IN WALLOWA COUNTY

A PROSPEROUS AND A BEAUTIFUL COUNTRY.

But it Needs Good Transportation Facilities Very Much—Exciting War on Between Stage Lines—The Entire District Ought to Be Opened Up by Railroads—Is Rapidly Settling Up and Offers Splendid Inducements.

Lostine, Ore., June 23.—From Elgin to Wallowa is 30 miles. In going that distance we met more than 20 wool teams coming out from Joseph and other points with wool to be graded and baled at Elgin. There will be more than 2,000,000 pounds of wool handled at Elgin this season. It is thought.

One can not be in Elgin long without being made aware of the stage war. "Are they paying you to go over now?" I was asked. The old line owned by McCully, which for so long a time has held undisputed sway has a rival in the field in the Tenderfoot Transportation Co. Each company has its supporters. The adherents of the Tenderfoot company claim that they make better time than the mail line and that their livery rigs are easier riding than the stage coach. The other line denies both allegations and defies the allegator and so it goes while the public who are traveling for half of the old rates stand by and say: "Sick 'em, Tize."

What the country needs is a railroad. It would open up the country and develop it wonderfully. They call the Wallowa mountains with their many beautiful lakes, the "Alps of Eastern Oregon," and in truth, if it were more accessible, hundreds of tourists would come in for it is a beautiful country, with fishing, hunting and magnificent scenery.

The road to Wallowa goes down the famous Wallowa hill, the scene of many a winter accident, and winds down the picturesque but rocky Wallowa canyon. After you have emerged from the canyon, gotten out of the "neck of the jug," the valley broadens out into a beautiful valley. The country is rapidly settling up, and drummers say that all the little towns are excellent business points.

Wallowa is a thriving, growing little city, well built and having some very homelike and attractive residences. If a man has money to invest there is a good field here, for with the coming of a railroad, land values are sure to go much higher.

A man with capital could make lots of money by taking up or buying the land on which the marble and granite is located. Poor transportation facilities stand in the way of developing this proposition at present, but there is no reason why it should not develop into a big industry some day. Both in quantity and quality it is good.

Horses, cattle, sheep, grain, wool and hay are what the country depends on now. It is a valley of springs and streams and would make an ideal dairy country. Red clover does splendidly, as well as the various grasses and alfalfa.

As an illustration of what can be done here: S. L. Margill came here in 1889. His only capital was his industry and intelligence. He bought a man's homestead right, going in debt for it. He paid out and got a few cattle. He got water on his land and put in alfalfa. Things began coming a little easier, and he bought another farm. This year he is running both places, 400 acres in all.

Two years ago he leased one of his farms, and his share of the net gain was $1500.

The 240-acre farm he bought three years ago for $8000, he can get $50 an acre for now.

Of his 400 acres he has 240 acres in hay, alfalfa and timothy, mostly the former. He gets $5.50 a ton in the stack.

The sheepmen drive their herds to his farm and winter them there. He gets not only the $5.50 per ton for his hay, but each year his land is being enriched by the sheep. Three hundred and sixty of the 400 acres is irrigable land. He has an individual ditch from the Wallowa river and irrigates his hay land. It yields from 3 1/2 to 4 tons an acre, or a total yield of about 850 tons, which brings in a revenue of $4500 a year.

In addition to his hay he has in some grain, and has about 30 head of horses—Clydes and Percherons. He saw a good investment in town property, so bought it up. From nothing in '89 his property has increased to $25,000 during the past 15 years.

There are many opportunities for young men here in Eastern Oregon today that in the more settled East and Middle West are not to be had. For the young man who has intelligence and is not afraid of work, Eastern Oregon presents a splendid field. —Fred Lockley.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, contains no mercury and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure to get the genuine. It is taken internally and is made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by druggists, price 75c per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Five Miles of Snow.

Mrs. Graves and family, of East Deschutes, in Crook county, arrived here yesterday via the military road. They report five miles of snow on the mountains, but it is going off pretty fast. They met the Paine-Day hunting party yesterday at Blakely's, only about 35 miles from Eugene.—Eugene Guard.

No New City Hall.

The proposition of erecting a new city hall in Walla Walla is up in the air, and from the present outlook it will probably be some time yet before any definite action is taken, says the Statesman.

ERRORS WILL HAPPEN.

Through a Mistake a Large Shipment of Clothing Will Arrive for Sullivan & Bond—Great Sale Planned.

We have just received the bill of lading for a shipment of clothing which was sent us through an error, on the part of the manufacturer, just one month earlier than ordered to be shipped. We notified the manufacturer that we would refuse to accept the goods at this date, as we had no room to store them as our new building would not be ready for a month. The manufacturers wired us to get rid of the goods as soon as they arrive and charge the loss to them. This gives us special concessions and as we do not intend to make any profit on this shipment, preferring to get rid of the goods at earliest possible date, rather than to pay insurance and storage. So we will offer the most remarkable and phenomenal bargains in men's suits and separate trousers ever quoted in Oregon. Sale will take place in our present store room.

Watch for announcement of opening of this great clothing sale in a few days. We will give the prices in our big advertisement, to appear soon. SULLIVAN & BOND.

P. S.—If you are thinking of buying a suit, don't do so until you see these and learn what a saving this sale means to you.
