growth.

At the close of Professor Ackerman's address the audience was favored with a solo by Miss Lois Peebles, of Weston. Miss Peebles has a voice of great power and sweetness, well trained and under the best control. She captured her audience and was compelled to respond to an encore. Mrs. W. C. E. Pruitt played the accompaniment for the singer.

Dr. C. J. Smith presented the diplomas to the class in a sort of address wishing the graduates all success and happiness in their future, and assuring them of the hearty well wishes of the board and of the city.

The members of the class of 1904 are Misses Chloe Stanfield, Nell Jay, Ivy Kimbrell, Bertha Alexander and Myrtle Disney, Messrs. Dell McCarty, Fred Vincent, James Reeves, Roy Alexander, Se Williams, Ed Jay, Will Wyrick and Fred Hartman.

LOCAL OPTION MEETINGS.

Pine City, Thompson's, Foster and Echo Appointments.

Revs. Robert Warner and M. V. Howard are to go to Pine City Friday evening and to Thompson's school house Saturday evening and Sunday morning, and to Foster at 4 p. m.; and to Echo Sunday evening, to hold services in the interest of local option.

OFF TO THE RACES.

Frank Frazier Has a String of Promising Horses.

Frank Frazier left this morning for Walla Walla, where he will attend the races for a few days. Mr. Frazier has a string of horses in the Walla Walla stables, but only a few of them are now on the track, most of them being young and just under the harness. The colt which he sold to Gus LaFontaine some time ago, was entered among the events today, however, and is expected to make a place for herself.

Transfer of Wheeler Property.

Papers are being drawn for the formal transfer of the property on Court street known as "the Wheeler Place," to the Pendleton Aerie of Eagles. The $6500 necessary is now in the treasury of the lodge, and the transfer will be made as soon as the papers and the details of the transaction have been finished. The lodge building contemplated will be commenced some time during the fall.

Newspaper Artist.

Eddie Payne, of Salem, passed through town this morning on his way home from a tour through the East and South. Mr. Payne was employed in Pendleton as a newspaper artist during the last gubernatorial campaign, and is well known here. He has been in poor health for some time and has been traveling for its benefit. While away he visited the St. Louis fair.

Mrs. Clark Going East.

Mrs. A. M. Clark, manager of the ladies' department of the Peoples Warehouse, will leave a week from today for the East, where she will enjoy a four months' vacation. For six weeks of the time she will be engaged in buying a new stock for her department, and while gone will visit Chicago, Detroit, Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington.

State Secretary Y. M. C. A.

A. B. Stone, state secretary of the Y. M. C. A., passed through the city this morning from the East, where he has been on business connected with Y. M. C. A. work in this state. He is on his way to his home in Portland, and may come back to Pendleton in the near future and see what can be done towards organizing a Y. M. C. A. in Pendleton.

Democratic Candidate for Congress.

J. E. Simmons, of Portland, democratic candidate for congress from this district, was a visitor in town today while on his way to Athens to mix with his prospective constituents.

Guy Coughlin, a 7-year-old boy, was crowned at Aberdeen, Wash., Thursday.

AT AGENCY SCHOOL

THE PROGRAM IN FULL FOR NEXT TUESDAY EVENING.

Arrangements Being Made for a Most Entertaining and Instructive Evening—Teachers and Pupils Are Taking Great Pains to Have a Perfect Program to Present the Pupils.

The closing exercises at the agency school on the reservation will be given on the evening of Tuesday next at 7 o'clock. The pupils of the school have been practicing for some time on the drills and songs to be given that evening, and will entertain their visitors in the same manner as usual. There have been in the past perhaps no more pleasing entertainments than those presented by the pupils of the agency school, and this year an especially attractive program has been prepared. The program will be given in the hall at the school.

The program to be presented will be as follows:
Opening song by the school.
Calisthenic drill by the members of the advanced class.
Mother Goose drill by the primary class.

"Umatillas," a song by the primary pupils.

"Indian Lullaby," a song by the primary pupils.

"Merry Little Soldiers," song by the small boys.

May Queen drill by 30 pupils. This will be a May pole dance in costume, and will be very pretty.

"Ramona," an Indian song, by Miss Gertrude Ticeard and Miss Julia Hart.

Doll drill, by 16 small girls.

Flag song, by 16 primary boys.

"Three Little Pussy Cats." This is a trio by three little girls dressed as kittens, and was given last year.

It is reproduced this year by the request of many friends of the school who saw it last spring. The little girls taking the parts are Anna Blackthorn, Emma Teut-ta-too, and Nancy Marshall.

Flag drill by 16 boys from the advanced class.

Duet, "You're as Welcome as the Flowers of May," Miss Gertrude Ticeard and Miss Julia Hart.

ADAMS VS. PENDLETON.

Baseball on Decoration Day on West Alta Grounds.

Manager Cameron has arranged with the Adams baseball team to play at the Alta street grounds on Decoration Day. The game will be called at the usual time in the afternoon, and will be an interesting one, for the Adams boys have been putting up some pretty fast ball so far during the season. On Sunday the Wonders will play the La Grande team at La Grande.

The batteries for the two teams are: Adams—Lleuallen and Lleuallen; Pendleton—Jones and Knapp.

"Under Two Flags."

The powerful French war drama which is to be presented at Frazier opera house Friday evening, June 3, is one of the most beautiful and thrilling pieces ever witnessed here. This play abounds in startling climaxes and was considered the banner attraction in Baker City and other places. The home company selected for this attraction is strong in every character and when the curtain goes up the citizens can expect something extraordinary in amateur theatricals. There is not a dull moment from the opening to the close, even the time between the acts being given to specialists.

Fine Schools at Baker.

Judge Ellis returned this morning from Baker City, where he made the address of the evening at the commencement of the high school. The judge is greatly impressed with the excellency of the Baker schools, and thinks that they are run on about the right plan.

Miss Frum, of North Yakima.

Miss Lydia Frum, of North Yakima, who has been the guest of friends here for the past week, left this morning for Athens, for a visit of a few days before returning home. Miss Frum is one of the public school teachers of North Yakima.

Women Thank the Papers.

At the annual meeting of the Thursday Afternoon Club, held May 26, a vote of thanks was tendered to the East Oregonian and Tribune for their kindness in giving space to club announcements and notes during the past year.

Daughter Was Born.

A girl was born to the wife of A. I. Molstrom this morning at the family home about six miles northwest on Birch creek. Mr. Molstrom is a prominent farmer of the Birch creek country.

Forty Men Employed.

William Fletcher, proprietor of Fletcher's sawmill, was a visitor in town today. The mill is now running full force and Mr. Fletcher has about 40 men at work for him in the various departments of the milling business.

Returned From California.

Charles Pierce, of Weston, passed through town today on his way home from an extended visit in California, where he has been for the past month or more.

Three Days in Jail.

Ed Gibson was arrested this morning for being drunk and was sentenced to three days in the city jail in default of the $5 necessary to pay his fine.

A woman selects her husband by herself, but she takes three other women with her to pick out a hat.

OFF TO LA GRANDE.

Track Team, Orator, Baseball Team and Others.

A number of students of the high school and some of the track team will leave this evening for La Grande to be on hand ready for the field meet tomorrow. The rest of the team, the orator and others will leave in the morning, on the early train.

The trackmen are all in good trim for their events and hope to represent Pendleton with honor and good results when the different schools come together in the combat. It is the intention of a large crowd of students to go with their team to see the fun.

The Wonders baseball team will also go with the track team, as a return game of ball has been arranged between them and the La Grande team for Sunday afternoon.

WILL LECTURE TO EAGLES.

J. T. Hinkle on Benefits of the Order at Astoria.

J. T. Hinkle will leave in the morning for Astoria, where he has been invited to deliver an address before the Astoria Eagles at a celebration to be held there on the evening of May 29. Mr. Hinkle will talk on Eaglesdom and the fraternal benefits of the organization. While in Astoria he will be a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman T. Wise, Mr. Wise being president of the Astoria Eagles.

END OF SCHOOL YEAR.

Special Exercises at Every School Building in the City.

The public school pupils at each of the buildings held special exercises this afternoon, closing their work for the year. Programs consisting of recitations, music and special drills were given by the pupils under the directions of the different teachers, to which the parents and patrons had been invited. Today was the last day of the year's work.

Original Scotchmen.

J. H. Gwinn and J. W. Maloney went to Astoria this morning to see how the Scotch celebrate. Both of the gentlemen claim to be descended from the Highlanders and are going to listen to the wall of the bagpipes and dance the Highland fling to prove that Scotch blood is in their veins.

Gone to the Picnic.

All the Pendleton Scotchmen left for Astoria this morning to attend the Caledonian picnic. There was a carload of them who took the Spokane train and will return home this evening at 6 o'clock.

Will Visit on the Coast.

Miss Edna Thompson left this morning for Portland for a visit. From Portland she will visit in Seattle and Tacoma before returning home. She will be absent several weeks.
