PORTER-HORN.

Pendleton Young Lady.

A very pleasant wedding occurred at the home of W. T. Porter, in the southwestern part of the city, at noon Wednesday, when Miss Thressa Porter became the wife of Ulysses Grant Horn, the wedding ceremony being pronounced by Rev. Robert Warner, of the Methodist Episcopal church

The occasion was rendered the more interesting on account of this being the 30th anniversary of the marriage of the bride's parents, W. T. Porter and wife.

The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Roork, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Noble, Mr. and Mrs. George Horn, of Pilot Rock; Mr. and Mrs. John Horn, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Mann, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Porter, Mrs. Walter Adams, Mrs. Ernest Evans, Mrs. Kissinger, of Pilot Rock; Ed Horn, Miss Myrtle Churchill, Miss Noble, Alf Horn, J. J. Dobson, Miss Porter, Mrs. Robert Warner, Misses Pearl and Bessie Porter, and Master Jesse Porter.

The bride and groom, as also Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Porter were the recipients of many elegant present. An elaborate dinner was served. The couple took the evening train for the seaside, where they will spend a couple of weeks, after which their home will be on the large stock ranch of Mr. Horn, near Pilot Rock.

The feat of Morton was praisewor-thy. At the risk of his life and limb he ran out, grasped the reins and threw one of the horses back on his haunches. Others rushed in to help and in a short time the horses were calmed. Stansbery afterward sought Morton and thanked him for the service he had rendered

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

Some Family Disputes Lead to C. W. McLyman Being Trounced.

Fred Langever, one of the proprietors of the Red Front saloon, located on Main street, pleaded guilty to assaulting C. W. McLyman and was fined $5 by Judge Fitz Gerald.

The asasult took place last night. Shortly afterward McLyman appeared at Judge Pitz Gerald's office, while the city council was in session, and preferred a charge. He was a gory spectacle, his face and hands being covered with blood. When he arrived in court this morning his nose and cheeks were covered with strips of court plaster, and Dr. Blakeslee had found it necessary to take three stitches in an ugly cut under right eye.

It is claimed by McLyman that the assault was committed without provocation. The men are married to sisters, and the complainant asserts that Langever is jealous of him. The leniency shown by the authorities was due to the allegation that Lang-ever thrashed McLyman because of Serious Results Forestalled by Lee an insulting remark made in reference to the former's wife.

Heavy Rain at Weston.

A severe rainstorm visited Weston and vicinity yesterday evening, floodran away. The team dashed up Main ing all the little creeks and beating street and caused considerable excited down some grain, but doing no permanent or serious damage. R. & N. culvert just above town was not large enough to carry off the extraordinary flow of water and for a few minutes a large stream flowed across the track. The wagon roads near the town were somewhat damaged and several gardens were ruined, but further than this the storm did no harm. The Spokane train was de layed about 30 minutes by the high water flowing over the culvert.

PENDLETON TO BE REPRE-SENTED PORTLAND MEETING.

President Borie, of Commercial Association, Will Appoint Delegates to Mass Meeting in Portland on August 2 and 3 for the Organization of the Oregon Development League-Believes the Movement Is Right and Timely and Should Be Well Attend-

The Oregon Development League is an organization planned to devise methods of promoting the resources of the state, not only by the ordinary more commonly exploited methwho ods, but to institute new ones if possible, and above all, to get together responsible and representative for comparison of opinions and ex-

How and where to invest capital and in what enterprises; the undeveloped and partially devel-oped resources of the state, and to promote its business and industrial interests, is the primary object of the organization, which will hold a state convention August 2-3 at Portland. according to the call just issued, and which urges representation from every commercial association, and from all other organizations designed to promote the same general purpose A circular embodying the call is in circulation

When shown a copy Borie, president of the Pendleton Com-mercial Association, said: "I will appoint to represent the association as many people as are entitled to go, as soon as I can learn what that number is, and hope to be able to attend myself, though I cannot say definitely that I will be able to do so.

"The objects of the organization are praiseworthy and we will probably make a mistake if we do not actively co-operate with it. If by joining with Portland we can do something for Pendleton, let us by all means do it. We should get an expression from the Commercial Association as soon as possible, at a meeting just as largely attended as possible, at which we can ascertain just who will go to Portland in August will try and appoint those who will do some good by going. It will be a mistake to hold back because Portland is pushing; but we should co-operate, taking care that our own interests are adequately represented in all projects for advertising state to attract immigrants and capi

"VETERINARIAN" FINED.

J. W. Proctor, Formerly in "Business" Here, Fined $50 in Heppner.

Deputy State Veterinarian J. Chrisie this morning received notice from E. G. Perkins, justice of the peace at Heppner, that J. W. Proctor, who was arrested here three months ago, and fire fined $50 for practicing veterinary medicine and surgery without a license, had just been fined $50 for the same offense in Morrow county.

Proctor was wanted in Morrow county for forging a check, when arrested for practicing veterinary surgers without gery without a license here, and as he had no money with which to pay his fine, he was turned over to the sheriff of Morrow county to answer for forgery. He squared up that charge and as soon as released began practicing without a license again, and was arrested at the instance of Dr. Christie, several days

The state veterinary board is deter-mined to stop practice without the li-cense, and other cases are in view and will be prosecuted in the near

DESERTER SURRENDERS.

James Smith is in Custody Here, and the Marshal Gets the Reward. Rather than afford men with whom he has been working in the mines near Sumpter the satisfaction of informing the authorities that he is a deserter from the United States army, service, James Smith came to the city yesterday afternoon and sur-rendered himself to the custody of City Marshal Carney. He was confined in the county jail and the officers at Vancouver barracks from which post he descried, notified. Smith was stationed at Vancouver s a member of Company B, 19th infantry. He said he got tired of army life and skipped out, but concluded he had made a mistake and was wil-ling to go back and take his punish-ment. Learning that his fellow workmen at Sumpter intended to reveal his whereabouts, he concluded forestall them. The city mar will receive a reward of $30 marshal Smith's apprehension.

ARGUMENTS IN TAYLOR CASE.

Decision Expected in About Ten Days by Judge Ellis.

Argument in the Taylor case began before Circuit Judge Ellis this morning and was continued this be taken under advisement by Judge Ellis late this afternoon. Colonel Raey opened for the plaintiff, John Mc-Court following for the defense. James A. Fee closed for the defendant this afternoon and Will M. Peterson for the plaintiff.

Colonel Raley declared that two of the allegations made against Taylor by his wife entitled him to a divorce, one being the charge of unfaithful-Attorney McCourt claimed justification for a number of the accu-sations made by Mrs. Taylor, and declared that she had ben warranted in believing the others true.

The opinion commonly expressed is that a divorce will be granted. If so, the division of property will prove the real problem. A decision is expected from Judge Ellis in about 16 days.
