CHILDREN'S DAY EXERCISES.

Pendleton Churches Observe the Regular Day Set Aside for Children's Programs.

Yesterday was children's day at the Baptist and M. E. churches, and appropriate programs were rendered at both morning and evening services. At the M. E. church, Rev. Robert Warner addressed the children in the forenoon and baptized six into the church as follows: Frances Hoffman, daughter of Frank Hoffman; Emma M. Moore, daughter of Dwight Moore; Walden F. Byers, son of G. W. Byers; Charles A. Taylor, son of Ralph Taylor, and Claude Le Roy, son of Edward Le Roy.

In the evening an elaborate and interesting program, consisting of songs, recitations and tableaux, was rendered by the different Sunday school classes.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion and a tableau, bearing the legend: "Lest we forget," was presented at the close of the program, accompanying the recital of Kipling's "Recessional."

At the Baptist church the rite of baptism was postponed and the day was given over to the children's day exercises, under the Sunday school classes. Rev. Hall preached on "The Omnipotent Christian," after the morning program.

The evening exercises were especially interesting. The exercises at both churches were largely attended and the programs showed patient, untiring labor on the part of those who drilled the children for the different exercises.

POLICE COURT.

Young Men Out Taking a Look at the World Are the City's Guests.

William McDonald and William Hoch were arrested yesterday morning for being drunk on the streets, and were put in jail over Sunday. Both of the callers at the Hotel d'Carney are young men out seeing the world. They were tried this morning before Judge Fitz Gerald and given a fine of $5 each, which they were unable to pay, and each will spend three days in jail.

IN CIRCUIT COURT

SEVERAL PLEAD GUILTY SENTENCES POSTPONED.

"Captain" D. M. King Will Not Fight, But "Go the Road" for Fifteen Dollars—John Morton Will Stand a Fight, and Promises to Have a Lawyer Here Thursday—W. C. Bingham Also Pleads Not Guilty—James Branan Destined for the Penitentiary.

The June term of the circuit court was called this morning by Judge W. R. Ellis, who devoted his attention to the criminal docket during the first day.

John Morton, the man who represented himself to be the geological survey man in the service of the government, and who, on the strength of his representations secured $15 from the grocery firm of Younger & Son, after showing forged checks amounting to $9100, was arraigned this morning and pleaded guilty to the charge of having in his possession forged evidences of debt with intent to defraud. He will be sentenced tomorrow afternoon at 1:30.

John Morton, the man who shot Pat Dougherty some time ago during a quarrel on the sheep ranch of the latter, was arraigned and asked to plead. He stated that Judge A. S. Bennet, of The Dalles, would be here to defend him Thursday morning, and asked that he be granted until that time in which to enter his plea, which request was granted and his trial set for Thursday morning at 9 o'clock.

W. C. Bingham was arraigned on a charge of larceny by bailie and pleaded not guilty. Bingham is accused of the larceny of a horse from a man named Rhodes, who lives close to the reservation. Bingham claims, on the other hand, that he had been working for Rhodes, that the horse was given to him in payment for his work, and that Rhodes caught the horse, put a bridle on it and turned it over to him. He then came to Pendleton and sold the animal to M. J. Carney and left for Idaho. On his return he was arrested. He pleaded not guilty, and W. M. Peterson was appointed to plead his case, which was set for tomorrow morning.

John McDonald, accused of burglary by having stolen from the Froome livery barn a set of harness belonging to Lester Swaggart, on April 5, pleaded guilty to the charge and will be sentenced tomorrow afternoon at 1:30.

James Branan, accused of having enticed Annie Githins, a girl under 16 years of age, away from her home for the purpose of prostitution, was arraigned this morning and pleaded guilty to the charge. He will be sentenced tomorrow afternoon at 1:30. Branan is the man who was arrested Saturday and brought here from Weston, to which town he had taken the Githins girl a day or so before.

The case of the state against Hugh Robie, Mollie Wilson and Robert Montgomery was called this afternoon. The defendants are charged with having given liquor to a minor contrary to law. The complaining witness in the case is L. A. Githins, the postmaster at Athena, who charges that the defendants caused his daughter, Annie Githins, to become intoxicated on whiskey furnished by them.

The case was heard some time ago before a justice court, when the defendants were bound over to the circuit court, having been out on bonds since that time. T. G. Halley is representing the state, while the defendants are represented by John McCourt.

The case of the O. R. & N. against the county in which a writ of review is asked for together with a stay of proceedings in the collection of the taxes as assessed by C. P. Strain, will come up in the equity department of the court as soon as the jury is dismissed and the company is ready to argue its side of the question. The court is ready now to take the matter under consideration as soon as the present docket is cleared and the attorneys can agree on a time for hearing.

Robie and Wilson Plead Guilty.

When arraigned this afternoon Robie and Mollie Wilson pleaded guilty to the charge. The sentence in the case of the woman was suspended during her future good behavior, and Robie will be sentenced tomorrow afternoon at the same time as the rest of those who have pleaded today. The case against Montgomery was dismissed, as there was nothing to connect him with the commission of the crime as charged.

REBUILT A WAGON.

George Knight Supposed to Be Running a Repairs Depot.

Tom Wood and Henry Korder were arrested Saturday evening for the larceny of a large part of a new wagon belonging to George Knight, of Helix.

Knight had recently bought a new wagon, which he had been using, and had left in a field near his house. Saturday morning Wood and Korder drove into the field with their wagon and stripped the new vehicle of its brake rods, neck yoke, double-trees, part of the bed and a few other little things which they thought might be of use to them. They then came on to Pendleton, where they unhitched their team in front of the Byers mill, and came down town to attend to business.

Knight had, in the meantime, gone out to his wagon, where he discovered his loss. He tracked the thieves to the road and saw that they had started for Pendleton. He followed them, and arriving here soon found the old wagon, rickety and unpainted, with the bright red parts newly added. The sheriff was notified and made the arrest of the thieves as they were hitching up to leave for home. They at first protested their innocence, but after having been put in jail admitted the theft. They will be tried at the present term of court.

"DUTCH LUNCH."

A. Zeuske Pays an Election Bet for Benefit of Woodmen.

As the result of an election bet, the members of the Pendleton camp of the Woodmen, had a very enjoyable "Dutch lunch" at the close of their meeting on Saturday evening. J. H. Lawrey, before the election, had been sure that one of his men was the winner, while A. Zeuske was equally sure that Mr. Lawrey was wrong. After some argument it was decided that the champion of the losing man should donate a keg of beer and all necessary accompaniments to the camp at the first meeting after the election. So Mr. Zeuske donated, and acted as master of ceremonies in a very cheerful manner, considering the fact that he was the loser.

A large number of members of the camp were present who had not been to one of the sessions for some time, and many thanks were returned to the donor, and wishes expressed that it would not be the last time he made a bet.

HEPPNER MEMORIAL.

Large Quantities of Flowers Sent From Pendleton.

A large shipment of roses and flowers of all kinds was made from Pendleton today and yesterday to Heppner, where they will be used in the commemoration of the anniversary of the Heppner flood of one year ago tomorrow. There are many residents of Pendleton who had relatives lost at that time, and still more who had friends who went down beneath the flood.

Tomorrow the people of Heppner will observe the first anniversary of the flood by a day of mourning, having made June 14 a permanent memorial day, the observance of which will be general in Heppner and vicinity. It is to this event that the flowers from Pendleton have been sent, and tributes are coming to Heppner from all over the state.

PANTHEON OPENS TONIGHT.

New Vaudeville Theater Will Give Its Initial Performance This Evening, Beginning at 7:30.

The Pantheon theater in the new Martin building at the corner of Webb and Cottonwood streets, will be opened to the public tonight at 7:30, with an excellent vaudeville program.

Jack Thompson, the manager of the theater, promises one of the cleanest, most spicy, interesting vaudeville programs ever presented in this city.

Among the high-class features of every night's performance will be the vitoscope. Mr. Thompson has one of the best vitoscopes, or moving picture machines in the Northwest and the collection of pictures is intensely interesting.

PARALYZED.

Mrs. Martin McLaughlin, of North Fork, Lies in a State of Coma.

Mrs. Martin McLaughlin, of North Fork, was brought to the home of J. A. McCloud yesterday evening, suffering from an attack of paralysis, and is now in a critical condition. Mrs. McLaughlin has been a sufferer from heart disease for some time, and has several times been very ill. Yesterday morning she was apparently in good health, when she was suddenly stricken down and has since been in a coma from which it is impossible to arouse her.

Mrs. McLaughlin is the widow of Martin McLaughlin, who was killed by being run over by a passenger train a couple of years ago.

The Sales Have Nearly Cleaned Up the Entire Crop.

The wool sales of last week practically cleaned up all of the wool in the county, and there is but little to be found here now to buy. Out in the interior of the county it is possible still to find a few sacks here and there, but even these lots are few and far between. All not now sold will be brought in at the convenience of the grower, and sold to the mills here, or to some buyer who may want a little lot to "fill in" some shipment. But the county is practically clean of the clip of 1904, more so than for some years past at this early stage of the season.

Removed to Marshfield.

Mrs. M. B. Jordan, who has resided in Pendleton for the past 15 years, left yesterday for Marshfield, Ore., accompanied by her family, where she will reside in future. She was met in Portland by Luther Ramadell, formerly an employe of Perry Houser in this city, to whom she will be married today. They expect to leave Portland for Marshfield, by boat, tomorrow.
