OFFICE HEAD CLERK

HEADQUARTERS W. O. W.
MAY COME TO PENDLETON.

The issue is actively raised in the Commercial Association, and was referred to a special committee—Boise, Salt Lake and other cities are rivals of Pendleton—An institution worth having, as it expends yearly nearly $130,000.

At the meeting of the Commercial Association last night, the question raised some time ago as to whether or not the city would do anything towards offering an inducement or a bonus to the Women of Woodcraft for the location of the office of the head clerk here, was brought up by President Borie and generally discussed.

At the request of President Borie a statement of the scope of advantages to be expected by the placement of the office here had been secured from Mrs. Carrie Van Orsdall, grand guardian of the order, and this was read by President Borie. The paper showed that the office of the head clerk had expended in the year 1903 for stamps alone $17,000; for other postage, $4,209.65; for freight and express, $1,111.20; for telegraph and telephones, $2,850.17; light and fuel, $1,821.70.

There are 23 clerks employed in the office at a total salary payment of $13,772 a year; four heads of departments, at a total salary of $7,800; two grand physicians, drawing $6,000. The total expenses of the office for the past year were $129,146.41.

If the offices were to be located in this city the order would build a three-story office building at an approximate cost of $40,000.

IN CIRCUIT COURT

SOME IMPORTANT CASES TO BE TRIED THIS TERM.

Famous O. R. & N. Tax Case Will Go to Its First Trial, With a Prospect of Landing in the United States Supreme Court—Criminal Docket is Short, But Has Some Important Cases That Will Be Called at This Term—Court Meets June 13.

The circuit court will convene Monday next, the session having been deferred until that time at the order of Judge Ellis, and owing to the election. The docket will be short and but a few cases of any importance appear. Outside of the criminal business there will be but little to do.

O. R. & N. Tax Case.

Perhaps what is destined to be one of the famous cases of the country and of the state for that matter, will make its initial appearance at this term, and that is the case of the O. R. & N. against the county, in which a reduction of the assessment made by C. P. Strain will be asked for.

The company has been gathering data for some time, having started the contention before the county commissioners soon after the levy was made public. At that time the court sustained the levy as made by Mr. Strain, and now comes the company before the circuit court asking for a stay in execution, and a writ of review to issue from the court against the county. It is asked by the company that the court go over the assessment and investigate various charges of irregularity in the assessment and injustice in valuation alleged against the assessor. It is also asked that the sheriff be restrained from taking any steps for the collection of the delinquent taxes of the company, pending the settlement of the suit.

It is the intention of the company to fight the case through all of the courts here. It can well afford to spend all the money which such a course would necessitate, if it could secure a material reduction in the assessment, not an amount of the money to be saved in taxes at this time and in this county, but on account of the moral effect such a decision would have on other counties that are awaiting the outcome for a favorable opportunity to add to the valuation now placed on railroad property generally throughout the state.

Light Criminal Docket.

The criminal docket will not be very heavy, but it is the intention of District Attorney Halley to clean up, as much as may be, all the cases now standing, as this is his last appearance as attorney for the people. He wishes to leave a clean docket for his successor.

George Clay, the man who stole the horse and buggy from George Froome and drove into Washington with the rig, where he was captured, will have to answer to the charge of larceny by vehicle.

William Morton, the sheepherder, who shot and nearly killed Pat Dougerty, his employer over a dispute about wages, will be tried at this term for assault with intent to kill.

Jack McDonald, accused of the larceny of a harness from the Froome barn, will be tried on the charge of larceny from a building.

Hugh Robie and Robert Montgomery, who are out on bonds for having given whiskey to Annie Githens, the 14-year-old daughter of the Athena postmaster, will also have their trial at this time.

L. P. Snyder the cowboy from Texas, who slashed Flavell Moore, in a drunken quarrel in the tenderloin, is in the county jail awaiting trial at this term of court. He will not be held for the full charge that could be placed against him, as it is thought that he had more provocation for his deed than is generally known. He will be charged with simple assault and battery.

M. B. King, the captain of the government geological survey company, who bought the big hill of goods at Younger's grocery store for which he offered large checks, is also in the county hotel and will have to answer the charge of having forged evidence of debt in his possession, with fraudulent intent.

The old wheat case of J. M. Walker vs. W. E. Bond, will in all probability be brought up for settlement at this term. It is the case in which it is alleged that Bond, while manager of the Athena Flouring Mill Company, sold wheat the property of the plaintiff, which was stored at the warehouse of the mill.

OFFICIAL COUNT IS NOT YET MADE.

estimated that Herman's majority in Douglas county will reach 500; in Lincoln county 250, thus bringing the total to 3364.

There is every indication that the normal republican majority will be cut at least one-half in Herman's case.

First Republican in 22 Years.
Union, June 8.—James Gilham, who defeated James Minnaugh for county clerk of Union county, is the first republican clerk elected by this county for 22 years, the office having been held continuously by the democrats. The cause of the change was the local issues brought out by the county seat fight.

Portland, June 8.—Tom Word, democratic sheriff, and John Manning, democratic district attorney, were elected, the remainder of the ticket being republican.

Returns From the State.
Following is a resume of the different counties of the state:

Lane—Democratic sheriff, all the rest republicans. Local option carried.

Clackamas—Elected entire republican ticket, with possible exception of school superintendent.

Polk—Elected one democratic representative and a democratic sheriff.

Benton—Elected democratic assessor, commissioner and treasurer. Local option carries.

Douglas—Hermann's county elects a democratic clerk, state senator and circuit judge. Local option carries.

Coos county elects a democratic circuit judge and local option was lost.

Josephine—Elected a full republican ticket and local option carried by a small majority.

Tillamook—All the amendments carried four to one, and a socialist clerk was elected. The other officers are republican.

Washington—Rejected the local option amendment and elected a full republican ticket.

Linn—Carried the local option amendment and elected democratic judge, clerk and superintendent.

Marion—Accepted local option by 250 majority and elected a full republican ticket.

Yamhill—Elected the entire republican ticket.

Wallowa—Local option, direct primaries and printer's amendments carried by large majorities. The republicans elect everything except sheriff, clerk, county judge, treasurer and commissioner, which go to the democrats.

Wasco—Went against local option by about 40 votes, but adopted the direct primaries by 700 majority. Ticket is republican excepting Harriman for commissioner and A. S. Bennett for senator.

Union—Adopted the local option amendment strong and elected a democratic sheriff, C. C. Pennington, formerly of Pendleton, superintendent, assessor and surveyor. The county seat fight resulted in the selection of La Grande by 72 per cent, the requirement of the enabling act being but 60 per cent.

Crook—Local option was carried and the democrats gained two offices in the county.

Morrow—Gave Phelps, republican for district attorney, 300 majority and Holbrook, democrat for joint representative, 200 plurality. The democrats elected county judge, treasurer, school superintendent, coroner, one commissioner, with the assessor in doubt.

Gilliam—County adopted local option by 22 majority and elected a democratic sheriff and assessor.

Columbia—All the amendments carried. Henderson, democratic clerk was elected.

Sherman—Local option carried by a very small majority, and the entire republican county, district and state tickets were elected by strong majorities.

Baker—Went against the local option amendment and elected a democratic clerk, superintendent and representative. Samuel White is beaten for district attorney by a strong majority in the district.

Clatsop—Rejected the local option amendment and elected democratic representative and commissioner.

Grant—Went against local option and elected democratic clerk and surveyor.

Wheeler—Elected democratic judge, sheriff and assessor. The high school proposition was carried in the county and local option won by a large majority.

PETON JAILED.

Only Recently Released From Six Months in Jail.

G. Peton, the last remnant of royalty known to the people of Pendleton, is up against the United States once more on a charge of having sold whiskey to Joseph Bennett and Joe Williams, two Indians. The Indians were caught with the whiskey, and confessed to where they secured it. Peton was bound over to the federal grand jury in the sum of $250, which he was unable to pay, and he will be in jail until the jury meets.

Peton was released but a short time ago from the county jail after having served a sentence of six months for a similar offense.

CONTRACT LET.

Dye & Keefe Will Bridge the River at Nolin.

The county court met for its June term this morning, and has been busy most of the time looking over the bids for the construction of a bridge which is to be built across the river at Nolin. It is to be 120 feet long and has long been needed to accommodate a large and increasing travel. The bid of Dye & Keefe of Walla Walla, was accepted, and the work will be commenced as soon as the contractors have filed their bonds and put the material on the ground. Their bid promised to do the work for $1,199.

YOUNG TROUT COMING.

No Advances, However, as to Where They Will Be Placed.

H. J. Stillman, president of the Rod and Gun Club, yesterday received word that a shipment of trout would reach here tomorrow morning on the early train from the hatchery at Clackamas. No word was sent as to where the trout were to be placed, and it is not known whether or not they are sent to the Little Walla Walla, or to Meacham, or to McKay creek. The association here asked for several thousand of trout, and this is the second shipment to be made this season.
