Young Peoples' Picnic.

The young people of the Methodist hurch held a picnic yesterday in the grove above the agency. Two hay-racks and a number of smaller rigs took the picnickers to the grounds, where the Fourth was celebrated in the old way with lots of noise. A big dinner was spread, a feature of which was a mammoth bronze turkey which dressed 27 pounds. After the dinner the crowd went to the Indian ance this morning.

BIG CELEBRATION AT THE RESERVATION IN PROGRESS.

One Thousand Pendleton People Attended the Indian Races, Parade and Opening Exercises Yesterday-The Entire Week Will Be Given Over to Indian Sports-Many Visiting Tribes Taking Part With the Umatillas.

The 15-day celebration at the agency opened very promising, the attendance being large, the enthusiasm top notch, and the weather glorious. Seventy-five family topees, occupied by full-bloods are on the ground, and there are twice as many "camps" cupied by mixed-bloods and a few The attendance of residents of the reservation is larger than ever before, and there are a number of visnors from the Snake, Lapwai and Shoshone reservations, ticipated in by 75 or 80 men, dressed in the habiliments of the old-time war-path, with a blood-curdling chorus of war-whoops pervading the entire niment of gun firing. The evolutions of the horsemen were much more skillful and attractive than has ever been seen on the reservation before, and the costumes showed more care in design.

The parade was followed by the war dance in which 50 men took part. Probably a thousand Pendleton people attended yesterday and many will go again and again. The opening per formances were interesting enough to encourage outsiders to return, and to pass the word along to others who may be looking for a very interesting place to spend a holiday.

Today races and gambling are the attractions. The gambling was in progress early and late. The racing will open today with a long-distance, slow race which will take place be tween 4 and 6 p. m. Two entries are expected, but it could not be ascertained at noon where they would be from. The course will be one and one-half miles westward from the agency school and return—a total of five miles distance. Part of the distance will be in the highway and part across the fields.

Aside from gambling with cards the games today and perhaps for the entire celebration, will be distinctive-Indian, as roulette and other me chanical games are tabooed

Visitors are promised a hot program every day from now on, so far as races are concerned. Affairs being a little laggard in the start are all the more likely to be exceedingly interesting when they do get going. All sorts of combination races are planned, with entries from the Columbia and in fact from every reservation within a distance of 300 miles, besides running horses owned by white
