COLLECT THE TAX

ASSESSOR STRAIN SAYS COUNTRY NEEDS O. R. & N. MONEY.

School Districts Are Badly in Need of Money for Improvements—Work is Delayed Because O. R. & N. Taxes Are Not Paid—Mr. Strain Says County Court Should Employ Lawyers and Force the Case to a Finish.

Owing to the failure of the O. R. & N. to pay its taxes for last year, leading to litigation and the prospect for still further delay, many of the school districts are unable to settle for a number of improvements which have been made, and others contemplating improvements are unable to begin work.

County Assessor Strain is writing the assessment roll for this year and expects to have it in readiness by the time the board of equalization meets, the last Monday in August. In about 10 days he will reach the railroad assessment for this year, which presents to him a serious problem. The decision shown in forcing the matter of railway taxes to an issue has placed him in a position where he hardly knows what to do.

In view of the circumstances the assessor desires the county court to take action immediately. The plan proposed by him is to employ a competent lawyer to devote his time to the railway case and bring about a settlement of the difficulty as soon as possible.

"The railway is now practically the only taxpayer failing to meet the assessment for last year," said Mr. Strain. "I ask that a lawyer be employed to hurry the matter through the courts as soon as possible, not only to prevent me from being handicapped in making future assessments—as I must have a basis on which to work—but also because several school districts are badly in need of the money which is due them from the tax that shall arise from the last year's railroad assessment."

"My position in this matter of employing special counsel is this: I do not desire to cast any reflection on Mr. Phelps, the prosecuting attorney, but the question of a railway assessment is an intricate proposition and would require the whole time of a lawyer for a brief period. That is something, perhaps, that Mr. Phelps could not give. The question requires careful attention, and a good deal of it. It is necessary, therefore, to employ a man who can devote his whole time to the case."

"In a number of school districts the principal revenue is derived from railway taxes. The failure to pay is causing those that have already made improvements to take up their position on the anxious seat. Other districts needing improvements badly cannot see their way clear to making them so long as there is uncertainty about what the railroads are to be compelled to do. As for myself, how can I go ahead and assess the roads for this year until I know on what valuation they shall be based? For these reasons I am convinced that anything like a reasonable fee paid a lawyer to take the matter up and force it to an issue would be money well spent."

All told, the taxes of the O. R. & N. for last year amounted to about $50,000. The previous year they were $24,000. Mr. Strain assessed the road on a basis of $12,000 to the mile. One hundred and sixty-seven miles of the line lie in this county.

J. D. BENTLEY, PIONEER.

Brother of J. M. Bentley Arrives in Pendleton on a Visit After Nine Years.

J. D. Bentley, a brother of J. M. Bentley, of this city, and George Bentley, of Adams, arrived in the city this morning from California, on a visit. Mr. Bentley visited Pendleton the last time nine years ago, and is greatly surprised to note the changes in the city and country in that time. He came by boat from San Francisco to Portland, and enjoyed his trip very much and expects to spend several weeks in Oregon.

J. D. Bentley went to California in 1850, from Missouri, and has made that state his home since. When his brothers, including J. M., of this city, crossed the plains in 1864, the emigrant train ran short of provisions and J. D. met them with food and fresh stock and piloted them into the Golden state, from the desert where he found them.

Mr. Bentley served under General Price in the Mexican war, having left Boone county, Missouri for the war in 1847. Tom Nye, formerly of this city, now of Portland, was also a member of Mr. Bentley's company in the Mexican war, and Mr. Bentley will visit Mr. Nye before returning to California.

He says the state of California is rapidly changing, as are all other Western states. The large tracts of farming land are being cut up into small farms, each supporting a family and producing more and more variegated crops and fruit each year. He loves California, having spent 54 years there, more than half a century. He will remain there as long as he lives.

Hamilton Anniversary Observed.

New York, July 9.—Members of historical and patriotic societies of New York and New Jersey gathered across the river on the heights of Weehawken today and took part in interesting exercises held in observance of the 100th anniversary of the death of Alexander Hamilton, following his famous duel with Aaron Burr. The exercises were held on the exact spot where the duel was fought, and which is now marked by a huge boulder, said to be the same boulder on which the great statesman rested his head after receiving the fatal bullet from his antagonist's pistol.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

By local applications as they can not reach the diseased portions of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.
