SLOW CATTLE SALES

PRICE HAS VARIED BUT LITTLE FOR SOME TIME.

But Few Stock Now on the Ranges Are in Marketable Condition, But Many Will Be on the Market by July 1—Meat Trade Is Very Slow in Cities During the Berry Season—Sales Will Live Up Soon.

J. C. Lonergan, the cattle man, is in town having just returned from a trip to Echo, where he superintended the shipment of a lot of cattle bought for his house. The price of cattle, according to Mr. Lonergan, is about the same as it has been for some time, or at $3.75 a hundred for steers. However, but a few sales are being made at this figure, for several reasons. For one thing the cattle are out on grass, and are not yet in as good condition as they should be for market, having been turned out poor in the spring. The grass though, is better all over the country this year than it has been for several years, and the stock are thriving. By the last of July all the cattle will be in first-class condition, and then the market will begin to open, though it is not very probable that the prices will jump much above what they now are.

Strange as it may seem the berry season is having a tendency to lessen the demand for meat in the cities. Since strawberries and other berries and fruits and vegetables have come into the market in Seattle, the meat sales have fallen off to such an extent that the wholesalers are noticing it in their business. Many of the lumber camps and shingle mills are also idle for a time while the surplus stock is being used up, which is another source of loss to the meat men, who are finding their sales about 400 cattle short this month. These conditions and others, are having a tendency to make the market dull from the buyers' standpoint, but this will soon pass and the normal tone be resumed. But the lack of demand is not out of place, for a great many of the cattle are not really fit for market at this time, and will not be for some time, so that the lull is working to the advantage of both the growers and the buyers.

ANNUAL ROUND-UP.

Work of Identifying and Disposing of Horses on the Reservation.

The Indians are now engaged in their annual round-up on the north fork of McKay creek, and for the next few days things will be doing on the reservation. It is the custom of the Indians to round up all the horses found on the reservation in the spring, when all the young stock belonging to the Indians are cut out from the strays and branded. There are a large number of horses on the reservation this year and the Indians will be busy for several days in herding them all into the branding pens.

The Indians would like to have all the white men living near the reservation who have, or think they have stock on the reservation, come to the round-up, cut out and brand their colts. All young horses not claimed will be held and advertised, and if not claimed, will be kept by the Indians.

PRICES ADVANCED

CUNNINGHAM MADE AN ACCURATE PROPHECY.

Seventeen Thousand Pounds of Wool Brought Fifteen and Three-eighths Cents—Bottom of the Market Was Ten and One-half Cents—One Hundred and Sixty Seven Thousand Pounds Sold.

The prediction of Charles Cunningham made some time ago that the prices paid for wool at the sales day today would be higher than those of the first day, and that the highest price, to be paid would be a half cent higher than the highest of the last sales day, was verified to the letter today when O. Frankenstein bought the 16,998 pounds offered by Isaac Knotts for the Boston firm of Hecht, Liebman & Co., at 15½ cents a pound.

The prices paid during the day hovered around the 14 cent mark, and the lowest paid was 10½ cents, to A. H. Sunderman for 14,319 pounds. All the rest brought above 14 cents.

The total sales of the day amounted to 541 sacks, or 167,387 pounds, all of which will be shipped from here to the buyers in the East as soon as cars can be provided for its transportation. A part of it will be scoured before shipping, but the most will be baled and shipped in the grease.

The sales which cleaned up the wool in the warehouses here, were as follows:

Smith & Campbell, 46 sacks, 12,286 pounds; bought by Livingston at 14½ cents.

Gulliford Bros., 174 sacks, 53,357 pounds; bought by Kuhn at 14½ cents.

George H. McDonald, 37 sacks, 10,345 pounds; bought by Livingston at 14½ cents.

A. H. Sunderman, 36 sacks, 14,319 pounds; bought by Kuhn at 10½ cents.

U. G. Horn, 39 sacks, 10,445 pounds; bought by Brigham at 14½ cents.

N. C. Nelson, 46 sacks, 15,860 pounds; bought by Brigham at 14½ cents.

Isaac Knotts, 61 sacks, 16,998 pounds; bought by Frankenstein at 15½ cents.

Chas. Ely, 55 sacks, 17,712 pounds; bought by Livingston at 14½ cents.

George Rader, 32 sacks, 12,189 pounds; bought by Brigham at 14½ cents.

D. W. Chapman, 55 sacks, 17,047 pounds; bought by Livingston at 14½ cents.

CONDUCTOR PATTON ROBBED.

Robber Stole Trousers and Vanished in Darkness.

M. H. Patton, a popular and well known conductor on the O. R. & N. line between Pendleton and Spokane, was the victim of a harsh joke Tuesday morning, says the Walla Walla Union.

He resides in Spokane and when he awoke one of his first acts was to look for his trousers, but his eyes encountered only a vacant space, where the trousers had been the night before.

A search of the room failed to reveal them, and he began an investigation to discover where the pants had gone with the contents of the pocket, about $30.

The lost trousers were found at last in a barn, where they had been thrown through a window by the light footed burglar who had succeeded in abstracting them from Patton's room without awakening either Mr. Patton or his son, who occupied the room with him.

The thief had apparently gained an entrance to the house by turning the key of the rear door with a pair of nippers, the key showing dents where they had been used.

FOUR-YEAR TERMS.

Tenure of Some Offices Increased by Last Legislature.

When C. P. Strain assumes the robes of his office for the new term on the first of next January he will go in for a four-year term. His term was lengthened from two to four years at the last session of the legislature.

Horace Walker and Frank K. Welles, the county commissioner and county superintendent of schools-elect will also hold office for four years, while all the other officers who were chosen at this election will serve for two years each.

With the exception of Assessor Strain, whose new term commences on January first next, the rest of the terms will begin on the first of July, when the old officials will turn over their offices to the new incumbents.

RETURN FROM ST. LOUIS.

J. J. Baumgardner and Wife Return from a Visit to Missouri and Illinois Points.

J. J. Baumgardner and wife have returned from a seven weeks' visit in Illinois, Missouri and Nebraska, having attended the St. Louis fair while absent, also. They had a most enjoyable visit with Mr. Baumgardner's relatives in Montgomery county, Illinois, and with Mrs. Baumgardner's people in Nebraska.

Crops all over the Central States are backward, but will be very good. It rained on them at almost every point they stopped and especially at St. Louis.

They report having enjoyed the St. Louis exposition and while they were surprised at the incomplete exhibit of Oregon resources and Oregon history at the fair, they saw many new and interesting features of the state that they had not seen here. Mr. Baumgardner says that living expenses are very high in the exposition grounds but that people can find good quarters at very moderate rates near by, if they will take time and trouble to select their stopping place.

BANK WILL OPEN JUNE 20.

Mark Moorhouse Will Be Mr. Thompson's Assistant.

The lettering is being put on the front windows of the new bank, announcing that the place is the headquarters of the Commercial National Bank. The fixtures are now on the road and will be here in a few days, when they will be put in place as fast as possible.

It is expected to open the institution for business June 20, and for a time the place will be run by two men. W. L. Thompson will be assisted by Mark Moorhouse, and if it is found that any additional help is necessary one of the directors from Lewiston will be sent to assist until the business is put into smooth running shape.

CLOSE THE BOXES

MARSHAL CARNEY SERVES NOTICE ON THE SALOONS.

Some Saloonkeepers State They Will Remove the Boxes Altogether—They Are Frequented by Girls and Women at All Hours and Have Led to Much Complaint.

By order of the police committee of the council, Marshal Carney this afternoon served notice on all the saloon men that in the future the violation of the ordinance forbidding the presence of women in the boxes of the saloons would be vigorously prosecuted. The marshal ordered that all women be excluded from the back rooms of the saloons and that no drinks be sold to them under any circumstances.

The action of the committee has been made necessary by the fact that of late many young girls and women have gotten into the habit of frequenting the boxes in company with young men, where they spent the greater part of the nights in carousing. People living in the vicinity of the saloons have entered complaints so the committee, which investigated the matter, finding it as bad as reported.

The saloon men will observe the order, some of them going so far as to say that they will remove the boxes from their places altogether.

PLANTING TROUT.

Local Sportsmen Assisting Government Employees.

H. J. Stillman, William Hoch and Frank Howe returned this afternoon from McKay creek, where they went yesterday morning to "plant" 10,000 little trout which had been shipped to the Sportsmen's Association from the Clackamas hatchery for restocking the streams of this county.

As it is quite a job to get the fish from the cans into the fresh water of the creeks without chilling them by the sudden change, it is customary for a few sportsmen of each locality to assist the government employees accompanying the shipments in the planting process.

Weather Man Has Moved.

Pendleton will have to take the weather as it comes in future for the town is now without a weather man. F. G. Mitchell, who has been at the helm, has moved to Athens for a time, at least, and is not able to take the weather machine with him.

Formerly of Pendleton.

J. J. Hughes, formerly an employe of the O. R. & N., at this place, but now working with the company at Portland, left this morning for Milton where he will visit his parents for a few days. He has been the guest of friends here for a short time.

Bad Case of Sore Throat.

Jack McLaughlin, of the freight office of the O. R. & N., is confined to his home with a severe attack of sore throat. At first it was thought that McLaughlin had diphtheria, but it is now presumed that it is the quinsy.
