RETURN FROM EAST

SPEAKS HIGHLY OF THE ST. LOUIS EXPOSITION.

Mr. Hanscom and Daughter Extended Their Trip to New Brunswick, Mr. Hanscom's Old Home—Politics Red Hot Throughout the East—Business Conditions in the East Are Fair—Commends the Oregon Exhibit at St. Louis.

Politics is holding down the stage of public interest in the East now to the exclusion of almost everything else. Republicans are laying their plans for an aggressive campaign, while democrats are in that state of uncertainty always preceding the selection of a candidate to make the presidential race.

This is the report of J. Hanscom, a prosperous farmer living about 10 miles north of town, who is at the Hotel Bickers. He left here for an Eastern trip May 11, being accompanied by his daughter Winnie. They spent some time at St. Louis and saw all the main features of the big fair, afterward visiting a number of the larger cities on the Atlantic seaboard. Before starting homeward they visited relatives living at Mr. Hanscom's old home in the province of New Brunswick.

"What the democrats seem to need just now, according to Eastern comment," said Mr. Hanscom, "is a man to make the race for the presidency. Plenty of material seems to be in sight, but the situation is very unusual, and a Moses to lead the party out of the wilderness appears to be lacking."

"Business conditions in the East at present are fair. When the presiden-

600 ARE DERELICT

SEWER CONNECTIONS TIME LIMIT EXPIRES.

Approximate Figures Given by Inspector Withee, Who Will Make His Official Report of Conditions on July 1, Next Wednesday at Council Meeting—Something Must Be Done to Result in Compliance With the Ordinance.

Alexander the Great acquired some fame in his day by unsheathing his trusty sword and bisecting the Gordian knot. The city council of Pendleton, more than 2000 years later, is up against a problem which presents as many difficulties as the knot to the Eastern conqueror, and in solving it may force history to repeat itself. Here it is: How can the property holders be induced to make sewer connections?

The time limit in which connections may be made with sewers without offending the municipal fathers expires tomorrow. Yet, according to the computation of W. R. Withee, inspector of sewers and plumbing, in the neighborhood of 600 property owners have adopted the Fabian policy, and after tomorrow will be listed as derelict in their duties to the body corporate.

Six hundred property owners make a pretty pretentious body of men. They form an infant which can hardly be laid across the knee and spanked, a process often employed to advantage in the case of a spoiled child disregarding the parental injunction. Nor will legal action be deemed advisable if any other method of inducing the dilatory citizens to make sewer connections can be found—such a method would prove costly in the extreme.

When the council meets tonight the members will put their heads together and prod the gray matter of their cerebrums into strenuous activity in the effort to solve the problem satisfactorily. It is not thought likely that any definite action will be taken until Inspector Withee hands in his report on conditions a week from tonight.

Birthday Surprise.

Little Genevieve Halley, daughter of Attorney and Mrs. T. G. Halley, passed the 11th milestone of her existence last Monday. In celebration of the event her parents surprised her by having a large cake placed on the table when the family dined at the Hotel Pendleton. It was studied with vari-colored candles. Her sister Elizabeth, seven years her junior, caused much amusement among the hotel guests by her merriment when the cake was set on the table. The cake was taken home, and with ice cream was enjoyed by a number of the children's playmates at an informal party during the evening.

Looking Toward Pendleton.

Pete Murray, of Athena, is in the city today on business and reports having received a telephone message from Dick Benson, a prominent horse dealer at Union, inquiring in regard to the demand for work horses weighing from 1100 to 1300 pounds in this county. If Mr. Murray finds the outlook favorable Benson will probably drive a band of horses to Pendleton for sale.

Pleased With Marshfield.

Private letters from L. B. Ramsdell and J. J. Zenger, who have recently located in Marshfield, say that both are well pleased with their new locations and will reside there permanently. Property is increasing in value there very rapidly and the town is constantly growing.

GROVER WHITE ARRESTED.

He is Charged With Being Implicated in Cattle Theft.

Grover White, believed by the authorities to be implicated with J. W. Duffy in the theft of three head of cattle from the ranch of Sol Lemery, in the east end of the county, last night was arrested by Deputy Sheriff McNeill at Prosser, Wash., on a description furnished by Sheriff Taylor. News of the arrest was wired Sheriff Taylor this morning, and Deputy J. A. Blakey, Duffy was arrested in the Blue mountain district by Sheriff Taylor, about two weeks ago. The stolen cattle were taken to Walla Walla and two head were sold. Lemery recovered them before they were slaughtered.

May Call More Witnesses.

It is possible that witnesses living in Idaho may be subpoenaed to testify in the suit for divorce brought by Moses Taylor against Melissa Taylor. The evidence for the complaint was all placed in today, and witnesses took the stand for the defense. It is probable that the case will be argued and submitted Friday unless the Idaho witnesses are sent for.

Poisoned by Couse.

Mrs. P. L. Payne, of Kamela, was brought to Pendleton this morning on a bed, and taken at once to the hospital. Mrs. Payne is in a critical condition from appendicitis.

Returned from Hot Lake.

Miss Minnie Zenske returned to the city today from Hot Lake, where she spent the last two weeks for the benefit of her health. She was somewhat improved by the trip.

Epworth League.

A picnic for the benefit of the Epworth League will be held July 4. Committees are making preparations for a nice time.

Whistler in Idaho.

John T. Whistler, government engineer for Oregon, is now on a business visit to Idaho.

RETURNS FROM SHERMAN.

J. Clove Placed New Combined Harvester From the Pendleton Factory.

J. Clove returned this morning from Sherman county, where he has been for several days in the interest of the Rigby-Clove combined harvesters. Mr. Clove succeeded in selling the harvester that was sent to Sherman county some time ago, after fitting it with the recent improvements designed by him for the machines.

The wheat crop in Sherman county is much in need of rain, and unless a shower visits portions of the wheat belt, the yield will be greatly reduced.

The outlook for sales of the Rigby-Clove machines is better than ever, owing to the success of every test yet made with them.

President, Jessie Hartman; secretary-treasurer, Stella Alexander; Nellie Cameron, Bertha Alexander, Ida Thompson, Harriet Thompson, Edna Thompson, Dena Hendley, Eama Sawtelle, Winnie Privett, Gertrude Sheridan, Maude Sheridan, Ethel Johnson, Freda Roesch.

Wood at Kamela.

R. B. Cummins, a prominent wood dealer of Kamela, is in the city today on business. He reports activity in the wood business at that place. While there is a great amount of wood now on the dumps at the various stations on the mountains, there will not be the usual amount cut this season, because of the fact that the timber is culled out closely and men cannot be secured to chop, as readily as formerly. Wood is now selling at $3 per cord on board the cars at Kamela.

Vaudeville Company Engaged.

After considerable scheming and corresponding, Manager Taylor of the Frazier theater has secured the Montgomery-Montrose vaudeville company for a week's engagement at the Frazier, beginning next Sunday evening, July 3. The prices will be 10, 20 and 30 cents and the entertainment is high class, clean, and elevating. The program will be changed three times during the eight nights, each act to be presented but twice.

Clean Up Yards and Alleys.

The health committee will make a tour of inspection of back yards and alleys, with a view to enforcing the ordinances on cleanliness. Home owners are urgently requested to clear up rubbish and filth that may have accumulated as the committee has no desire to add costs to the matter of enforcing the ordinances.

Visiting His Son.

W. F. McMinn of Boise City, was in the city last night between trains, visiting his son, M. H. McMinn, of the Pendleton band. He left this morning for Walla Walla.
