

AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

Percees Will Celebrate.
A council held at Spalding to the Percees Indians decided the fourth of July celebration should be held at this point on the hill back of Lapwai. The big celebration will be held here, while incidental ones will be given at Spalding, and on the hill back of Lapwai. The prominent subject of the celebration is the Percees, who arrived here this morning from Spalding, where he is engaged in the council. In a statement made to a Tribune reporter, he said:
"I am now definitely settled that the celebration will be held here and at Spalding. Some wanted to have it at Lapwai and this contention was made on account of old times of the tribe. However, the Percees will take place here. It is planned to make the celebration the biggest in the history of the tribe, and we extend a cordial invitation to all the white people to come and celebrate with us. There will be many Indians here from other tribes. The Umatillas are here, and I have noticed also that some of Joseph's band are already here from the Colville. It will be a time and everybody who comes will have a great deal of pleasure."
The tent is the property of the camp to be established will be made exclusively of buffalo hides. The tent is the property of Slickpoo, a well known Indian. It is a heribloom passed down to his forefathers. It has not been used for over 20 years or since the war of 1877. The tent is painted in native style, the pictures illustrating battles that were fought many years ago in which members of the Percees family participated.—Lewiston Tribune.

Can Women and Boys Hunt?
A dispatch from Rathdrum says: C. L. White of Rathdrum has been arrested for alleged violation of the Idaho game law. Complaint was made by J. C. Canahan, who charges White with fishing for trout without a license. Justice McCall this afternoon sentenced White to pay a fine of $15 and costs. By the advice of Attorney J. W. Merritt, White refused to pay the fine and was lodged in jail. Attorney Merritt has secured a writ of habeas corpus, which will bring the case before Judge Morgan at Harrison June 24. Merritt came from Spokane today and says the case was brought to test the game law, which is believed to be unconstitutional because it does not require women and boys under 12 to take out a license.

Every City Needs a Natatorium.
The people of Baker City are now flocking to the natatorium every afternoon. While the place has not the pretensions of the Sutro baths at San Francisco or the famous Boise natatorium, still it is a credit to this place. Those who have not visited it do not really know that it is one among the best natural resources of this county. J. J. Graham who has had charge of the place since it was established says that it is more popular this season than ever.—Baker City Herald.

Shearing Plant Shut Down.
Some of the shearers have returned to this city from the Jenkins ranch and state that the shearing plant has been shut down for the season. They report a very successful season and say the machines clipped more than 15,000 sheep in excess of last season. As a general thing the wool this year is superior to former seasons, being cleaner and finer, although not weighing on an average as much as last year.—Burns Herald.

World Convention.
The world-wide scope of the organization and its work is strikingly illustrated by the fact that the delegates present spoke among them no less than 39 different languages. The countries represented included France, China, Japan, Canada, South Africa, India, Australia, Russia, Switzerland, Germany and the United States.
By far the largest delegation from abroad was that of the United States. The delegation from that country numbered 600 men and women and was in charge of Commander Booth-Tucker. It was not only the largest delegation, numerically, but also the most picturesque and widely representative of the work of the Salvation Army. To represent the different phases of the army's work on the other side of the Atlantic, the American delegation included a Chinese brigade from California, a detail of those who work among the mountains of Kentucky, a Mexican brigade, a Hawaiian brigade and a brigade of colored people from the South.
The international congress began today will continue for a fortnight. For eight days conferences will take place, and Gen. Booth will, it is arranged, deliver speeches which will average five hours' length each day. Three days more will be devoted to public meetings both in the congress hall and in all parts of the metropolis, and the congress will be brought to a grand finale by a huge gala day at the Crystal Palace.

$50,000 HANDICAP.
Will Run One and a Quarter Miles for Immense Stake.
St. Louis, Mo., June 24.—Everything is in readiness for the World's fair handicap to be run at the fair grounds tomorrow. Though Hermis, the Picket and other horses that have been most prominent on the Eastern tracks this spring will not take part, the entry list includes a sufficient number of famous winners to insure one of the greatest races of the American turf year. The race will be at a distance of a mile and a quarter and the owners of the winner will be enriched to the extent of $50,000.
The keen interest manifested in the race is evidenced by the arrival of parties of horsemen and other followers of the turf from New York, Chicago, Kansas City, Memphis, Louisville and numerous other points.

"STRANGLER" KNAPP CASE.
Defendant Accused of Being a Wholesale Murderer.
Columbus, O., June 24.—The case of Alfred A. Knapp, the alleged "strangler," who is under sentence of death, came up for hearing today in the state supreme court. Knapp is to be given a second trial and it is now being arranged to have the trial held early in the coming fall. It will take place at Hamilton.
The crime of which Knapp was convicted was the murder of his wife, Hannah Goddard Knapp. The murder was committed at Hamilton in December, 1902. In addition to this crime Knapp confessed to having strangled three other women and girls, two in Cincinnati and one in Indianapolis. He was suspected also of the murder of several other women and girls. His defense was insanity.
