MICHIGAN REPUBLICANS Synopsis of the Situation at Detroit Convention.

Detroit, Mich., June 28.—To an ur biased observer it looks as though Fred M. Warner will be chosen head the republican ticket by the state nominating convention here to Mr. Warner's rivals in the race for the gubernatorial nomination are Homer Warren and Justus S. Stearns. neither of whom, it is believed, will be able to hold enough votes to win

The only fight of importance beside that for the head of the ticket, is the contest for auditor general.

The remainder of the ticket will probably be made up about as follows: Alexander Maitland of Negaunee, for lieutenant governor: Frank P. Gla-Washtenaw, for state treas urer; George A. Prescott of Tawas, for secretary of state; Major Nugent of Bay, for land commissioner; Patrick H. Kelley of Wayne, for superin tendent of public instruction,
