EAGLES' CARNIVAL

RUSHING PREPARATIONS
FOR WEEK OF JULY 11-16.

Some of the Best Attractions Are Free Being Entirely Out of Doors—The Fee Attractions Are Good, and Some of Them Extraordinary. Including a 27-Foot Boa Constrictor and the Famous Mechanical Swiss Village.

Realizing that the time in which to prepare for their carnival is brief, the Eagles are laboring industriously to have everything in readiness by July 11, the opening day. Charles S. Fox, advance agent of the Dixie Carnival Company, arrived in Pendleton this morning and was busily engaged both this morning and afternoon, conferring with J. T. Hinkle and others prominent in carnival affairs relative to making arrangements for the installation of the various features, so as to have everything in shipshape by the opening day.

"Wherever our attractions have appeared we have secured good press notices," said Mr. Fox. "There are 10 features of the show we provide, and they are all good. Free attractions will be given both in the afternoon at 3 o'clock and in the evening at 8 o'clock. They consist of Berger Bros., in hand-to-hand and head-to-head balancing and feats of strength. At 4 and 5:30 p. m. Dana Thompson will make his sensational high dive from a 96-foot tower into a tank containing but four feet of water, turning a somersault in the air and striking the water head foremost."

The official program of the carnival furnishes the following features:

The electric palace, showing the statue turning to life, an optical illusion taken from the myth of Pygmalion and Galatea; Tribby, the flying woman, who seemingly defies the laws of gravitation and floats around at pleasure; Jimmy Roberts, the black-face comedian from Koster & Bial's, New York, and a reproduction of the eruption of Mt. Pelee.

Samson, said to be the largest boa constrictor on exhibition. The snake is 27 feet long and weighs 300 pounds. It is said to have killed two men before it was captured.

Ornamental glass blowers, who spin more than 200 articles and give them away to visitors as souvenirs of the exhibition; Esau, the Egyptian, who sits in a cage surrounded by venomous snakes, which he is said to handle and feed on at pleasure; the Swiss village, a mechanical production showing more than 500 automations in perpetual motion; the laughing palace, the Ferris wheel, the merry-go-round, Dixie land, a Malay wonder, Luna, a reproduction of the assassination of the late President McKinley by Czolgosz, the anarchist, and other features.

J. H. GWINN RETURNS.

Finds Feed Abundant in the John Day Country.

J. H. Gwinn, the New York Life man and secretary of the Oregon Woolgrowers Association, returned last night from a hard trip into the John Day country.

He reports the cattle in the pink of condition with the price picking up from the slump of last fall. Yearlings are bringing $14, 2 and 3-year-olds a proportionate price.

The grass is exceedingly good and abundant. The range being better than it has been at any time in the last 15 years. Mr. Gwinn has no praises for the mountain roads from Sumpter to the John Day. They are in a very bad condition, the heavy rains of last winter having washed out the soil and left the roadbed filled with loose rocks.

SHIPPING GRASS BEEF.

Seven Hundred Animals to the Seattle Market.

Within a few days Jim Lonergan, representing the Frye-Bruhn Company, of Seattle, will ship 700 head of grass-fed beef from the country near Pomeroy and Endicott. He passed through Pendleton to that district this morning.

"I expect to get all the cattle shipped out of there by July 6 or 7," said Mr. Lonergan. "All the cattle there are in fine condition now. In about 10 days I shall return to Pendleton and will make a number of shipments from here at that time."

TOO SOON FOR DR. EDWARDS.

He Did Not Preach at Spokane Three Years Before He Was Born.

When the Rev. Dr. Jonathan Edwards picked up a recent issue of the Spokane Spokesman-Review and from an article dealing with early Washington reminiscence, discovered that he had entered the Congregational field at the Falls City in 1847, he was surprised. Dr. Edwards was born in 1850 and went to Spokane in 1886.

Pleasant Party at Mrs. Gwinn's.

Mrs. J. H. Gwinn, assisted by Mrs. Clara Brown, gave a very enjoyable party at her home on South Main last evening. Progressive flinch was played and cooling refreshments were served. Those present were Miss Ena U'Ren, Miss Edith Boyce, Miss Alma Hale, Miss Ollie Rigby, Miss Lyons, Miss Grace Oliver, Purl Nixdorf, Charles French, Eli Estabrook and Roland Oliver.

One Drunk, Three Days.

Independence Day will mark the culmination of calamities in the life of Tom Clark. Tom got drunk yesterday and City Marshal Carney lodged him in the municipal bastille. He was taken before City Recorder Fitzgerald this morning and fine $5, with the alternative of serving three days in the calaboose. Having no money, he went to jail.

Where to Celebrate.

The objective points for Pendleton people on the Fourth of July will be Athena, Pilot Rock, Echo, Ukiah, Umatilla reservation and Walla Walla. A large number will attend the celebration at Athena, and a still larger number will go to Walla Walla on account of the unusually low rate to that city and the extra accommodation furnished in a special train returning from Walla Walla to this city on Monday evening at 11 o'clock. It is estimated that at least three extra coaches will be attached to the regular morning Spokane train, leaving here at 9 o'clock.

New Field Missionary.

W. W. P. Holt, professor of science in Whitworth College, Tacoma, and a son of Dr. W. S. Holt, the general field missionary of the Presbyterian church for Oregon, was in the city last night en route to Baker county, where he goes to occupy the position of Eastern Oregon Presbyterian field missionary, for the summer, in place of Rev. B. F. Harper, who is now pastor of the Presbyterian church at Milton. Mr. Holt's headquarters will be at Baker City.

Declines to Serve.

Frank Rogers has found that on account of business reasons he will be unable to act as deputy under County Clerk Saling. His declination was handed in yesterday. Mr. Saling expects to select a new deputy some time today. B. B. Hall, the present deputy, will retain his position for a month, until Mr. Saling becomes familiar with the duties of the position. Mr. Rogers will remain with the Kerr-Gifford Company at Athena.

Filing Their Bonds.

William Folsom, the newly elected recorder of conveyances, is the first official to file his bond for the ensuing term of office. It is in the amount of $3000, the American Surety Company of New York going on the bond. Certificates of election and oaths of office were filed today by John W. Kimbrell, who succeeds himself as county surveyor, and B. F. Dennis, elected to serve as justice of the peace.

Matlock at St. Louis.

J. D. Matlock, of Eugene, a brother of Mayor Matlock, of this city, and a delegate from Oregon to the democratic national convention, was a visitor at the Oregon building at the St. Louis fair, yesterday. It was through a mistake that J. D. Matlock was elected delegate to the convention, Mayor Matlock, of this city, being the man decided upon. Linn county confused the names and voted for J. D., taking him for the Pendleton man.

New Offices Created.

In the change made in the O. R. & N. official circles, J. F. Graham, formerly master mechanic of the system, has been made superintendent of motor power, a new office, and J. H. Langley had been made master mechanic at Albina, and D. H. Dressler at Starbuck. No appointment of master mechanic has yet been made at La Grande.

Will Loan Street Sprinkler.

Pilot Rock wins out. The residents of that lively burg may wear their Sunday-go-to-meetin's on the Fourth without danger of their being damaged by dust. Mayor Matlock and the street committee of the city council have agreed to permit that town the use of a street sprinkler on the Fourth.

Will Go to the Mountains.

Deputy County Clerk B. B. Hall took his wife and baby to Weston yesterday, where they will remain a month. Afterward they will spend a month in the mountains. Mrs. Hall was in April obliged to undergo an operation. Only in the last week has she recovered sufficiently to be able to leave her bed.

Baseball Mask Stolen.

Some hobo stole a $5 baseball mask from the local team at Umatilla, a few days ago, and the Umatilla boys are now in search of it. They believe the hobo has sold it in Pendleton and will attempt to recover the property if found.

Ill With Typhoid.

W. S. Perry, of the Rader furniture store, is ill at his home at 814 West Alta street, with typhoid fever.
