Farmers Taking More Interest.

Alex McPherson, state horticultural and pure food inspector, has returned from an extended trip through the northern part of the state, during which he attended farmers' insti-tutes at Bonners Ferry, Rathdrum. American Ridge and several other points. He reports a very noticeable increase in the interest taken by farmers, dairymen, horticulturists others in the work of the institutes. the attendance at each of the meet-ings having been much larger than in the past years. This is also true regarding the enforcement of the prolake's hospital, which visions of the pure food law, the bet ter class of merchants in all of the cities he visited expressing themselves as being heartily in favor of the act.-Boise Capital News.
