VOTING SUPPLIES

ARE BEING SENT TO THE DIFFERENT PRECINCTS

In Hogue Precinct the Flood Last Year Destroyed the Booths-Old Booths Are on Hand in All Other Precincts-Pendleton Voting Places Are All Ready for the Sovereign

The clerk's and sheriff's offices are busy places at the present time, and will be until they have unloaded their election supplies.

The ballot boxes are all in readiness, and last evening Joe Blakley left for Pilot Rock, Willow Springs. Alba and Ukiah precincts with the boxes to be used at those places. The supplies for the rest of the precincts will be sent out as fast as possible from now on.

The ballots are all printed and are now in the hands of the county clerk, who is certifying to them, sealing the packages for each place and turning the packages over to the sheriff. whose duty it is to distribute them. This work will be all finished before election and on Monday morning all will be ready for the contest which will settle the hopes and fears of the candidates.

There are but few new booths to be provided this year, and nearly all of the old supply is now on hand. In Hogue precinct the flood of last year washed away all of the booths, and new ones will have to be sent to that place, but aside from that all are The supply for Pendleton has been brought from their hiding places and are in waiting, ready for

BROWNELL IN TOWN.

Senator From Clackamas County Addressed Pioneers Today.

George C. Brownell, senator from Clackamas county, leader of the party and orator of Western Oregon, accompanied by Representative H. C. A. Webster, also of Oregon City, his confidante bodyguard and friend, sat in the smoking car this morning on their way to Weston where the orator will address the people of Umatilla county today at the pioneers' pic

"Sit down," he said as he shoved over a little. "I am glad to see you How do you like it up here? This is a fine town, so beautiful and so progressive. I went out over it last night and noted the fine dwellings, the substantial store buildings, the beautiful trees and lawns, everything, everything fine. The people seem to have built to stay. Now that big mill up there and the stone ware house, all of brick and stone. My but they are fine and wonderful.

"Why, old man," and he patted the questioner soothingly on the knee, "I don't know anything about politics I am here to speak at Weston today and will go back home at midnight tonight. Multnomah county? I don't know the least thing about that of the state, no more than if I lived in Idaho. Not half as much as you do, now really," and the senator smiled brightly.

"Now you see it is this way," he continued. "Everybody down there has got everybody else beaten. The republicans are all elected when you are in that part of town, but if you go over into the other zone the whole democratic ticket is a winner. I really don's know, all of the boys are good and true men and none of them It is now suspected that Aurelius, would tell anything but the truth, so the cashier of the Pullman Car Com- what will happen do you suppose? # SAM PEISER RETURNED.

Will Resume His Old Position at Al exander Department Store.

Sam Peiser has returned, much to the joy of numerous friends, from the sunny south to the frozen north.

Mr. Peiser, who for many years was in the grocery department of the Alexander store, left several months ago to see the world. He journeyed first to California, where he inspected San Francisco and labored there for while endeavoring to enthuse the Pendletonian spirit into the people, but gave it up and transferred the scene of his labors to Alaska, where amid the snow and ice he has been longing for the green grass of Uma-tilla once more. Now he has returned. He brought with him a large and heavy sack, which he put in the safe at the Hotel Pendleton as an evidence of good faith, taking therefor a re-ceipt for $411.44. The returned wan-derer wil iresume his old place with Mr. Alexander, and on Sunday next the store will be closed and the em-ployes will have a holiday in honor of his second advent.
