Third-Termer Elected.

Among the peculiarities of the late DR. D. J. MFAUL, JUDD BLOCK, TELE-phone, main 931; residence, black 161. campaign, the candidacy of J. J. Smith, re-elected county clerk, has excited the most comment. Mr. Smith made absolutely no fight for the of-fice, being a third-termer and deeming all effort wasted; he made no canvass and spent not a dollar, and yet pulled out with a plurality of over 400 votes, or more than any other candi date on either of the three tickets. I is a remarkable record, and speaks volumes for not only the popularity of the man but the efficiency of the official.—Crook County Journal.

Shearing Over in Morrow.

Sheep shearing is now all over in Morrow county and the sheepmen are getting their flocks away to the mountain districts for summer range While the ranges are overcrowded in schools and 105 of whom were most places, the grass is so much better than usual that the difficulties left certificates. There were 332 of this condition will be greatly eliminated. Generally speaking, sheep will start to the mountains in good condition.-Heppner Gazette

One of the many proofs of the vast-ly increased consumption of fruits among the American people is seen in the fact that in 1899 a little more than a million bunches of bananas were exported from Honduras to the United States. In 1903 the total exceeded two millions, and consular estimates put the probable aggregate in 1904 at 3, 000,000. And imported fruits of many kinds have fallen off in price as the years have gone by.
