AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

To End Range War.

There was a large attendance at the meeting of the Antelope Wool-growers' Association on last Tuesday, the meeting having been called for the purpose of taking some steps toward ending the range troubles between sheepmen and cattle men in the Blue mountains. The slaughter of sheep has begun early in the season, a report having just reached here of the killing of 85 head of sheep belonging to Allie Jones on Mill creek, and the sheepmen are determined it shall stop. After a full discussion of the situation a reward of $500 in addition to the reward offered by the state association of sheepmen, for the arrest and conviction of any person guilty of killing, maiming or injuring any member of the association, his herder or his stock a committee consisting of H. C. Rooper, J. D. MeAndie and Joe Bannon, was then appointed to go to the Blue mountains and confer with the cattle men with regard to making lines for the summer range, with full power in the premises.

So far all efforts at an amicable adjustment of the range question in this manner have been unavailing, and the report of the present committee will be awaited with much interest by local sheepmen, and upon it will depend the future action of the association.

The tone of Tuesday's meeting was emphatic and determined, and as a guarantee of the earnestness of the members now in attendance, the reward which has been offered was subscribed on the spot.—Antelope Herald.

Loves Notoriety.

An actress will do most anything to get a press notice. Every year diamonds and jewels worth thousands of dollars are stolen from this or that actress. The newspapers get the story and the actress gets the advertising. In Spokane it is not necessary to have your jewels stolen. Just get some bad-looking man to hang around the house and the rest is easy. Miss Frances Mount is the discoverer of this scheme. Miss Frankie has been on the board about five times. She is doing a specialty act at the Auditorium this week with the Shirley company. She trained at the Georgia

Stone academy for this act. She lives with her mother at E1514 Third avenue.

Frankie hasn't been held up—yet. But she expects to be. Her mother reported today that on Sunday evening as they were returning home by a "rall and a short man." Now these two men, from this description, tally with the men the police are supposed to be looking for. There is but one conclusion to reach. They are the burglars. They did not molest Frankie and her mother, but they might have done so.—Spokane Press.

Preparing for the Veterans.

The magnificent arbor being prepared for the Fourth of July celebration is rapidly nearing completion in order that it may be used by pioneers and G. A. R. veterans in advance of the celebration.

The roof has been almost completely covered with a thick layer of fir boughs which entirely cuts out the glare of the sun and the sides of the arbor will also be encompassed by small fir trees making the arbor an idealistic, cool and shady place. The arbor will be used for the orations and concert festivities during the celebrations and for tired mothers and children when weary of "seeing the sights."—La Grande Observer.

Adams County Wheat.

John Wagner was in the city today from his ranch in Adams county. He says the prospects for a good crop are excellent in that section and that harvest will be commenced next week. Mr. Wagner brought with him several heads of red chaff wheat which he cut from his farm. The samples are excellent and he estimates that it will yield at least 25 bushels to the acre.—Walla Walla Statesman.

Walla Walla Laborers Organize.

Local Union No. 11715 of the American Federation of Labor was organized last night at Sons of Veterans hall by W. C. Christie, local organizer. Over 40 members were enrolled last night and there are 20 more who have signed up and will come in next Sunday. Meetings will be held weekly for the first month every Sunday evening.—Walla Walla Union.

RAIN IS NEEDED

WEATHER BUREAU SAYS SECOND HAY CROP IS LIGHT.

Fall Grain is Filling Nicely—Pastures Are Beginning to Dry Up—Early Potatoes Are Being Marketed—Heavy Frost on High Altitudes Damaged Crops and Fruit—Some Potatoes Nipped in Umatilla County—Frosted Wheat Will Be Light.

The past week has been dry, with cool nights and drying winds. All growing crops need rain, and unless it comes soon spring grain and the second crop of hay will be unusually light. A heavy frost occurred Friday morning in the eastern high level sections, and tender vegetables were badly nipped and some grain was damaged. On the same morning light frosts were reported in a number of localities west of the Cascades, but they did no material harm.

Fall grain is filling nicely, but spring grain is heading short. Haying has made rapid progress during the week, but nearly everywhere the returns show a falling off from previous expectations. Pastures are drying up, but feed is still good and stock continues in excellent condition.

It pays to do business generously. The proof: Schilling's Best. Full-strength and pure, and the prices only enough to pay for the quality.

Hops, gardens, field onions, potatoes and corn, although needing rain, have made fairly good progress during the week. Early potatoes are being marketed. The season so far has been remarkably free from insect pests.

The strawberry crop turned out fairly satisfactory, although it was not so heavy as it would have been had there been more rain earlier in the season. Apples continue promising and the outlook for peaches is fairly good. The yield of cherries is better than expected.

Columbia River Valley.

Boyd, Wasco county, P. P. Underwood—Cool west winds have benefited all kinds of grain, but spring wheat will be a light crop; gardens looking well, also orchards; stock in good condition; haying commenced; will be general next week.

Wasco, Sherman county, John Hull—Weather dry, with cool nights and high winds; spring wheat and oats need rain, but doing well under the conditions; hay harvest progressing well.

Condon, Gilliam county, John F. Retzacher—Week cool, with some rain; farmers are confident of a good crop of wheat, with the exception of spring sowing in some places, which has been injured by a few hot days and dry winds; frost damaged gardens; haying begun in a few localities.

Lexington, Morrow county, Edwin R. Beach—Cool and dry; grain filling nicely; crop large, spring sown grain still green; haying in progress; crop large; fruit and vegetables of all kinds doing well; potatoes are matured sufficiently to eat.

Pendleton, Umatilla county, H. J. Taylor—Weather dry and cool; light frost Thursday nipped potatoes on low ground; wheat doing very well; haying in progress, the frosted wheat will be light crop, also spring grain; summer fallow in good condition.

A BOOMING MARKET.

Big Wool Sales and Hot Competition Among the Buyers.

Butte, Mont., June 29.—Fergus county clips this season will amount to 2,000,000 pounds, according to advices from Lewiston markets. Sales for the past week have averaged 50,000 pounds per day, at prices from 4 to 16 cents. Shearing is now on.

Buyers from Dillon have already secured about three-quarters of Beaver Head county's clip, which will reach 1,500,000 pounds. Jeremiah Williams & Co. of Boston have bought all the larger clips at prices averaging 15 1/2 cents. Sixteen and one-half cents is the top price.

Agents for Eastern firms are scouring northern and eastern Montana buying all wool in sight, and in consequence comparatively little fleece will be left to be disposed of at public sales.

Competition for wool on the back is the fiercest in years. Choice clips are going rapidly at Chinook at prices between 17 and 18 cents. There is also great activity at Malta, Harlem, Glasgow and Fort Benton, where the price ruling is exceptionally strong.
