

The Sheen of Pearl

reflected from perfect teeth can easily be destroyed by improper dentifrices. There are many preparations that will whiten teeth, but few that preserve the enamel while they whiten.

Dentifoam

saves teeth while it beautifies them. It arrests decay, hardens the gums, removes discolorations, sweetens the breath—and stops there.

HUDSON BAY NEWS

NEW COUNTY BRIDGE BUILT ON PINE CREEK.

Mrs. Dickerson Gets Out of Sickbed to Attend Husband's Funeral—C. E. Simonds Elected Director of District No. 83, Near Freewater, for Third Term—T. W. Dickerson, Aged Pioneer, Died at Hudson Bay Tuesday.

Hudson Bay, July 5.—Royal Ann cherries are a thing of the past on the Bay.

John Shaver has leased a threshing machine of Hugh Walker for the season, and will do the threshing in this vicinity.

W. S. Mayberry put in the county bridge on Pine creek last week, in District No. 4.

The usual number of people from this section spent the Fourth in Walla Walla, looking for the sights that are never seen there.

At the school meeting in District No. 83, C. E. Simonds was elected school director for the third time and J. H. Gentry, clerk.

Mrs. Henry Longly of Hilgard, is spending the summer with her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Simonds, on Pine creek.

Howard Wheelock of Boston, Mass., who has been stopping in this vicinity for the past three months, has gone to Kameia to work in a lumber yard.

The Fruit Vale church, recently organized by Rev. Hereford this spring, with about 30 members, was received under the care of the presbytery last Friday evening and an elder appointed. Revs. Van Caten of Dayton, and Lamb of Walla Walla, assisted in the work.

Mrs. Martha Dickerson of North Milton, who has been at St. Mary's hospital for the past four weeks with typhoid fever, was able to attend her husband's funeral Wednesday.

T. D. Dickerson, a pioneer of Umatilla county, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Anna Sanders, Tuesday evening of old age and paralysis, and was buried in Valley Chapel cemetery Wednesday. J. N. Stone had charge of the obsequies. Rev. R. L. Cartwright of Walla Walla, preached the funeral sermon.

J. Lynd & Co. of Freewater, are running two huckster wagons down through this section and on the state line for the accommodation of the public, and a benefit to themselves.

This, with the rural telephone and free rural mail delivery, brings the outside world almost to our doors. Four years ago any man who would have mentioned either of the above facts would have been a fit subject for the asylum.

THE EAGLES' CARNIVAL.

Largest Serpent in Captivity Will Be Seen Here Next Week.

The Salem Statesman has the following to say of the Dixie Carnival Company, which comes here for the Eagle carnival beginning July 11:

"The crowd of happy revelers in the streets along the midway last night was immense. Certain of the streets were absolutely jammed with people for hours, which shows that the carnival spirit is increasing and the popularity of the Dixie Carnival Company is daily growing on account of the merit of the shows.

By the time they are ready to leave Salem, people will discover what a good thing they have been enjoying, and it is predicted that on Saturday the large show tents will not be sufficient to accommodate the crush of people.

Manager Simpson is a genial young man, and a genuine showman, and will leave behind him a large circle of friends won by his courteous treatment during his short stay in the city. He depends a great deal on the record he leaves behind for his advertisement and has found that this method pays.

The great attraction of the carnival last night was Sampson, the mammoth man-eating snake. This is the largest snake in captivity in the world, and weighs 310 pounds.

He lives on chickens, and takes a meal only about once in two months, or six times a year. Last night the monster reptile showed signs of hunger and was fed five live chickens. He was very sluggish about the operation, but stealthily and surely crushed the life from its prey in its clammy embrace, and then swallowed it whole without even covering it with slime, as it is supposed to do.

Several chickens were thus devoured during the evening, but as the reptile has not yet eaten its usual amount an effort will be made to feed it again today. It is only once in a lifetime that an opportunity is given to see such a sight, and the crowd was so large last night that at no time were all able to see the gruesome sight.

The popularity of "Dare Devil" Mangels in his high dive is increasing and he is beginning to entertain his audience by witty repartee as he stands on the lofty height before taking the plunge. Yesterday afternoon he called to Mr. Zinn for an ice cream soda, and last night appeared dressed in a jaunty outing suit, and divested himself of the surplus after climbing to the dizzy height, casting them promiscuously in the crowd. This morning, at 9 o'clock, he will practice his Monte Cristo act, of being pushed from the tower while sewed up in a bag and cutting himself out before reaching the water.

The carnival management is well pleased with the returns in this city, saying they have so far been greater than was anticipated, and the best shows have enjoyed since leaving Sacramento, about two months ago.

Try the hot free lunch at the Merchants' Cafe, 12 to 1 at noon; 4 to 6 p. m., and at midnight.

In the Drowsy Weather.
In the drowsy weather, when you'd rather be away

Where the winds are in the blossoms and the green leaves are at play, in the glory of the gardens, in the red depths of the May.

The drowsy sort of weather when you'd rather be away!
Sleep, my honey,
Shady days are sunny;
Rather roll in clover than work away for money!

The drowsy sort of weather when you'd rather be away
Where the birds are singin' sweetly all the fields an' meadows say, an' the golden bees are havin' of a honey holiday.

The drowsy sort of weather when you'd rather be away!
Sleep, my honey,
Shady days are sunny;
Rather roll in clover than work away for money!

In the drowsy weather when the buds begin to swell
An' you're feelin' for the shadows of some old, forgotten dell,
When a fellow falls to dreamin' at the tinkle of a bell,
In the drowsy sort of weather when the buds begin to swell!

Sleep, my honey,
Shady days are sunny;
Rather roll in clover than work away for money!

Note.

Those indebted to me for wood and coal will please settle the same by July 6th, and save cost. P. P. Collier.

Love is an appetizer, but money pays the check.

Shoe Repairing

I have moved my shop to the second door east of the Savings Bank. Repairing of all kinds done in a workmanlike manner at reasonable rates. As I have been in business here 15 years, I need not speak of the quality of my work for it speaks for itself. My stock of shoes was somewhat damaged by water and the insurance company told me to sell them for what I could get, so I will sell them for less than wholesale price. CHRIS RANLEY.
