BEARING DOWN PAINS

3847 Indiana Avenue.
CHICAGO, ILL., Sept. 27, 1902.

I have been a sufferer with almost every kind of female trouble for years, but as long as I could get around and do my work I would not try patent medicines as I had no faith in them.

About eight months ago I had to take to my bed, suffering with prolapsus of the uterus, with bearing down pains and intense pains in the back. My aunt, who came to nurse me, told me of Wine of Cardui and sent for a bottle. I am indeed glad that she did, for that first bottle started me on the road to recovery.

In a few weeks I was out of bed and in three months I was in better health and stronger than I had been in years. I take a dose now, occasionally, of Wine of Cardui and am kept in perfect health.

Wine of Cardui brings certain relief to women suffering any symptom of female weakness and perfectly regulates the menstrual flow. Wine of Cardui stops bearing down pains by permanently relieving the irritation which weakens the ligaments holding the womb in place. You need not suffer every month if you take this medicine. The periodical discharge will be painless and healthy without continual weakening drains. Wine of Cardui will make your health right and you may treat yourself privately in your own home. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today.

EFFEMINATE KOREANS.

Jack London Describes People of the "Hermit Kingdom."

Jack London, correspondent of the Examiner in the Orient, writing of the personal appearance and characteristics of the Koreans, says:

The Korean has finer features, but the vital lack in his face is strength. He is soft and effeminate when compared with the strong breeds, and whatever strength has been his in the past has been worked out of him by centuries of corrupt government.

He is certainly the most inefficient of human creatures, lacking all initiative and achievement, and the only thing in which he shines is the carrying of burdens on his back. As a draught animal and packhorse he is a success.

And yet, I am confident—ay, willing to lay odds—that my own breed, can beat him at his own game; that my own breed, from what I have seen of it in the West and North, can outwalk him, outpace him, and outwork him at coolie labor. In this latter connection I may state that three coolies are required to work an ordinary shovel.

As one may see in Seoul any day of the year, one coolie steers the shovel by the handle, and two other coolies, sometimes three, furnish the motive power by means of ropes, upon which they drag.

My two mapus—and they struck me a little better than the average—required an hour to put the loads on the ponies, and then spent the rest of the day trying to keep the loads from falling off.

The simplest act requires half an hour of chin-chin and chatter before it can be performed, and if left alone the Korean would prefer giving a day to the preliminary discussion. About the only way to break up this discussion is to vociferate "Os-saw!" which means hurry up, and to threaten to pull his topknot or break his head.

For the Korean is nothing if not a coward, and his fear of bodily hurt is about equal to his inaction. The creation of any word in a language denotes need for that word. The lack of quickness and the need for it has given the Korean vocabulary a score of words, at least, among which may be mentioned Pat-pee, Ol-jun, Sol-kee, Oil-pit, Koop-hee, Ning-kom, Bal-lee and Chamkan. And though capling has well said that one mustn't bustle the East, these are the first words the white man learns.

THE MIKADO'S AMERICANS.

Many Citizens of This Country Decorated by Japan.

In pursuance of his policy of warm friendship toward America, the Emperor Mutsuhiro of Japan has conferred decorations upon several Americans who have rendered him service or displayed particular interest in Japanese affairs.

Durham White Stevens, who was at one time secretary of the United States legation at Tokio, and is now honorary counsellor of the Japanese legation at Washington, is entitled to wear the third class of the Order of the Rising Sun, the second class of the same order, and the second class of the Order of the Sacred Treasure.

Rev. Merriman Colbert Harris, who was formerly one of the most distinguished American missionaries in Japan, and is now in charge of a Japanese mission at San Francisco, received the fourth class of the Order of the Sacred Treasure from the mikado, who, although himself a Shintoist, greatly admired the philanthropic work of the Christian missionary.

Prof. George Trumbull, formerly a professor at Yale and now, perhaps, the most widely known of the foreign instructors in the universities of Japan, has the third class of the Order of the Rising Sun. The same decoration was conferred upon the Hon. Alfred J. Ostheimer, honorary Japanese consul at Philadelphia, when he visited Japan some years ago.

The Fifth Order of the Double Light Rising Sun—a much coveted decoration, was recently bestowed on Mr. Joseph Marshall Wade, a prominent business man of Boston, who has become well known in Japan by his munificent patronage of Japanese art.
