erty owners of Idaho county as a criminal cases that have been fought during the past few years. It is even said it was the intention of the mob to clear the county jail at Grangeville had it been neces sary to go to the jail for Myers.

It also developed today that Myers preparations for a sudden death before leaving Whitebird the first time. While in Whitebird he transferred his ranch and all of his belongings to Si Overman who resides between Grangeville and Whitebird.

As he was being brought to Grange ville he asked to be allowed to stop at the Overman place and without a word handed the envelop containing the deeds to Mr. Overman,

The party immediately passed on and Mr. Overman did not know the contents of the package until after the sheriff's party were well on the road. This is considered an indication that Myers expected mob lence as under other circumstances be would have had ample opportunity to dispose of his property before trial or conviction.—Lewiston Trib-

Sumpter Advances a Notch.

Sumpter awakes this morning with a proud distinction. Her postoffice has passed into the classification known as the second. At least that is the notification which Postmaster Jewett officially received yesterday, and beginning on the first day of July DR. M. S. KERN, DENTAL SURGEON. his salary will be $2,000 per year. his salary will be $2,000 per year. The changes in classification involve much internal detail with which patrons will never become familiar. It is the interminable workings of the department and their exacting quirements in the matter of reports. the handling of moneys and other de-tails which the clerical portion of the office will have to become familiar with that are involved in the change In stepping up a grade the post office thus advertises to the world that the volume of business has increased and that official cognizance
